Bird, James & Saunence.

THE

LAWS

RESPECTING

LANDLORDS, TENANTS,

AND

LODGERS,

aid down in a plain, easy, and familiar Manner; and free from the technical Terms of the Law.

PRACTICAL DIRECTIONS.

CONCERNING

LEASES, ASSIGNMENTS, SURRENDERS, AGREEMENTS, COVENANTS, REPAIRS, WASTE, &c. &c.

demand and Payment of RENT, DISTRESS, and EJECTMENT,

As collected from the several REPORTS AND OTHER BOOKS OF AUTHORITY, Up to the Commencement of the present Easter Term, 1794.

DISTINCT TREATISES
ON THE VARIOUS KINDS OF ESTATES, ESTATES FOR LIFE, FOR YEARS,

COPYHOLD ESTATES.

oterspersed with Notes and References for the use of the Profession.
WITH AN APPENDIX OF PRECEDENTS.

Comprising

reat Variety of the most approved Forms of Leases, Assignments, Surrenders, Covenants, Notices to Quit, Recipts for Rent, and Precedents in Distress.

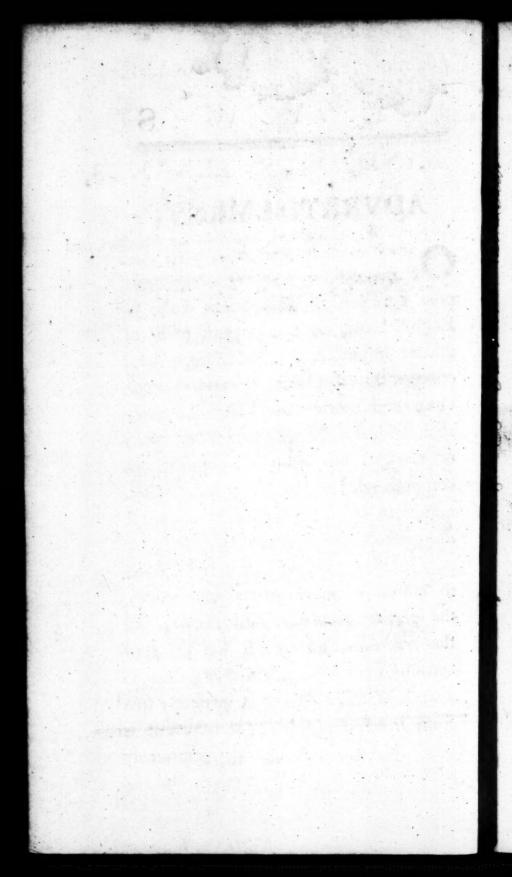

CAUTIONS and DIRECTIONS relative to the HIRING and LETTING of HOUSES and APARTMENTS;

Particularly in the Metropolis of London.

DUBLIN:

Printed by R. Belly,

For Meffrs. P. Byrne, W. Jones, J. MILLIKEN, and J. Boyce.

OF the various branches which compose the present voluminous code of English Laws, no one appears to be of greater importance, or of more general concern than that which relates to LAND-LORDS and TENANTS .- There is scarcely an individual in the nation, however mean or elevated his condition, who is not comprehended within one or other of the numerous objects it embraces: a subject lo generally useful ought to be as generally known; but unfortunately for those to whom it more particularly relates, the private gentleman, the farmer, and the tradesman, no treatise has yet successfully united the effential requisites to a work of this kind-to be perfectly free from technical phrases; (of which it is A 2 extremely extremely difficult for professional men entirely to diveft themselves); to contain every thing necessary for the information of both Landlerd and Tenant, without the introduction of irrelevant matter; and to bear a price fo moderate as to come within the easy purchase of the artificer and peafant .- To attain these desirable ends is the object of the present Treatise: we have endeavoured to render ourselves intelligible to every reader, without fuffering our language to be loofe, or colloquial; we have collected, and methodically arranged, whatever we conceived would be useful to the general reader, without intruding on his attention any thing that appeared to relate folely to the professional practitioner; and we have compressed our subject within as narrow a compass and as reasonable a price as the variety of our matter would possibly admit of.

1006586

But, though we have defigned our treatife chiefly for the instruction of the general reader, yet we cannot but think that it will be found a most useful companion to the young practitioner, who will find interspersed throughout the work, not only all the recent decisions concerning Landlords and Tenants, up to the prefent time, but also a great variety of notes and observations inserted at the bottom of each page, purposely for bis use: we trust, too, that the more proficient lawyer will procure some affistance from our labours-they will enable him to advife his client with more accuracy than he could by the help of his memory alone, and with more readiness than by referring to a larger work.

The plan we have pursued will be seen by a reference to the Table of Contents, where, we hope, it will be perceived that our subject has been arranged

A 3

with

with all possible perspicuity, and every thing comprised that can be necessary for the reader's information.

 Should the present volume meet with the public approbation, it is intended to follow up our subject with familiar treatises upon all such other heads and divisions of the Law as more immediately relate to the concerns of private Gentlemen, Farmers, and Tradefmen.

to start as a security of a second

TABLE

HALL THE TAX TO A MEN A TO

	СНА	P. I.	142 X 15
OF estates	in general	, a (1, a, .) 20, 1, a, .	ine on a R	age 1
	СНА	Р. П.	द्य राजने प्राकृति त
Of estates	of inheritane	ce	and a light of	2.4945
I. An eft II. A qu III. A co IV. An	late in fee-sit calified fee conditional fee estate-tail	mple	Tos W.) cds (O. 3	ibid 4
	CHA	P. III.	. Medgees	ìO.
Of estates	of freehold,	but not	of inherita	ince.

I. An estate for life - 5 II. An estate-tail, after possibility of issue ex-

III. An estate by the curtesy of England IV. An estate in dower tinet

V. An estate in jointure

CHAP.

II ibid

ibid

CHAP. IV.
Of estates less than freehold.
I. An estate for years 1. Who may grant estates for	Pag
2. The requisites to constitute a	valid	leafe
3. Of covenants, provisoes, ments in leases for years	and a	1.00 M/170
4. The interest a lessee for year premises demised to him, and	s has i	in th
dents to an estate for years 5. The means by which an estat	-	2:
may be destroyed - And berein of affignment, sur forfeiture.		2
II. Of an estate at will -	1.5	3
III. Of an estate by sufferance		40
CHAP. V.
Of copyhold eftates -	-	41
CHAP. VI.
Of estates in severalty, joint-tena	ncy, c	opar-
cenary, and common -	-	51

CHAP. VII.

Of notice to quit

CHA

Mii r a

CHAP. VIII.

Of rents .			Pa	ge 57
I. Concerning II. To whom	the reser	vation of ayable in	rent -	ibid
				59
III. Of the a	demand of	rent	HALL E	61
IV. Of tende	er and re	fusal of r	ent -	64
V. Of Accep				65
VI. Of the	recovery o	f rent in	arrear	66
Concerning dist	位于1000年1000年1000年1
I. Who may	distrain a	nd who n	ot -	68
II. What thi	ngs can b	e taken in	diftres,	and what not	-			71
III. Of the ti	ime and m	anner of	taking di	Ares
				77
IV. How a a	distress is	to be difpe	fed of -	. 81
V. How dift	ress may b	e replevie	d -	84
V. How distr VI. Practical	l' direction	s for ma	king dift	res
			. ,	85
Of eject	ment			87
			The second second

9

15 ad

37

41

51

AF

CHAP. IX.

Miscellaneous observations, cautions, and directions relative to the taking of houses and apartments in London - 89

APPENDIX OF PRECEDENTS.

I. Agreements -		Page 93
II. Leases -		- 108
III. Assignments		- 132
IV. Surrenders -	•	145
V. Notices to quit		- 149
VI. Receipts for rent		- 151
VII. Precedents in diff	refs -	152

See the above feveral Titles in the Index:

B B B C C C C C C

BBB

Lu M

N

An Explanation of the Contractions made use of in this Work.

Amb. And. Atk. Bac. Ab. Black. Com.

Bro. or Brow.
Bro. Dift.
Bur.
Co.
Co. Cop.
Co. Lit.
Cow.

Cro. Jac.

Cro. Eliz.

Doug.
Dy. or Dyer
Dift.
Gilb.
Hob.
Inft.
Leo.
Lev.
Lil. Conv.
Lit.
Lutw.
Mod.
Moor.

Noy Max.

Ambler's Reports.
Anderson's Reports.
Atkyns's Reports.
Bacon's Abridgement.
Blackstone's Commentaries.

Brown's Chancery Cases. Brooke's Distress. Burrow's Reports. Coke's Reports. Coke's Copyholder. Coke upon Littleton. Cowper's Reports. Croke's Reports in the time of Elizabeth. Croke's Reports in the time of James. Douglas's Reports. Dyer's Reports. Diffress. Gilbert's Reports. Hobart's Reports. Coke's Institutes. Leonard's Reports. Levinz's Reports.

Levinz's Reports.
Lilly's Conveyancer.
Littleton's Tenures.
Lutwich's Reports.
Modern Reports.
Moor's Reports.
Noy's Maxims of the Laws of England.
6th edition.

An Explanation, &c.

Ow.
P.
Perk.
Plow.
P. Wil.
Raym.
Roll. Ab.
Salk.
Sty.
Term Rep.

Vaugh. Vent. Vez. Vid. Wilf. Went.

A Company of Manager 1

Terroquite a n

The property of the Paris

Owen's Reports. Page. Perkins' profitable Book. Plowden's Commentaries. Peere William's Reports. Raymond's Reports. Rolls' Abridgement. Salkeld's Reports. Styles' Reports. Term Reports by Durnford and East. Vaughan's Reports. Ventris' Reports. Vezey's Reports. Sec. Wilson's Reports. Wentworth's Law of Executors.

of

or,

ve

fta

f i ot

THE

LAW

OF

LANDLORD AND TENANT.

CHAP. I.

Of Estates in general.

N estate is that interest which a person has An estate, in lands, or tenements; this by the laws of England may be various: it may be for a certain number of years, months, or days; it may be for a man's own life, or the life of another person; it may determine at his decease, or remain to his descendants after him. or, laftly, it may be abfolute and unlimited, being vefted in him and his representatives for ver. In technical language, these different estates are denominated as follow: estates in The various see-simple; and fee-tail; which are freeholds estates. f inheritance; estates for life; after possibility f issue extinct; by the curtesy; in dower; and n jointure; which are estates of freehold, but ot of inheritance; estates for years; at will;

and at sufferance; which are neither of freehold nor of inheritance; estates by copy of court-roll, some of which are, and some are not of inheritance; eflates in joint-tenancy; in common; and in coparcenary; which may be had in any of the preceding estates. Concerning each of these, we shall speak in the order we have enumerated them, being more or less diffuse in our observations, as they may severally appear to have greater or less relation to our subject of Landlord and Tenant.

CHAP. II.

Of Estates of Inheritance, and first

Of an Estate in Fee-Simple.

b

K he

th

hi

T

fib

fan

ter

the

Li

a fe

five

An eftate in fee-fimple.

A N estate in fee-simple is where a man has lands, tenements, or hereditaments, to hold to him and his heirs for ever, (viz. to have the use and take the profits thereof to him and his heirs, for the absolute property of the foil can belong to no fubjett, but always refide This estate may be had in any In what it in the king). may be had kind of hereditaments, corporeal, or incorporeal, as lands, houses, advowsons, tythes, &c Itsincidents, and is the highest and most extensive interest man can possess in any property. It may be granted and disposed of either by deed or will at his pleasure; and if he make no disposition of it in his life time, it will, on his death defcend to his heirs of the whole blood, that is, to his lineal descendants. All the inferior estates of which we shall have occasion to treat in the ensuing pages, are derived out of, and compose a part of this: an estate for life or years, for instance, is only a certain portion of the estate of him who has the fee, to whom, on the death of the present possessor, or other determination of his estate, it will revert to be held again in fee-simple. Estates in fee are subject to the dower of the wise, chargeable with debts of record, and may be forseited for treason. Co. Lit. § 1. Noy Max. 6th edit. p. 43.

1-

s

11

to to im the des

b

tio

ath

tha

II. Of a base, or qualified Fee.

A base, or qualified see, is that which has A base see. a qualification annexed to it, which must determine whenever that qualification is at an end; as where Hen. 6. granted to John Talbot, that he and his heirs, lords of the manor of Kingston-Liste, should be peers of the realm; here J. Talbot had a base, or qualified see, in that dignity which determined the instant he or his heirs ceased to be lords of the said manor. This estate is reckoned a see because by possibility it may endure for ever; but, as it at the same time depends upon concurrent and collateral circumstances, which debase the purity of the fee, it is called a base, or qualified see. Co. Lit. 27. 2 Black. Com. 109.

III. Of a Conditional Fee.

A conditional fee was, at the common law, A fee condia fee restrained to some particular heirs, exclutional. five of others, as to the heirs of a man's body,

B 2 which which admitted only his lineal descendants. This estate was nearly extinguished by the stat. 13 Ed. 1. c. 1. commonly called the statute de donis, which gave rise to the modern estate tail.

IV. Of an Estate-Tail.

Eftate-tail.

An eftate-tail may be either general or special; general, where lands and tenements are restrained to the heirs of a man's body generally; special, where they are restrained to some particular heirs of his body, as to the heirs of his body by his wife Mary, &c.

Its incidents.

The principal incidents to a tenancy in tail are these: 1. A tenant in tail may commit waste on the estate-tail by felling timber, pulling down houses, or the like, without being liable to account for the same. 2. The wife of a tenant in tail shall have her dower or thirds of the estate-tail. 3. The husband of a female tenant in tail may be tenant by the curtefy of the estate-tail: 4. A tenant in tail may by stat. 32 Hen. 8. c. 28, grant leases of the estate-tail for the term of 3 lives, or 21 years provided they be made to commence from the making, or some short time after, and be of lands, or tenements, usually let to farm for 21 years past; and so that the accustomed yearly rent paid within that time be referved 5. An estate-tail may be barred or destroyed by a fine, or a common recovery, or by lineal warranty, descending with affets to the heir, or by committing treason. Co. Lit. 224.

CHAP

fe

li

ar pr

be

pa

br

ar

de

gr

a

an

Do

ma

not fha

the fore

ord

teri

CHAP. III.

e

e

re

e-

to

he ail

nit

11-ng ife

10

F 2

ır-

ay,

the

ITS,

the

of

for ned

ed.

by

ar-

by

AP

Of Estates of Freehold, but not of Inheritance, and first

Of an Estate for Life.

A N estate for life is where a man has lands An estate or tenements to hold during his own life, or the life of some other person, or for some other uncertain period, which by possibility may continue for life. Co. Lit. 42.

As this estate under one or other of the above definitions is by far more frequent amongst those for whom we have adapted the present treatise than either of those we have before noticed, we shall be somewhat more particular in our remarks upon it, and consider briefly, I. How it may be created. 2. What are its incidents, and 3. How it may be destroyed.

Estates for life may be created not only by a r. How grant to a person expressly for life, but also by created. a general grant, without defining or limiting any specific estate, as, if I grant "to Philip Downing my house at Hampstead." This makes him tenant for life; for though it cannot be a see for want of the word heirs, it shall be construed to be as large an estate as the words of the donation will bear, and therefore an estate for life. Co. Lit. 42.

It may be proper to remark here, that in order to create a valid estate for life, it is material that it be made to commence on the same day upon which it is granted (a); for at common law no estate of freehold can be created without actual possession being given of the thing granted. A lease for life, therefore, to begin at Michaelmas next, would be void, for possession cannot be given now, of an estate which is not to commence till a future period. 5 Co. 94.

B 3 day

2. Its incidents. full enjoy-

May take estovers.

The incidents to an estate for life are principally the following: A tenant for life has a Tenant for right to the full use and enjoyment of his estate, life has a and of all profits or advantage which may arise right to the from it, fuch only excepted as, if taken, would ment of his be to the permanent loss of the person entitled to the reversion: he may, therefore, unless restrained by particular covenants, as may also his leffee, or undertenant, take sufficient wood from off the estate for the necessary purposes of repairs, firing, and implements of husbandry (a), without any express affignment thereof

> (a) To preserve this requisite, some attention is necessary in the wording of a lease for life. If it be made to com-mence " from the day of the date," (which has too frequently been done) the day on which it is dated will be excluded, and the leafe consequently void. Loft. Rep. 296. It should therefore be made to commence " from henceforth," " from the making hereof," or the like, which expressions include > the day of making. Co. Lit. 45. 1 Wilf. 176.

>
> It has, however, been held that a leafe, under a power to grant leafes in possession, and not in reversion, is good, though made to begin " from the day of the date." Doug.

53. 565. Cowp. 7111

(a) These perquisites are in law termed estovers, or botes, and are principally house-bote, cart-bote, and bay bote. House-bote means a sufficient allowance of wood for firing, and the repair of the tenement and out-houses. Cart-bote fignifies wood for making and repairing carts, ploughs, and other implements of hulbandry; and hay-bote, wood for keeping the hedges and other fences in repair.

П

e

h to

to

OL

de

an

giv

(

alio

of t kon

pend

nent

in his leafe; he has also right to the pollards, and dotards, and to the plashings of quicks and coppice wood, (but he must be careful to fence in the stocks, so that the growing shoots be not destroyed by cattle,) but he is not at liberty to cut down timber trees, pull down Must not houses, or commit other waste (b) upon the commit premises, for the destruction of such things waste. would tend to impoverish the estate of the reversioner, and they are moreover neither the temporary profits of the land, nor necessary for the complete enjoyment of the estate. Co. Lit. 41. b. 4. Co. 63. a. Co. Lit. 53.

The law will not fuffer a tenant for life to be prejudiced by any such sudden or casual determination of his estate as he could not foresee or prevent.

d

e

0

T

e

1.

2

d

d o

d

of

of 1-

td,

ld

m

de er

d,

g.

nd

te

ees

n-

he

in

Therefore, if tenant for life fow his land, Shall have and die before the corn, &c. be ripe, though his emblementa estate be determined, yet shall his executors in some cases, have the crop and other emblements (c); for to fow the land was a public benefit, tending to the increase and plenty of provisions, and ought to have the utmost encouragement. Noy Max. c. 9.

And so it is if the estate of tenant for life be determined by the act of law.

Therefore, if an estate be granted to a man and woman during coverture, (which would give them a determinable estate for life) and

(b) Concerning waste, see post. p. 35.

B 4

they

⁽c) Emblements are not only corn and other grain fown, but also roots planted, and in general, all annual, artificial profits of the land; but fruit trees, grase, and the like, are not reckoned emblements, because not planted annually, at the expence and labour of the tenant; but being a natural permanent profit of the earth. 2. Black. Com. 122.

they be divorced, still the husband shall have the corn, &c. previously fown, for the sentence of divorce was the act of law. 5 Co. 116.

but not in leffees.

But it would be otherwise if the estate were determined by the wilful act of the parties themselves.

As if tenant for life forfeit his estate by committing waste, granting his estate in fee, &c. in these and similar cases, he shall lose the emblements, and must leave upon the premises whatever may be growing at the time of its determination; and indeed what right can he claim to that which he has voluntarily relinquished? Co. Lit. 55.

As to his

Another incident to estates for life, regards the lesses, or undertenants, to whom the law is equally favourable as to their leffors, the original tenants for life, and in some cases more fo, for they are not only entitled to effovers and emblements, as the original tenant for life is, but in some cases where the original tenant shall not have them on account of having determined his estate by his own act, yet his leffee shall, who is a third person, and ought not to be hurt by the default of his leffor. Co. Lit. 55. Cro. Eliz. 461.

As, if a woman hold lands during celibacy, and marry, this being her own act, she shall lose her emblements; but if she have leased her estate to an undertenant, her marriage will not deprive him, because he was a stranger to the act, and if otherwise could not prevent it.

I Rol. Ab. 727.

Executors And until the last reign, lessee of tenant for &c. may relife, in case of the death of his lessor, between cover rent the quarter-days appointed for rendering his of leffees after tenant tor life's death.

rent,

rent, might lawfully quit the premises without paying any, fince the last quarter-day; but this unreasonable privilege was remedied by II Geo. 2. c. 19. which enacts, that the executors or administrators of tenant for life, shall recover of the leffee a rateable proportion of rent from the last day of payment to the death of the leffor. 10 Co. 127.

It may here also be observed, that at the Action of common law there was no other mode of reco- debt may be vering rent due from tenant for life than by had for rent. diffress; but now by stat. 8 An c. 14. any perfon having rent in arrear, due, or leafe for life or lives, may have action of debt for the fame as if due upon leafe for years.

VE

ce

ere ies

n-

cc.

he

fes

its

he

n-

ds

W

he

re

ers.

ife

nt

e-

is ht

0.

y,

all

ed

ill to it.

or en

is it,

Though estates for life will, generally speak- How an ing, last as long as the life for which they are estate for life may be granted continues, yet there are some estates destroyed.

for life which may determine fooner.

As, if a leafe be made to a woman during her widowhood, or to a man till he be promoted to a benefice, these estates are absolutely determined on the marriage of the woman, or the man's obtaining a benefice; yet whilst they subsist they are reckoned estates for life, because the term of their continuance being uncertain, they may by possibility last for life, viz. if the contingencies on which they are to determine do not sooner happen (a). 3. Co. 20. 2 Black. Com. 121.

(a) A lease for years, executed by tenant for life, is void on his death though the reversioner be made a party to it, and afterwards execute in order to confirm it. 1 Term Rep. 86.

B 5

By

If tenant for By 29 Car. 2. c. 6. it is enacted, "that if tenlife absent ant for life shall remain beyond sea, or else. for 7 years, hall be pre- where absent himself for seven years together, fumed to be and no sufficient proof be made of his being living, he fhall in any action brought by the leffee, or reversioner, be accounted dead." But by the same act it is provided, that, if he afterwards return, or appear to be living, he shall recover the intervening profits of the land with interest for the same.

Forfeiture.

The estate of tenant for life may determine by forfeiture, which will take place whenever the tenant does any act inconsistent with the nature of his estate; as by committing waste, granting to another a greater interest than he has himself, (a) &c.

Concerning the mode of demanding and recovering rent in arrear, together with fuch other incidents and properties of an estate for life as it bas in common with an estate for years, See post. chap. iv. &. viii.

Of an Estate-Tail, after possibility of Iffue extinct.

An effatetail after iffue extinct.

This appellation is given to the estate of one who being tenant in special tail, (that is, to possibility of hold to him and his heirs by some particular woman,) the person from whose body the issue was to fpring dies without iffue, or having iffue, fuch issue becomes extinct. Co. Lit. § 32.

⁽a) See more concerning forfeiture, chap. iv. §. 5.

III. An Estate by the Curtesy of England.

ng

he 1."

ith

ne rer

he te,

he

:0-

ret

ne

ue

ue,

This happens when a man marries a woman An estatefeized of an estate of inheritance, and has by the curher iffue born alive and capable of inheriting land. the estate, and she dies, the husband is then entitled to the estate as tenant by the curtefy of England. To entitle a man to be tenant by the curtefy, the marriage must be legal; the wife must have been actually in possession of the lands, and the iffue must be born alive.

IV. Of an Estate in Dower.

Which is, where a husband being seized of An estate an estate of inheritance dies, leaving his wife in dower. furviving. In this case she shall have, during her life, a third part of all lands and tenements of which her husband was so seized at any time during their marriage. A woman will forfeit her dower by aliening the lands affigned to her; by divorce; by elopement; by the treason of her husband; and may bar it by levying a fine, or fuffering a recovery during her coverture. Lit. § 36.

V. Of an Estate in Jointure.

A jointure is defined by Sir Edw. Coke to Jointure. be a competent livelihood of freehold for the wife, of lands and tenements, to take effect in profit or possession immediately on the death of her husband. To constitute a good jointure, it must be for her own life; it must be made to herself and not another, in trust for her; it must must be, and so expressed to be, in lieu of dower. If the jointure be settled before marriage, the observance of these requisites will prevent her claiming her dower; but if not till after marriage, the may notwithstanding resuse the jointure, and take her dower at common law. Co.

Lit. 36.

These estates of tenant in tail after possibility, &c. tenant by the curtesy, in dower, and in jointure, are equivalent to the estate for life, which we recently spoke of, and partake in general of the same privileges and disabilities as that estate; we shall therefore say nothing farther concerning them at present; particularly as they have but little relation to our general subject, and will occasionally be noticed in most of the subsequent chapters.

CHAP. IV.

Of Estates less than Freehold,

and first

Of an Estate for Years.

An effate for years defined. A N estate for years may be defined to be a contract or agreement between the lessor, (i. e. the person making the lease) and the lesser, (the person to whom it is made); for the possession and profits of lands and tenements on the one side, and a rent or recompence to be paid on the other, for some determinate period. 2 Bac. Ab. Tit. "Leases". 2 Black. Com. 140.

Every

fo

ag

pre

cel

be

Every estate which must necessarily expire at a certain and prefixed period, by whatever words created, is in law construed to be an estate for years; for which reason it is frequently called a term, from the Latin word terminus, because its duration or continuance is bounded and determined; and it is immaterial whether it be for a complete term of a year, or for a longer or shorter period, for if it be but for half a year, or a quarter, or any less time, it is still respected as an estate for years, 2 Black. Com. 140. Lit. 57. and this is the estate to which we have so frequently referred in the preceding part of our work, and to which, on account of its great frequence and more especially amongst those for whole information and use our volume is principally defigned, we have promifed to give bur more particular attention. We shall, therefore, consider it in five points of view, and enquire

1. Who may grant an estate for years, or in other words, who may make a good lease for years.

r

1.

'

n

,

-

S

S

of ٢,

e,

[-

id d.

ry

II. What requisites must be observed in order to make a valid lease.

III. Of covenants, provisoes, clauses, and agreements in leafes for years.

IV. The interest a lesse for years has in the premises demised to him; with some other miscellaneous incidents to this estate.

V. By what means an estate for years may be barred or determined.

And first, concerning who may grant an Eflate for Years.

Who may grant leafes.

It may be faid in general, that all persons feized in fee-fimple, fee-tail, for term of life or years, of lands or tenements, may grant leafes thereof for any term less than their own respective interests.

Tenants in fee.

Tenant in fee-fimple having an absolute and unlimited interest in his estate, may consequently grant leafes of all or any part thereof, for life or years, or otherwise, at his pleasure, without limitation or restraint.

Tenants in tail.

Tenant in tail, by stat. 32 Hen. 8. may, as before observed, grant leases of his estate-tail for 3 lives, or 21 years. to commence from the making. Vide p. 4.

Tenants for life, &c.

Tenants for life, by the curtefy, and in dower, may grant leafes of their estate, for their own lives, or the life of the person on whose death their estate will determine.

Husbands in wives.

Husbands seized of lands, &c. in right of right of their their wives, are authorized by the same stat. of 32 Hen. 8. to make leases thereof for any term not exceeding 21 years, or three lives in being to commence from the making (a), in which however, the wife must join, and the same requifites be observed as in leases made by tenant Co. Lit. 45. in tail.

Joint-tenants, tenants in common, and coparcenary.

Joint-tenants, tenants in common and in coparcenary may make leafes for life or years, or at will, of their own respective parts, which, 1

a

th

0

m

be

fan

at 1

at t

con

⁽a) It has been determined, that though the directions of the statute are not strictly complied with in these respects, to demise is not absolutely void, but voidable only by the entry the remainder man. Doug. 53.

their death, will bind their companions. Wood

Inft. 267.

ns

Or

fes

c-

nd

tly

10 ni-

25 ail

he

er,

wn

ath

of

of

rm

ng,

ch, re-

ant

CO-

01

, at

5 0 the

ry d

ell

Executors and administrators having terms for Executors years vested in them, in right of their testators and adminior intestates, may make leases thereof for any strators. shorter period than the whole term (a), and the rent referved will be affets in their hands, and go in a course of administration. 6 Co. 63. b.

Ecclefiaftical persons and eleemosynary cor- Ecelefiaftical porations, may also by the aforesaid stat. 32 Hen. persons. 8. make leases under the following restrictions, viz. they must not exceed 21 years, or 3 lives, from the making. The accustomed rent must be referved, and the old leafe, if one in being, must be within 3 years of expiring; and leases fo made shall bind their successors.

Guardians of infants, (whether appointed by Guardians. law, or by will, or chosen by the infant himfelf), may make leases of the infants' lands for any number of years which will not extend beyond the term of his minority (b). Co. Lit. 88. Vaugh. 18, 179.

But infants themselves cannot make leases of their estates so as to bind them when they come of age (c), except in the case of the king, who may make leases at any age. Dy. 209.

(a) They may dispose of the whole term, but it will then be an affignment, and not a leafe.

(b) Though the leafes be made to continue beyond the infant's minority, they are not absolutely void, but voidable only at the infant's option. Cro. Jac. 55. 98.

These leases may be made in the guardian's own name.

(c) By the custom of some places, infants may grant leases at the age of 15 years, which shall bind them after they become of age. Co. Lit. 45.

Requisites for a good lease. Must be in writing. II. The Requisites to constitute a valid Lease for Years (a).

The first requisite to make a good lease for years is, that it be put into writing; for, by stat. 29 Car. 2. c. 3. made for the prevention of frauds, it is enacted, that "all leases, interests of freeholds, or terms for years, of any uncertain interests, of, in, to, or out of any messuages, lands, tenements, &c. not put into writing and signed by the parties creating or making the same, shall have the force and effect of estates at will (b) only, and shall not, either at law, or in equity, be taken to have any greater effect, except only leases not exceeding 3 years from the making; whereupon the rent reserved shall be at least two thirds of the improved value."

But though leases exceeding the term of 3 years must be in writing, no particular form of words is necessary to constitute a good lease; for as a lease for years (as we before observed) is no other than a contract for the possession and profits of land on the one side, and a recompence to be paid on the other, any words that are sufficient to prove such contract, will in law amount to a lease: for if one covenants with another that he shall hold premises for such a time, this is a good lease; for there are suffi-

m

le

i

ho

is bn

or

lit.

(a) enc

fior

try.

(6)

d le

l th afe i

⁽a) See the proper form, &c. of a lease for years, Appeadix. No. 11.

⁽b) Therefore, a parol agreement to demife lands for 4 years, creates no greater effate than at will. 4 Term. Rep. 680. But though a parol agreement is void as to the duration of the demife, yet it is good in respect of the terms of the agreement in other respects, as the rent reserved, the time of the year when the tenant is to quit, &c. 5 Term Rep. 472.

tient words to prove an agreement, that the one hall quit, and the other take possession of the and. Cro. Eliz. 1'13. 1 Co. 129. 2. 12 Ibid. 610. 5 Term Rep. 163.

We have feen that a leafe for life must com- As to its nence on the very day upon which it is made; commenceut this is not necessary in a lease for years, for determinas no corporeal possession need be given of this tion. state, as of an estate for life, it may begin at ny future period that shall be agreed upon beween the parties (a).

6

70 y

of ts

r-1-

i-

ıg

of

at er

us

ed

ed

of

e;

(b:

ind m-

hat

aw

ith

1 2 ffi-

pen-

213,

80. the nent

year

ent

In a leafe for years the time when the term is begin, and when it is to end, must be certain nd determinate, or at least such as by reference fomething elfe may be reduced to a certainty, therwise the lease will be void: therefore a ase for so many years as such a one shall live, void as a lease for years, because it is for a me neither certain in itself, nor which by any eans can be reduced to a certainty; for who ill venture to ascertain the number of years nother shall live? but a lease for so many years fuch a one shall name, is good, because though is at present uncertain how long the estate will ontinue, yet it will be reduced to a certainty as on as the term is named (b). Noy Max. 6 lit, p. 86. Co. Lit. 45. Ibid. 46. 6 Co. 35.

⁽a) It should be observed, however, that until the comencement of the term and entry be made by the leffee, no ffession is vested in him by his lease, but only a right of posfion; he cannot therefore bring an action of trespais before try. Co. Lit. 46. 1 Mod. 262.

⁽b) The Term must be named during the lives of the lessor d lessee, or it will not be good. 1 Co. 156. a. for it is essent that there be both lessor and lessee living at the time the ase is made. 3 Bur. 429.

Date of a leafe.

If no time is mentioned in the lease at which it is to begin, it will commence on the day it bears date; and if the date happen to be omitted, it will commence on the day it is executed. Co. Lit. 46. b.

A lease cannot be dated on a day subsequent to that on which it was made, but it may be dated as far back as the parties choose.

Leffor muft compulfion.

It is further necessary in order to the validity be free from of a leafe, as indeed it is of any other deed, that the party making it be at the time perfectly free from restraint; for if he do it from compulsion, as for fear of imprisonment, or the like, it 2 Black. Com. 292. will be void.

Leafe good though figned only by leffor.

A leafe for years is good though figned only by the leffor, if accepted of by the leffee; but if it be figned by the leffee only, it will operate nothing. Ow. 100.

Continuance of a leafe,

A lease made for 3, 6, or 9 years, at the option of either party, is held to be a lease for q years, determinable on notice. 3 Term Rep. 377.

A lease for one year, and so from year to year, as long as both parties shall agree, is good for two years certain, and afterwards an estate at Salk. 414. will. Co. Lit. 45. b.

Agreement,

A writing will amount to no more than an agreement for a lease, though containing words of present contract, and an agreement that the leffee shall take immediate possession if reference be made to a lease to be granted in future (a). 1 Term Rep. 735. 2 Ibid. 739.

h

WI

Bit

re

00 0

br

X

ha

ep

not

eri

e, ni/

he

eff

nje

ow

hat mitt

was tena

was the o

I

F

⁽a) If, however, the parties expressly intended it for a lease, it will be construed to be one. 2 Black. Rep. 973.

III. Of Covenants, Provisoes, Clauses, and Agreements in Leases for Years.

A covenant in a deed is an agreement, con- Covenant, ent, or promise that something is already done, what. or not done, or that formething shall be done, or hall not be done hereafter. Plow. 308.

h

it

d,

nt

1-ty d, ly

1it

ly

ut

te

9-9

p.

r,

10

at

n

ds

10 ce

).

e,

A proviso is a condition inserted in a deed or Proviso, writing, upon the observance of which the vali- what. lity of the deed depends. It differs from a covenant in this, that a proviso is in the words of oth parties; a covenant in the words of the ovenantor only. Covenants are either express or implied. Express Covenants are such as are expressly mentioned in the deed; as a covenant, hat the leffee shall keep the demised premises in epair: implied, where the thing to be done is not expressly provided for in the deed, but inerred by law from the nature of the contract; s, if a lease for years be made by the words deuife or grant, without any covenant for quiet njoyment. In this case as well as many others, he law implies a covenant on the part of the effor, that he shall permit the lessee quietly to mjoy the thing demised.

Respecting covenants, &c. in leases, the fol-owing determinations occur.

It was doubted whether a condition in a lease As to rehat the leffor should re-enter if the leffee com- entry. mitted an act of bankruptcy, was valid, and it was held that it was. 2 Term Rep. 133.

Where it was covenanted in a leafe, that the Land tax. enant should pay all taxes except land-tax, it was held that this exception extended only to the old land-tax, and did not excuse him from paying paying additional land-tax, occasioned by an improvement of the estate. 3 Term Rep. 377.

Affigning.

A covenant not to assign or set over the lease, or the demised premises, does not extend to the granting of an under-lease of part of the term; nor is an under-lease in any case considered as an affignment. 2 Black. Rep. 766. Doug. 56, 58, 184.

t

Se.

th

07

to ke

to

ou ter

ve

Wi

fhi

thi

har

Agreement leafe.

Where there was an agreement between landfor vacating, lord and tenant, that the tenant should hold during the landlord's life, provided the fon of the landlord should be at liberty to take the premifes on his coming of age, it was held that the fon must determine within a short time, as a week, or fortnight after he comes of age, whether he will have them or not; and that after a year's delay the tenant shall not be ejected. 3 Term Rep. 436.

Further term.

Where there was a leafe for 61 years, and a covenant that the leffor would at any time after the expiration of the first 21 years, grant a further term of 61 years, to commence from the determination of the term of 61 years first granted; it was held that the leffee could not claim the additional term of 61 years at the expiration of the last 20 years of the term, if he had neglected to claim it before. I Term Rep. 229.

Renewal.

A covenant in a lease for lives, to renew on the death of every life, under the same rent and covenants, shall be taken to be a perpetual covenant of renewal. Coup. 819.

Ufual covemants.

Where a tenant for life had a power to grant leases for years of his estate, so that such leases contained only the usual covenants, and he made a lease thereof, with a proviso, that if the premises should be destroyed by tempest or fire, the the lessor should rebuild, and on failure the rent should cease: the lease was held to be void on the jury's finding that such a proviso was unusual. 1 Term Rep. 705.

A covenant to pay rent and to repair, "casu-Exception alties by fire excepted," does not extend to the against fire. payment of rent, but only to repairs; and the lessee must continue to pay rent during his term, though the premises be burnt down, and the lessor result. Ibid. 310.

A lease of tythes under a power to grant leases Lease under of all or any part of the premises, reserving the a power. usual rent, was held to be void, because the tythes had not been usually letten, and consequently no usual rent could be reserved. 3 Term

Rep. 366.

e

n

.

10

.

10

2

e-

2 d.

1

er

1-

e-

d;

he

of

ed

On

nd

e-

ant

fes

he

the

re,

A proviso for making void a lease if the lesse, Under lease, his executors, administrators of assigns should set, let, or assign without leave of the lessor, was held to extend to an under lease granted by the administrator of the lesse. 2 Ibid. 425.

But a covenant that the lessee should not assign or set over the demised premises, does not extend to an under-leafe. 2 Black. Rep. 766.

Where a lessor covenants with the lessee to Repairs. keep the premises demised in repair, and neglects to do it, the lessee may repair and retain the cost out of his rent. Co. Lit. 54.

Where a person having the reversion of a Merger. term for years accepts a lease, by which the reversion is merged, the covenants incident to it will merge likewise. 3 Term Rep. 393.

A covenant was entered into to employ a Conftrucfhip, as foon as condemnation should have passed; tion of cothis means a legal condemnation by a court venants. having jurisdiction. I Term Rep. 674. Breach of covenant.

When a covenant is merely negative and passive, some act must be done to constitute a breach; therefore, where A covenanted to permit B to fow clover amongst barley, to be fown by him (A), and A fowed in the last year without giving notice to B, it was held to be no breach. Doug. 125.

h

to

a th

VE

e

be aE cu

m

be

the

fau

to Re

pe

upo nis

bair

or c

he

rita

fixe

part

I

As to fuch covenants in a leafe as run with the land, and bind affignees, and fuch as do not, fet title Affignment, p. 27.

IV. Concerning the Interest a Lessee for Years has in the Premises demised to him, and other miscellaneous Incidents to an Estate for Years.

Leffee for years has a right to eftovers,

A tenant for years has the fame right to effovers, or botes, as we before observed, that a tenant for life was entitled to, viz. wood for repairs and firing, for making instruments of husbandry, and for hedging and fencing: these an incident to and inseparable from his estate, and may be taken without any affignment or confent of the leffor, unless by express agreement to the contrary. Co. Lit. 45.

But not to

A tenant for life, we have feen, may carn emblements, away, after the expiration of his term by the death or default of the leffor, the emblements, or growing profits of the land, and this, we remark ed, was for the encouragement of husbandry and because it would be unjust that one person should be injured by the default of another, or by a accident which he could not foresee or prevent but it is otherwise with regard to a tenant for certain term of years; for the reason does no hold good as to him; as, if a person hold from Midfummer

nd

2

7.

wn

h-

no

the fee

for

for

tote-

reuf-

are on-ent

rn

or

kind

uld

an

nt:

not om

ner

Midsummer for 10 years, and sow a crop of corn which is not cut at the expiration of his term, he cannot afterwards return to cut it; for, knowing the time when his interest in the premises determined, it was his own fault to sow corn which he knew he could not reap: it is therefore proper, when this is likely to happen, to insert a clause in the lease to impower the lesse to enter upon the land to cut and carry away the produce which may be growing upon the land at the end of the term (a). Lit. 568.

But where the determination of an estate for Unless in years depends upon an uncertainty, as when the particular essential to some the particular cases. being to determine at a time of the case of the cutors shall have the embler of the cutors would be entitled to them, unless in the same case the estate be determined by the tenant's own default, as by forseiture, &c. when they shall go to the landlord as before. Co. Lit. 56. I Term

A tenant for years or otherwise, has only a Tenant has special or partial interest in the trees growing only a special on the land demised to him, as for shade for sial interest in scattle; the fruit thereof; loppings for repairs, firing, &c. but if they are blown down, or otherwise severed from the soil, they become the property of the landlord as part of the inhesitance. 4 Co. 62. Noy Max. 6 edit. p. 88.

Rep. c. B. 5. 2 Black. Com. 144.

It is a general rule in law that whatever is Cannot refixed to the foil or premises, so as to become a move fixpart thereof, cannot be removed, but will at the tures.

(a) As in Appendix, No. II. Prec. 2.

expiration

expiration of the lease belong to the lessor: but it has been held that a tenant may remove what he has affixed for the convenience of his business; and also chimney-pieces, and wainscot put up by himself, so that he do it during the continuance of his term, but if he let them remain till his term is ended, he cannot remove them without committing trespass.

1. to. Blac. C. B. 258.

Leffor may Though there be no covenant in the lease that enterto view the leffor may enter upon the premises demised repairs to see the state of repairs, the law will permise

Co. Lit. 54.

But n

Exception in leafe.

enter to fell timber, work but a power reserved in the ose.

an exception in a leafe of

t

V

bi

ba

n

br

0 ig

va Ge

ri

1

A

rith

I.

II

II

to ule, ne may nevertheless pass and re-pass through them, if they are so situated as that he cannot otherwise have the complete enjoyment of the lands or premises demised to him. II Ca 52. a.

If the lessor in granting a lease of a house, except two rooms and free passage to the same, a action of covenant will lie against an assigner of the lesse for interrupting the passage (a). Salk. 196.

Estate not determined by loss of the deed.

The estate of a lessee is not determined by the loss of the lease, so that the existence of the term can be proved, for the estate is derived from the

⁽a) Where a person let his house to another ready furnished and the furniture was taken in execution for a debt of the tenant, it was held that lessor could not have an action of tripass against the sheriff, but he might have had an action of triver. 4 Term Rep. 489.

uance

lessor, and not from the lease, otherwise than as it shews the intention of the parties, which is not altered by the loss of the deed. 3 Term Rep. 151.

A lease was granted of premises described to Description be late in the occupation of A, part of which of premises was a yard, this did not pass a cellar under the curate. yard in the occupation of another person.

I Term Rep. 701.

ut at

i-

in em

hat

fed

mit

ork

the

: 0

not

pas

t he

nent

Ca

ex-

nee

(a)

y the term o the

ifhed

he te-

f tref-

of tro

effor,

If a lease be granted of a house "and the Appurteappurtenances," the outhouses, orchard, gar-nances. den, and yard will pass, but not not be land. Plow. 70.

A lease from year to year of the parties, will, after entry a year's notice to quit be goarties; and if the tenant diministrator will have the same premises as he had. 3 Term Rep. 13.

Where a lesse for 21 years, who covenanted Party wall to repair and to pay all taxes and impositions asigned his term for a small sum, it was held that he was not liable to pay the expence of a party-vall, either by the covenant, or under stat. 14. Geo. 3. c. 48. but that it must be borne by the original landlord. Ibid. 458.

V. By what means an Estate for years may How lease be parted with, or determined. may be determined.

An estate for years or for life may be parted with or destroyed

I. By Affignment, II. By Surrender,

III. By Forfeiture.

C

And

And first of an Affignment.

By affignment.

An affignment is a transfer or making over to another of the right or interest a person has in any estate, but it is more usually applied to an estate for life or years (a). 2 Black. Com. 326.

The parties to an affignment are the affignor and the assignee; the assignor is he that assigns, and the affignee he to whom the affignment is made.

a good affignment.

In order to constitute an effectual affignment, fary to make the whole term of the affignor must be made over, for if a part only of it be transferred, it is not properly an affignment but an under-leafe b), the difference of which is, that in an affignnent the affignee stands in the shoes of the asfignor, and is, generally speaking, answerable for all the covenants which he was bound to perform (c); whereas an under-lessee is tenant to his immediate leffor only, and has nothing to do with the terms of the original leafe. I Mod. 268.

No confidelary.

No confideration need be expressed in an afration neces- fignment, for the assignee's being subject to the payment of the rent referved in the lease is held

(a) See the usual form of an affignment, Appendix, No.

(b) If the term made over be but for a day less than the whole term, it will not amount to an affigement. Doug. 174.

On the contrary, if the whole term be made over, it will be construed to be an assignment, though the rent, and a power of re-entry be referved to the leffee, and though new covenants be introduced in the affignment. Ibid. 185.

(c) The legal distinction is, that an assignce is bound by such covenants only as run with the land. Vide p. 27.

n

1

la

CO ef

a

211

4

en

M ula

ot.

fig

bvo

nd

W

rt

e 1:

T hic

mil re

a) 1

enda:

rnee.

6) C

the ated (

to be a sufficient consideration. Noy Max. 6 edit. p. 92.

e

0

it

e.

f-

he

14

To.

the 74. 1 te

erof

s be fuch

to

If from any defect in an affignment, it can- If defective not be good as fuch; it shall, against the party shall be an affigning, be good as an under-leafe. I Doug. under leafe. 188.

Executors and administrators are affignees in Who are aflaw, and are therefore liable to perform all fuch fignees in covenants of their testators or intestates, being law. effees, as run with the land, though he coveanted for himself and assigns only, and not exeutors and administrators. 5 Co. 24. 6 Moor. 4.

As we have remarked that affignees are in Covenants of eneral liable to perform the covenants of the leffee binding effee, it will be proper to enquire more parti- affignee. ularly in what cases this rule holds, and in what ot.

The general rule is, as we observed, that an Those fignee will be liable for the breach of all fuch which run ovenants as, in the legal phrase, run with the with the land. nd (a), but not for such as are collateral to it. will be proper, therefore, to confider what rt of covenants do and what do not run with e land, so as to bind the affignee.

Those covenants are held to run with the land What covehich extend to things in being at the time of the mants run with the mife, and are part of the grant, as covenants land, and repair the premises demised, &c. (b) such what not.

a) In covenants which run with the land, evidence that the endant is in as beir will support a declaration charging him as mee. 4 Term Rep. 75.

b) Covenants that the granter is seized in fee; has a right envey; for quiet enjoyment; and further affurance also run the land, because they concern the title of the thing ated or demised.

covenants being, as it were, annexed to the land, will go along with it, and bind the affiguee though not named: but when a covenant relates to something not in being at the time of the demise, or something merely personal, or to what is collateral to the thing demised, as to pay a sum of money, or the like, it does not run with the land, and assignees are not bound even though expressly named (a); but the covenantor only, his executors and administrators. 5 Co. 16, Noy Max. c. 41.

Thus where leffee for years covenants duly to pay the rent, to keep the premises demised to him in tenantable repair during his term, not to commit waste, &c. and then assigns, the assignee, and all claiming under him shall be bound, because these things concern and are appurtenant to the thing demised, and therefore run with the land. Cro. Eliz. 457.

But where lessee of premises covenanted for himself and his assigns to pay 40s. a year to the church-wardens of the parish for certain purposes, his assignee was not bound to pay it, it being a mere personal contract of the covenantor's, and irrelevant to the thing demises (b). Cro. Fac. 438.

Ь

I.

V

is

an

(

adm

held prov

(a) Yet if the covenant regard something to be done up the land, and the assignee be named, though it were not in being at the time of the demise, and be in some measure collaters as to build a new house upon the land, &c. it shall bind the signee, because he will receive the benefic of it. 5 Co. 16.1

⁽b) Covenants in a lease for payment of rent, and doing a repairs, entered into by lessee with a mortgagor, his executors administrators and assigns, were held not to run with the lands as to enable the assignee of the mortgagee to maintain an assign for the breach of them, though the mortgagor joined in the lease. 3 Term Rep. 393. 673.

An affignee is not bound by a covenant entered Affignee not into by the affignor, and broken before the af- liable for cofignment; as where leffee covenanted for him- ken before felf and his affigns to re-build a house before affignment. fuch a time, but neglected to do it and affigned his term, it was adjudged that the affignee was not bound to rebuild. 3 Bur. 1271. I Black. Rep. 351.

es

eat

m

he

gh

ly,

16.

r to

to

t to

iee,

be-

ant

the

for

the

pur-

t, it

OVE-

nile

e uja

n bein latera

the al

16.4

ing d

Cutors land n action

in th

Nor is an affignee liable for the breach of any Nor after he has affigned covenant after he has affigned over his term. over. 1 Freem. 336. Noy Max. 6 edit. p. 91.

The affignce of an affignce, and of executors Affignees of and administrators, as also the executors of an affignees, affignee, are all comprehended under the word affigns, and therefore bound when they are bound (a). 5 Co. 17. b. 1 Salk. 309.

&c. liable.

Covenant lies not against an assignee for a liable for breach of the affignor. Lutw. 363. In an absolute indefeasible assignment, the assignor. affignee is liable even before he take possession. Affignee breach of liable before entry.

Affignee not

Doug. 461. But a mortgagee is not, though the mortgage But not a be forfeited, until he take actual possession. mortgagee. Ibid. 455.

In an affignment of a leafe the following Co- Propercovevenants ought to be inferted, affignment.

From the affignor, that the indenture of lease is good in law.

That the affignor has power to affign.

To fave the assignee from former rents, grants, and incumbrances.

For the delivery of deeds and evidences.

(a) But where leffee covenanted that he, his executors, or administrators would not assign, and became a bankrupt, it was held that the assignees under the commission would not be bound, provided they made a fair affignment. Ambler 480.

That

That the affignee shall quietly enjoy.

From the assignee, that he will pay the rent. That he will perform the covenants in the leafe, or fave the affignor therefrom.

The forms of these different covenants may be feen, Appendix, No. III.

II. Of a Surrender

By furrender.

A furrender is the yielding up an estate for life or years (a) to him who has the immediate remainder or reversion, wherein the estate for life or years may drown by mutual agreement of the parties (b). Co. Lit. 337. b.

Surrender may be by deed or in law.

A furrender may be effected either by an express agreement between the parties for that purpose, or by implication of law.

What neceffary to furrender by deed.

An express surrender must be in writing, for by the statute of frauds and perjuries it is promake a good vided, that no leafes, estates, or interests, either of freehold, or terms for years, shall be furrendered, unless by deed or note in writing, (c) or by operation of law; but no particular form of words is necessary to make a furrender, for as a lease is only a contract between the leffor and leffee, any words which are fufficient to shew the intention of the parties to

a

n

fil

ca re

⁽a) For an estate at will or sufferance cannot be surrendered Cro. Eliz. 156.

⁽b) See the form of a surrender, Appendix, No. IV. Prec. 1.

⁽c) When it is made by note in writing, no stamp is necesfary. 1 Will. 2d. part. 27.

diffolve that contract will work a furrender (a).

Cro. Jac. 169.

re

or

nt

at 10

0-

e,

be

g, ar

n-

en

fi-

to

red

٧.

ef-

ve

Two things however are material in a fur-Surrenderor render by deed, viz. I. That the person sur-possession. rendering be in possession of the thing surrendered. 2. That the person to whom the sur- And have render is made have a greater estate in the pre- the less estate. mifes than the furrenderor. Co. Lit. 337.

So that if a leafe be made to commence at Michaelmas next, it cannot be furrendered by deed, because the lessee is not in possession of the thing demised, and there is no reversion in which it may drown. Co. Lit. 338. Noy Max.

6 ed. p. 93.

Nor can he who has a leafe for 20 years furrender to him who has a leafe for 10 only, because the surrenderee must have the greater estate wherein the less may drown. Co. Lit. 218. Surrender-

And the reversion of the surrenderee must be or's reversian immediate reversion, so that if a lessee for on must be 30 years leafe to B for 10, B cannot surrender immediate.

to the first lessee. Plow. Com. 541.

By a furrender in law, it is not necessary What requithat the furrenderor be in actual possession, for site to a surif a lease be to commence at Michaelmas next, render in and the leffee take a new leafe before Michaelmas, this is a furrender in law of the former leafe, (b) because by accepting a new leafe he must be in

And it must be a valid lease, and such an one as the lessee can enjoy, or it will not be a surrender of the first for the last reason. Bur. 2213.

C 4

admits

⁽a) In Farmer on demise Earl v. Rogers, 1 Wilf. 2d. part 27, the court said that the words release and discharge were much stronger than those which would amount to a surrender.

⁽b) The new leafe must be a demise of something of the same nature as that which was leased by the old one, or it will not work a furrender, for there is otherwise no inconfiftency in their standing together. Cro. Eliz. 873. Moor. 636.

admits the lessor to have a power of making such, which he could not do if the first lease were to continue. 5 Co. 4.

So if a lesse for 20 years take a new lease for 10 years to commence at a suture day, it is an immediate surrender of the twenty years lease, and the lessor may enter presently. Cro. Eliz. 522.

Leffee for life may furrender to Lim for years.

Or if lessee for life accept of a lease for years, it will be a surrender of the life estate. Perl. 68.

A furrender of an estate for a man's own life may be made to him who has the reversion for life; as an estate for a man's own life is in judgment of law a greater estate than for the life of another. Co. Lit. 338.

Where there was a lease for 20 years, and the lessor granted the reversion to another for one year, it was held that a surrender to the reversioner was good, and was the same thing as surrendering to the lessor himself. Cro. Eliz. 302. pl. 1.

Cafe as to

Where leffee agreed that leffor should have the premises as mentioned in the lease, and should annually pay a consideration besides the rent, it was held that this operated as a surrender of the lease, and that the sum to be paid above the rent was to be considered as a sum in gross, and not as rent. 3 Term Rep. 441.

Ibid.

If a tenant make a furrender of his estate to his lessor, all rent due up to the time of the surrender is extinguished, unless it be previously granted away by the lessor to a third person, in which case it shall be paid. 8 Co. 145.

Formerly

de

u

26

to

of

Co Co

ei

w

bid

iny

wit

cor

bri

2.

en

ino

as t

Formerly the renewal of leases for life or New lease years was a furrender of all under-leafes, and good withtherefore could not be done without the consent out furrenof the under-tenants, to remedy which incon- der of venience, it was enacted by 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. under-leafe. 6. that if any lease for life or years, where here are undertenants by leafe, shall be furrenlered in order to a renewal, the new leafe hould be valid without a furrender of the under leafes, and that the leffees, by virtue of uch new lease, should be entitled to the rents of the under-tenants, and the same mode of recovery thereof as if the original lease had been kept on foot.

e S

S

7.

r

2.

n

n

n e d P le

g

Z.

18

be

10 -1

id

in

to

r-

ly n,

ly

III. Of Forfeiture.

Forfeiture is a punishment annexed by law By forfeito some illegal act or negligence in the owner ture. of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, whereby he loses all his interest therein. 2 Black. Com. 267.

An estate for years or otherwise may be for- How an estate may eited not only by the commission of those acts be forfeited which by the grant or lease are expressly forbidden on pain of forfeiture, but generally by my act done by the tenant, which is inconsistent with the nature of his estate, or the implied conditions on which it is holden; these are principally 1. By alienation contrary to law. 2. By waste; of these we shall treat in order.

By Alienation contrary to law. When a 1. By alietenant for life or years grants a greater estate to trary to law. another than by law he is entitled to grant, fo as to divest the estate of him who is entitled to the reversion (a), it is a forfeiture, as, if a tenant for his own life grant his estate during the life of another, (who may live longer than himself), or in fee, or tail; or if tenant for years grant for a longer term than he has in the premises (b), he forfeits his estate to him who has the remainder or reversion, whose estate is thereby put in jeopardy, and in danger of being defeated: it is but just, therefore, as Sir W. Blackstone observes, " that the estate should be forfeited, and taken from him who has shewn fo manifest an inclination to make an imprope use of it." There moreover, an implied condition annexed by law to every man's estate " that he shall not attempt to create a greater interest than he himself has;" Co. Lit. 251. Noy. Max. c. 10. and so also if tenant for life or years commit felony, the king, or other lord of the fee is immediately intitled to their estates by forfeiture, for the law annexes another condition also to every man's estate " that he shall not commit felony." Co. Lit. 215.

But if such tenants have, before the forfeiture, granted a legal estate of their interest to a third person, (as, if tenant for 30 years make a lease for 10) that estate shall be good; for the law will not injure an innocent grantee on account of the ma!-easance of his grantor, no m

in

he

re

tai to

the

pai

per cay

wir

(0

wast

dama

(b) Though a leftee grant a longer term than he actually has in the premifes, the leafe is not void, but good in equip, for fo many years as he lawfully could grant. 2 Term Rep. 171.

permit

⁽a) It is a grant by those species of affurances only which divert the reversion, as by feofiment, fine or recovery the work a forfeiture, and not by those whose nature it is to convey no greater estate than the grantor is possessed, of, as least and release, &c. 3 Med. 151.

permit the grantor by his own act to invalidate a contract which he himself has entered into.

Co. Lit. 233.

f a

ing

han

fut

the

who

e is

ing

W. ould

WI

per

Ontate

ater

51.

life ther

heir

no-

that fei-

t to

ake

for e on nor which tha con-

leaft

ually uig 171 mil

So, likewifes if a tenant do any act in a court of record which amounts to an express or virtual disclaimer of his estate, as, if he make claim of a larger interest than was granted to him, or if by accepting a fine, or attorning tenant to a stranger, he affirm the reversion to be in a stranger, and not in his lord, or the like, it will, for reasons similar to the above, amount to a forfeiture of his estate. Co. Lit. 252.

In what Cases acceptance of Rent after forfeiture will be a waiver, and in what not, fee poft. chap. viii. $ 5.

By Waste. An estate for years, life, &c. may be forfeited also by committing waste (a): By waste.

Waste is defined to be a spoil, or destruction in houses, gardens, trees, or other corporeal hereditaments, to the injury of him that has the remainder or reversion in fee-simple, or feetail; whatever therefore does a lasting damage to the freehold or inheritance, is waste, whether it be done by the voluntary act of the party, as by pulling down houses, &c. or be permitted only, as by fuffering buildings to decay for want of necessary repairs. Co. Lit. 53.

Tearing up floors, wainfcots, benches, doors, Removing windows, walls, and whatever else is so fixed things affixed to the

⁽a) By stat. Glouc. 6 Ed. 1. c. 3. a tenant committing waste shall forfeit not only the thing wasted but also treble damages.

to the freehold as to become a part of it is waste. (a) 4 Rep. 64. Noy Max. c: 14.

Diminishing flock, &c.

To diminish the number of fish in a pond, pigeons in a dove-house, rabbits in a warren, so as to reduce it below the stock necessary to be kept up for the purpose of breeding is waste. Co. Lit. 53.

Cutting down trees. To cut down or lop timber trees, or trees likely to become timber, or otherwise to hinder their growth, or to pull up filberd trees, or willows, is waste, (b) as lessening the value of the inheritance. Oak, ash, and elm are reckoned timber in all places; and in particular counties such other trees as are used for building are on that account deemed such (c). Noy Max. 14. 4 Rep. 62.

Converting one species of land into another.

To convert one species of land into another is waste, as to plough up and turn into tillage grounds which have usually been pasture, or on the contrary to lay down and turn into pasture land which was before arable; for this is altering the description of the estate, and making it vary from the title deeds, by which means the lord is in danger of losing his inheritance; and for the same reason it is waste to convert one species !

hele

de

the

ma

mu

be.

⁽a) It has been, held however, that a tenant may, during his term, but not afterwards, remove chimney pieces, a wainfcot put up by him felf 1 Atk. 477. Term Rep. C. B. 258.

⁽b) But to cut down dead trees though of the growth of timber, is no waste. Co. Lit. 53. Noy. Max. p. 4.

⁽c) But a tenant may, (as we have before observed) cultured underwood at proper seasons in the year, and take sufficient wood for repairs, implements of husbandry, and firing, without committing waste, unless he is restrained from doing to by the terms of his lease.

fpecies of building into another, even though it be improved in value. Hob. 296. I Leo. 309.

It is waste to open coal pits, mines, &c. To open coal pits, because it is depreciating the value of the inhe- &cc.

ritance (a).

19

id,

n,

to te.

ees

ler

Or

of

Clar

ld-

Voy

ner ige on ure

erz it the

and

one

ring , cr C.

h of

cut

cient

vith-

g fo

cies

And by II Geo. 2. c. 19. " If tenant at rack rent, or where the rent referved is at least three fourths of the yearly value, shall be one year's rent in arrears, and shall defert the demifed premifes, leaving the fame uncultivated, Leaving the or unoccupied, so that no sufficient distress can premises unbe had, two justices of the peace (after notice affixed to the premises 14 days before), may give the landlord possession and the lease shall be void. 5 Rep. 12. 2 Mod. 193.

Of an Estate at Will.

A fecond species of estates less than freehold An estate at is an estate at will. This is where lands or will defined. tenements are let by one man to another, to hold at the will (or during the pleasure) of the leffor (b). Lit. § 68.

- (a) But if they were open at the time the premises were demised to him, he may continue to work them for his own use, as they are then become a part of the annual produce of the land. Hob. 295. Noy Max. 6. edit. p. 87.
- (b) This is so precarious a tenure, and attended with so many inconveniences, that it is very feldom granted; and the court have, of late years, very properly, discountenanced it as much as possible, by construing it, whenever they could, to be a tenancy from year to year.

Incidents to

But though it is faid to be at the will of the leffor, yet it is in fact at the will of both parties, and may be determined at either of their options. (a) Co. Lit. 55.

This, however, must be understood with fome restrictions, for the law will not suffer any sudden determination of the will of one party to operate to the material injury of the other.

So that if a tenant at will fow his land, and the landlord determine the estate before the corn be ripe, the tenant shall nevertheless have free liberty to enter upon the land and cut and carry away his crop; the landlord would otherwise be benefited by his own iniquity, which is contrary to a maxim of law, that no man shall take advantage of his own wrong. Vide. p. 7.

And in all cases the lesse shall have reasonable time allowed him to remove his goods, &c. after the determination of his estate by the ast of the lessor. Lit. § 69. Noy Max. c. 11.

But in the case of emblements before mentioned, if the lessee by forfeiture or otherwise, determine his estate by his own ast, he shall not be entitled to them, because he suffers by his own default Ibid.

And so if the lessee determine the will between the quarter-days, he shall pay rent up to the end of the quarter, and on the other hand, if the lesser determine the will between the quarters, he shall have rent only up to the last quarter. Salk. 414. Ibid 222.

How an estate at will may be determined either may be de- by the express declaration of either party, or termined. by implication of law.

(a) But by the custom of London a tenant at will is entitled to a quarter's notice to quit, if his rent be under 40s. a year, and to half a year's notice if it be above 40s. Siderf. 20.

An

u

le

pr

W

eft

wi

to p trani

from death

him

and t

till ti notice

An express declaration by the lessor is where By express the lessor or some other person authorised by declaration. him, enters upon the land, and fays, "I here enter and take possession of my land, or the like," and he may afterwards cut a twig, or a piece of turf (a). Lit. Conv. 310.

An implied determination may be by entry Or by imupon the land with an intent to determine the plication of will in the absence of the lessee; or by exer- law. cifing an act of ownership over the land, as by digging the foil, cutting wood, and the like: by granting a lease thereof to commence immediately; by diffraining for rent; by the death of the leffor or leffee (b); or the marriage of a woman leffee. An act of high treason has also been held to be an implied determination of the will. Co. Lit. 55. b. 2 Liv. 88. Noy Max. c. 11. 1 Wilf. 176.

The estate may also be determined by the leffee's committing wafte, or by affigning the premises over; or in fine by his doing any act which is inconsistent with the nature of his

r

h

y

ld

e

/e

d

-

is

Ш

2.

C.

18

n-

le, ot

his

eto

ıd, the aft

ner

CI

tled ear, An

As to the mode of recovering rent of tenants at will, fee Chap. viii.

(a) Of all this there ought to be at least two witnesses, who, to preferve their testimony, should sign a memorandum of the

(b) But fince estates at will have been construed to be estates from year to year, it has been held that in case of the lessor's death the leffee cannot be ejected without 6 months notice given him by the representatives of the leffee. 2 Term Rep. 159. and that if the leffee die, his representatives may hold possession til the like notice given. 3 Wilf. 25. See more concerning notice to quit, chap. vii.

Of an Estate by Sufferance.

Effates by fufferance defined.

An estate by fufferance is where a person having possession of lands or tenements by lawful demise, continues in possession thereof after his estate is ended; as, if a lesse for years holds over after the expiration of his term (a). Co. Lit. 57. b.

This estate is now very unusual unless with the consent of the landlord, for by stat. 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. tenants at sufferance who hold against the landlord's consent are put upon the same sooting with respect to the payment of double rent, after notice given them to quit, as we before observed of tenants for years (b).

If a landlord accept rent of a tenant after the expiration of his lease, or does any other act by which he shews his consent that the tenant should continue possession, he converts the estate into tenancy from year to year. Co. Lit. 57. b.

CHAP.

he

u

he

il

be

101 cu

he

bi

y t ab

ow

le]

tan

rio pari

(a)

(b) ve tr

⁽a) In this case it has been held that the landlord may bring an ejectment, and recover possession without having previously given notice to quit. I Term Rep. 53. 162.

⁽b) The double rent given by this statute may be recovered by diffress as single rent; but double the improved value can be recovered by action of debt only. I Black. Rep. 535.

CHAP. V.

Of Copyhold Estates.

h

).

e

e

-

ne

ld.

to

ing Ly

red

be

AP.

Copyhold tenure, or a tenure by copy of Copyhold court roll, is an estate held at the will of estate, what. he lord according to the custom of the manor in This estate was formerly held which it lies. herely at the lord's will, and as precarious in its uration, if not more so, as that of tenant at will nentioned in a former chapter: but though it is ill, in truth, held at the will of the lord, and is expressed to be in the court rolls, yet that will om length of time, and the indulgence of parcular lords, is now so limited and restrained by he custom of the manor, that it is no longer bitrary or precarious, but fixed and established y the custom to be the same and no other than hat which time out of mind (a) has been invaably exercised (b); so that copyholders have ow as permanent a property in their lands as e lord himself, and, when copyholds of inhetance with a fine certain, an estate scarcely inrior in point of interest, and in many respects, particularly the security of their title by the cord of their admissions in the manor court)

⁽a) Copyholds must have existed time out of mind; they must therefore be created at this day. 1 Leo. 56.

⁽b) If the lord ouft him contrary to the custom, he may ve trespass. Co. Lit. 60. b.

(a), superior to that of an absolute freeholder; yet his estate is never in law considered as a freehold, because the freehold of the whole manor always resides in the lord. 1 Bur. 1543. 1 Black. Com. 147.

Copyholders may have various estates.

As the customs, of different manors (by which copyhold estates are entirely and in all respects regulated) differ as much as the will of their ancient holders, a copyholder may, if warranted by the custom, have all those various estates which we have enumerated in the preceding chapters, as an estate in fee-simple, futail, for life, &c. (b). and hold them united with his customary estate at will, liable to be determined, however, by committing such ack or by the happening of fuch events as the wil of the lord (promulgated by the custom) has declared to be a determination of the estates these are in some manors the cutting down time ber, in others the non-payment of the custo mary fines, in others the want of iffue male &c. &c.

The customs of different manors being a many and various, to enumerate them all were impossible; we must content ourselves, therefore, with mentioning those general custom only which extend to all Copyhold estates, it

whateve

bá

h

m iz

by

ha

oo ak

f

rea

is

eff

ft

noi

F

b r

(a) y th atur ne ha

ter

m.

An

the

here

ter,

tend

(6)

e cu

⁽a) An entry in the court rolls of a manor, stating the main of descent of lands in the manor, is admissible evidence of a customary descent, though there be no proof of any persal having taken agreeably to it. 5 Term Rep. 26.

⁽b) A copyhold limited to husband for life, wife for life heirs of the bodies of husband and wife, with remainder in to the furvivor, is, after the death of the husband, an established pession him who is heir of the body of both husband and wife Askins 101

er:

ee.

nor (by all ville

, if

ous

este. fee-

ita o be acts

wil has ate; tim.

ifto-

nala

g

ere

tom s, il

mod

of th erfoal

or life

in fe

estate

efta

i wif

teve

whatever manor fituated, and noticing the principal decifions which have been made upon them by the courts, first however premising, that Requisites two main requifites are held to be the supporters copyhold. of the copyhold tenure, and without which it cannot exist; these are 1. That the lands be parcel of and fituated within the manor of which they are held. 2. That they have been demiled or demilable by copy of court roll from ime immemorial. Co. Liz. 58. b.

By the general custom of all manors, a co- The principyholder is intitled to the estovers, or botes we pal customs have formerly spoken of, that is to say, house- of copyholds in general. ote, cart-bote, and hay-bote; these he may Estovers. f the lord. 13 Co. 68.

Every copyholder may make a lease for one ear certain, of his lands, without licence, and is lessee may maintain an ejectment for the poseffion. 9 Co. 75.

Copyholds of inheritance descend to the heirs f the tenant according to the rules of the com-non law (a). 4 Co. 22. Co. Cop. 114. Heriots (b), wardship, and fines are incident Incidents to o most copyholds; heriots belong as well to copyholds.

(a) But though in respect of descents copyholds are governed the rules of the common law, yet they do not partake of the ature of freeholds in other respects; for they are not affets in e hands of the heir, nor shall a woman be endowed, or a man tenant by the curtefy of a copyhold, unless by special cusm. 6 Med. 64. 4 Co. 23.

And by special custom a descent may be contrary to the rules the common law, but it will then be frietly confirmed; as, here there was a custom that lands should descend to the eldest fer, if there be neither son nor daughter; this was held not to tend to an eldest niece. I Term Rep. 466.

(b) A heriot is the best beast, or other personal chattel, (as e custom may be) which the tenant died possessed of.

copyholds

copyholds for life, as to those of inheritance, but wardship and fines to those of inheritance

he ine

mif

mu

bro

erv

of '

6

he

em

ge

by 1

nfa

he

with nitt

I

ind

atis

I

he

urf

old

If

end

ine

(a)

eclar

21.

(6)

y diff

only. Black. Com. 97.

Heriots.

Heriots are due to the lord, and become vested in him as his property, immediately on the death of the tenant. In some places there is a customary composition in money in lieu of a heriot, by which the lord and tenant are both bound, and also their representatives, if it be an ancient custom; but a new composition of this sort will not bind the representatives of either party, because no new custom can now be created, as it is essential to a good custom that it has existed immemorially. Co. Cop. § 31. 2 Black. Com. 97. 422.

Wardships.

Where wardship prevails, the lord is the legal guardian, and accountable to his ward for the profits; he feldom, however, takes the guardianship into his own hands, but usually affigus fome relation of the infant to act in his stead Ibid.

Fines.

As to fines, they are fometimes arbitrary and at the will of the lord; fometimes fixed by the custom: fome are due on the death of each tenant, and others on the alienation of the land (a): but though due, on death or alienation, they are not payable till the admission of the next tenant. 2 Term Rep. 484.

Recent determinations respecting fines on admission.

In respect to the fine of a copyholder to be paid on admission, the following determinations have recently occurred.

⁽a) But where the fine on the descent or alienation of a copyhold is arbitrary, it is tied down to be reasonable in its extent and therefore two years improved value of the estate is the word allowed to be taken. 2 Ch. Rep. 134. Doug. 697. The lord is not bound to make any deduction on account of landtax. Ibid. 724.

If a copyhold be granted to one for years, and he die during the term, his executor shall pay a fine on admittance. I Bur. 206. 218.

18

ce

ed

th

0-

Ot,

id,

ent

vill

-90

it

ed

m.

gal

the

ar-

gns

ad.

and

the

tends

on

ext

be

CO-

eny

The and-

One gross fine cannot be affested on the admission to several tenements, but a separate fine nust be set upon each (a). Doug. 721.

Fines shall be according to the present improved value, and not according to the rent reeved under a substitting lease granted by licence of the lord. Stra. 1042.

"And by 9 Geo. 1. c. 29. it is provided that the fine imposed on admittance of infants and teme coverts may be demanded by the bailiff, or igent of the lord, by a note in writing, figned by the lord or his steward, to be left with such infant, or seme covert, or with the guardian of the infant, or husband of the seme covert, or with the occupier of the land to which such admittance was made.

If such fine be not paid, the lord may enter nd receive the profits of the copyhold till he be atisfied. Ibid.

If the guardian of the infant, or husband of the feme covert pay the fine, they may reimurse themselves out of the rents of the copyold (b). Ibid.

If the lord of a manor refuse to admit a furenderee on account of a dispute concerning the me to be paid, the court will grant a mandamus

⁽a) If, in an action for the fine, a gross fine be stated in the eclaration, it will be error, and not cured by verdict. Doug. 21. 731.

⁽b) See what services, &c. due to the lord may be recovered y distress. Infra. chap. viii. Tit. Distress.

to compel him, without examining the right to the fine (a). 2 Term Rep. 484.

The mode of conveying copyholds.

We shall now say a few words concerning the mode of conveying copyholds from one man to another, and then conclude our observations upon copyhold tenure with noticing the principal modern decisions which are to be met with in our books.

1. Concerning surrenders and admissions.
2. Concerning such incidents to copyhold estates as have not yet been noticed.
3. Concerning the means by which the interest of a copyholder may be destroyed.

By furrender.

The most general mode of conveying copyholds is by furrender. A furrender is the yielding up of his estate by the tenant into the hands of the lord for fuch purposes as in the furrender This is done by the tenant's are expressed (b). refigning (either in the manor court, or out of it, according to the custom, by the delivery of rod or other fymbol) all his interest and title to the estate into the hands of the lord, by the hands and acceptance of his steward, or sometimes by the acceptance of two customary tenants of the manor, in truft to be granted out again by the lord to fuch persons, and to such uses, as are mentioned in the surrender (c). Immediately upon fuch furrender made, the lord by his fleward grants the estate to the surrenderee, and admits him to hold by the ancient rents

ei

or X

ai

lla

6

P

V

d

n

w

m

m

VI

fio

By

ver

the

ld,

rt b

if |

ar i

, 0

0

be a

a) B

old,

your nd to

r

3

⁽a) See other in cidents to copyhold effater, p. 48.

⁽b) See the usual form of a surrender, and an admission thereon. Appendix, No. IV.

⁽c) If the uses be indersed on the back of the surrender, and signed by the seeward, it is sufficient, though they be not mentioned in the rolls. 3 Atk. 73.

ents and customary services, according to the orm and effect of the surrender, which must be xactly pursued. On this grant and admission t is that the fine we have before spoken of is aid.

0

S

h

d

)-

d.

ft

7-

d.

ds

er

t's

of

fa

to

the ie-

te-

out

ich

c). ord

en-

ent

flion

der,

not

ents

"This method of conveyance," Sir William lackstone observes, (2 Vol. Com. 367.) "is so essential to a copyhold estate, that it cannot properly be transferred by any other assurance. No feosiment or grant has any operation thereupon. If I would exchange a copyhold estate with another, I can do it by any ordinary deed of exchange at the common law, but we must surrender to each other's use, and the lord will admit us accordingly. If I would devise a copyhold, I must surrender it to the use of my last will and testament; and in my will I must declare my intentions, and name a devise, who will then be entitled to admission (a)."

By Stat. 9 Geo. 1. c. 29 § 1. Infants and feme verts being entitled by descent or by surrender the use of a will, to be admitted to any copyld, may, in their proper persons, or a seme cont by attorney, and an infant by his guardian, if he have no guardian, by his attorney, apar in one of the three next courts for the man, of which the copyhold premises are parcel, I offer themselves to the lord or his steward be admitted tenants.

a) But equity will supply the want of a surrender of a coold, if it be devised for the payment of debts, or to a wife younger children unprovided for. I Brown Rep. 273. id. 325. 3 P. Wil. 96. 322 283. But this rule does not and to grand-children. 2 P. Wil. 61. (fed cont. 2 Ves.). nor to natural children, brothers, or cousins? 2 Ves. 3 Atk. 189.

miffions.

In respect to the surrenders and admissions of Determinations relative copyholders, the following determinations printo furrenders and ad- cipally deserve our notice.

A man may furrender a copyhold estate to the use of his wife, notwithstanding the rule of law, that man and wife being but one person, cannot contract; for the estate is first given to the lord, from whom the wife takes it as an instrument to convey the estate to her. 4 Co. 29. Sty. 145.

A feme covert cannot furrender her copyhold without the confent of her husband, nor will any custom that she shall, be good. 2 Wilf. 1.

But a feme covert separated from her husband may, under a covenant that she shall enjoy whatever property shall descend to her, surrender without her husband a copyhold descended to her after separation, without any special custom Black. Rep. 344.

The furrender of a copyhold to the use of will (a), does not vest the estate in the appointed dying in the lifetime of the testator. 2 Vez. 77.

Nor will it apply to a will made previous to the furrender. Amb. 299.

A copyhold furrendered to the use of a man's will, was held to pass by the description of a his real estate, where it appeared to be the tel 2 Vez. 164. tator's intention that it should.

A furrender made to a woman when fole, fuspended, if not revoked, by her marriage Amb. 628.

The same construction must take place in sur renders as in other law conveyances; and it

t

1

t

d

ta

be ta

R

(b

the

lov

and

atte

2 1

cuff

bore

nolo

A nti

copy

and: o fu Corul

⁽a) No furrender is necessary in order to pass an equity of the demption by devife. 2 Atk. 37.

not fufficient (as in wills) that the intention of the parties was otherwise.

of

n.

he

W,

ot

rd,

to 45.

old

anv

and,

hat-

nder

d to tom

of a

intee

77.

us to mani

of all

e tel-

14.

ole, I

riage

n fur-

d its ty of re

no

Therefore where a copyhold was furrendered to the use of husband and wife for their lives, remainder to their heirs and affigns, remainder to the right heirs of A. the husband and wife were to have an estate in fee, and not an estate-tail. 1 P. Wilf. 71 & vid. 2 Atk. 101. 3d. Ibid. 11.

The furrenderor is confidered as a truftee for the furrenderee till admittance; and the furrenderee may maintain an ejectment before admittance. 1 Term Rep. 600.

The court will not grant a mandamus to compel the lord to admit a copyholder by descent, because he has a complete title before admittance against all the world but the lord. 2 Term Rep. 198.

The principal incidents to a copyhold estate Recent de-(besides those already noticed), as collected from terminations the latest decisions on the subject, are the fol- in respect to

lowing:

Copyholds are not within the statute of frauds and perjuries, and therefore will pass by a will attested by only two witnesses, or even one only. 2 P. Wil. 258. 2 Brown 56.

A recovery in Common Pleas may be good of customary freeholds, which pass by surrender in a porough court, though it is not good of copy-holds. I Atk. 474.

A woman is by the custom of many manors intitled to her free-bench out of her husband's opyholds; but this does not extend to all the ands he was feized of during the coverture, but o fuch only as he died feized of. 2 Atk. 525. orup. 481.

estates.

D

A customary

How copyholds may be forfeited.

A customary of a manor delivered down wi the court rolls from fleward to fleward time in memorial, is evidence to prove the course descent, though not figned by any tenant. Term Rep. 466.

It has been held that a copyholder, to hold him and his heirs for 3 lives, without power compelling the lord to renew on the falling in the lives, cannot cut down timber growing

C

c.

7

7

th

ca

nar

nge

L

i

r diff

icy, i A ten

in h

fon pa

te: th te, an

his estate. 2 Ibid. 766.

Copyholds ought to be always demised demiseable by copy of court roll; and they ca not be created by operation of law. Co. I 2 Term Rep. 415. 705.

Copyholds may, by special custom, be tailed; and wherever the custom allows a ten to bar the estate-tail, it may be done by h render. 2 Vez. 596. Amb. 279.

A copyhold estate may be forfeited by co mitting treason, or felony; by alienation deed; by committing waste; by denying customary services, or refusing to pay the cul Lit. § 74. Ow. 17. Roll. 9 mary fine. Dy. 211.

By the custom of most manors it is a for ture not to come to be admitted after three clamations made. But it will be no forfeit without a special custom to warrant it

8 Co. 99. 3 Term Rep. 170.

By Stat. 9 Geo. 1. c. 29. it is provided no infant or feme covert shall forfeit any co

(a) The lord may however feize the estate till the heir and pay his fine; but he must declare that it is on that ad he retains it, or it will be construed to be an absolute se 3 Term Rep. 170.

hold by neglecting or refusing to be admitted, or to pay the customary fine.

The landlord for the time being, and no other ord, shall take advantage of a forfeiture, except n those cases only where the act of forfeiture estroys the estate. 3 Term Rep. 173.

If after committing of a forfeiture (viz. such one as may be waived) the lord do any act which may seem to amount to a waiver, as, if e admit a presentation that the tenant died sized, and proclaim for his heir to come in, c. it shall be a dispensation of the forfeiture. Term Rep. 171. 471.

Though a copyhold tenant for life surrender the use of another in fee, it is no forfeiture, cause the court rolls will always shew who is nant; therefore the reversioner's estate is in no nger.

co

for eep

feit

led

y co

heir

at act

te fei

CHAP. VI.

Estates in Severalty, Joint-Tenancy, Coparcenary, and Common.

LL the estates of which we have treated in the preceding chapters may be held in r different ways; in severalty, in joint-tecy, in coparcenary, and in common.

A tenant in feveralty is he that holds lands, Tenanting in his fole right, without having any other feveralty. fon partaking with him in the interest of his te: this is the most usual way of holding an te, and that to which all our preceding rules

D 2

and

and observations have reference, and were tended to apply.

Toint-tenancy.

An estate in joint-tenancy is where lands tenements are granted to two or more perform hold in fee-simple, fee-tail, for life, for ye or at will. The grand incident to this el is, that on the death of one of the tenants, whole interest devolves on the survivor.

Tenant in

An estate in coparcenary is when lands of Coparcenary, heritance descend from the ancestor to two more persons.

Tenant in common.

A tenant in common is when two or more fons hold the same estate by different titles; if a joint-tenant grant his part of the estate another, the grantee and the other joint-to will hold as tenants in common.

We have thought it necessary, for the fat regularity, just to enumerate these several est but to enter at large into their different pro ties and peculiarities would be entirely for to our present purpose; and, as we come altogether useless to our readers; we shall, fore, proceed to fuch remaining parts of fubject as will be found to be of greater portance and more general utility.

> of g as held

> > y be pre

ac d

0

le

po tai ich

an

hat

nce ice

And

ary ed t

end ne o

6) But ice of of his

expirat

VII. CHAP.

Of Notice to quit. (a)

VO

ep

S;

ate

ter

falt

eft

org

for nc , th

of

iter

TE formerly observed, in speaking of estates at will, that the law would not fer fuch a fudden determination of the teacy, by either landlord or tenant, as might d to the manifest and unforeseen prejudice of other party, and that partly upon this prinle the courts had of late years leaned as much possible towards construing demises for an untain period to be held from year to year, in ich case, neither party could determine the ancy without reasonable notice to the other. hat length of time, under different circumnces, has been confidered to be reasonable ice, we now purpose to enquire.

And we may first observe, that notice is ne- Where noary only where the duration of the estate is tice necesed to no certain or predetermined time, but fary, and where not. ends upon the pleasure of the parties, or ne other uncertain event; as tenant for the of another; tenant from year to year; as g as the parties shall agree, &c. for where it held on lease for a certain term, the tenant y be ejected at the end of his lease without previous notice to quit (b), as he cannot

s) See the proper form of notices to quit, Appendix, V.

b) But in order to charge a tenant with double rent in purce of 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. in case he should hold over after the of his lease, reasonable notice must be given him to quit at expiration of his term. 1 Term Rep. 53.

but be apprized of the expiration of his term, when the tenancy is determined as of course, unless a fresh agreement be entered into. I Term

on ej

A

e&

m

ce ile

he

tir

Te

Lipti

te

e te

e e

e.p ngtl r lei

T'h

der

of igina

Af

er

(a) B

t of 4

Rep. 162.

And if the tenant have done any act which amounts to a renunciation of his tenancy, as attorning to a stranger, or controverting his landlord's title, he may be ejected without any previous notice (as may his executor, in case of his decease), because he has himself determined his estate. 3 Wils. 25. Cowp. 622, 2 Bro. 161.

But in all cases where the estate is determinable at the will of either party, or at any other undetermined or uncertain period, the tenant cannot be ejected till half a year's notice has been given him to leave the premises: and such notice in the case of a tenant from year to year, must generally expire at the same time of the year as that on which the tenancy commenced; as, if a demise be from Midsummer to Midsummer, the notice to quit must be given at Christmas, so as to expire at Midsummer (a). I Term Rep. 163. Ibid. 159. 3 Wils. 21.

But where a tenancy commenced previous to a mortgage or grant of the premises by the land-lord, it was held to be immaterial when notice given by the grantee or mortgagee expired (b),

(a) Notice to quit at any particular feast, will be prime facie evidence of holding from that time until the contrary is thewn. 2 Black. Rep. 1224. I Term Rep. 151.

shewn. 2 Black. Rep. 1224. I Term Rep. 151.

If notice to quit at Micjummer be given to tenant holding from Michaelmas, he may infift on the insufficiency of the notice at the trial, though he made no objection to it what served. 4 Term Rep. 361.

⁽b) No notice is necessary from a mortgagee who means only to get into receipt of the rents and profits without turning the tenant out of possession. Doug. 21.

not being necessary in this case that the noce be made to expire at the time the tenancy ommenced, as the mortgagee or grantee are of supposed to know when that was. I Term.

lep. 380.

n,

le,

m ch

1

d-

ny

le

1-1

2,

11-

er

nt

125

ch

27,

he d;

er,

fo

ep.

to

Id-

ice

6),

175.5

te

ing nohes

the

A question arose as to what notice it was neessay for a lessor at will to give to a lesse will of land, before he could bring an ectment, and it was unanimously held at meeting of eleven judges, that half a year's otice must be given, and that the same note was necessary as to houses let at will, heles, some other custom prevail in the district here the house is situated (a), and such note must expire at the end of the year, comting from the time the tenancy commenced. Term. Rep. 54. & vid. id. 162.

Lodgings, taken for a short period, are an ex-Lodgings. ption to the rule we have laid down, that note must expire on the quarter-day whereon e tenancy began. These depend either upon e express agreement between the parties, or e particular circumstances of the case, as the 19th of time for which they are taken, &c. if t less than a year certain, any reasonable note is held to be sufficient. I Term Rep. 163.

The same notice is required from an infant Infant.

der 21, who becomes entitled to the reversiof rents let from year to year as from the iginal lessor. 2 Term Rep. 159.

A fecond notice to quit or pay double rent, second no-

been

D 4

⁽a) By the custom of London, a tenant under the yearly it of 40s is entitled to a quarter's notice only to quit, but ant above that rent to half a year. I Skin. 649.

been held to be no waiver of the first notice, or of the double rent accrued by it. Doug. 175.

Void notice. Notice which is not good for one year, will not be good for the next, as it will be prefumed to be withdrawn. 1 Bro. 161.

How notice

Generally speaking, where notice is required to be ferved. by law to be given to any party, leaving it at his dwelling house is sufficient. 4 Term

Rep. 465.

Where tenant of an estate holden by the year has a dwelling house at another place, the delivery of notice to his fervant at his dwelling house is strong prefumptive evidence that his master received it, and will be left to the jury to fay whether he did or not. Ibid 464.

Double rent.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. If any tenant shall give notice to quit possession of premises demised to him, and shall not quit them accordingly at the time in fuch notice mentioned, he, his executors, or administrators shall pay double the referved rent for fo long time as he shall continue possession after such notice given.

Double value.

And by 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. If any tenant for life or years, or other person claiming under him, shall hold over after the determination of his term, notice in writing given for delivering up possession, he shall pay double the yearly value of the premises he shall so refuse to deliver up.

Rent defined.

A parol notice to quit by a tenant, on a parol demise, is good notice, and within the meaning of this statute.

In what cases acceptance of rent, after the expiration of notice to quit, is a waiver of such notice, and in subat not, vide infr. p. 65, 66.

CHAP.

C

C

th fp

re

fe

bu

O

ar

ne

fh

as

iff

CHAP. VIII.

Of Rents.

RENT is defined to be a certain profit Rent defin-I issuing yearly out of lands or tenements corporeal, and is in the nature of a return or compensation for the use and occupation of them. There are at common law various species of rent; as rent-service, rent charge, rent-feck, &c.; but that which is usually referved from a tenant to his landlord, as a retribution for the profits of land demised, is the only one which we have any thing to do with; and the law relating to this species of rent composes so considerable a part of the information necessary for every landlord and tenant, that we shall spare no pains to be as minute and explicit as the importance of the subject requires; with this view we will confider,

I. How and to whom rent ought to be reserved.

II. To whom it is payable in certain cases.

III. Of the demand of rent.

IV. Of the tender and refusal of rent.

V. Of the acceptance of rent.

VI. Of the mode of recovering rent in arrear.

I. Concerning the Reservation of rent.

Rent being, as we before observed, a profit How rent is is issuing out of lands or tenements, by way of be reserved.

D 5

return or recompence for the use and occupation of them; it follows that it must be reserved and made payable out of the lands or tenements demised, and to the person demissing them. Perk. § 626.

It must not be a part of the thing itself; nor issuing out of something else; nor payable to a stranger. Co. Lit. 47. 142.

It must be reserved yearly; because, in contemplation of law, it is to proceed from the annual produce; but it need not be reserved every successive year; if it be every other year, or every third year, &c. it is good. Ibid.

Rent need not be referved in money, for corn or other things may be rendered by way of rent; or it may confift in fervices, as to plough fo much land for the leffor, &c. 2 Black.

Com. 41.

It must be a certain profit, or what may at least be reduced to a certainty by either party; for if it were an uncertain demand, it would be impossible to award adequate damages in case of failure. Co. Lit. 96.

Examples.

It will be proper to illustrate the foregoing rules by fome examples.

If a leffee simply covenant to pay such a sum yearly, it is not a rent, but a sum in gross. 2 Bull. 281.

If a lease for years be made, rendering rent to the beirs of the lessor, the reservation is bad, because not to the leffor first.

If the refervation be of grass, herbage, or vesture of the land, it is bad, because these are part of the thing demised. Co. Lit. 47.

af

de

tai

pa

Sa

ye

th

dil

2 |

II

an

thi

has lan

the ren

be

his

onl

to his

com

Corv

Coke

to di

If a man demise at will, rendering tent after the rate of 18l. per annum, as long as the demise continues, it will be void, for uncertainty; as it does not appear what rent he shall pay in certain, or at what time. 4 Mod. 79. I Sal. 262.

A rent cannot, at law, iffue out of a term of years, but must come out of the reversion: therefore, if a leffee affign his term, he cannot distrain for the rent, without expressly referving a power for that purpose (a). 2 Wilf. 375.

II. To whom Rent is payable in certain Cases.

We have observed that rent must be reserved, As to freeand is payable to the lessor and his heirs; but hold & this is to be understood only where the lessor leasehold has the inheritance, for in case of the death of the lessor a distinction is to be taken where the lands demised are freehold, and where leasehold.

In case of the death of a lessor, who had the fee fimple of the premises demised, all rent becoming due subsequent to his death, will be payable, (as incident to the reversion), to his heirs at law; but if he had a term of years only in the premises, the rent would be payable to his executors or administrators, as part of his personal estate. Went. 53.

(a) Concerning refervations it has been held that a subsequent agreement may by relation operate fo as to make the rent commence from the beginning of a tenant's occupation. Cowp. 781.

The clearest and safest way, as laid down by my Lord Coke, is to referve the rent generally during the term, without making a refervation to any person, and leave it to the law to distribute it. & Co. 70.

And

t

fo

he

fe

L

CO

aft

th:

arr

and

qui

giv

by

bef

And in the case of leasehold interests, the rent reserved so certainly and indisputably belongs to the executors or administrators, and not to the heir, that though in the lease it be expressly reserved to the heirs of the lessor, yet shall the executors or administrators have it. Co. Lit. 57.

And where a person has lands in right of his wise, and lets them to another for a shorter term than he has in them, and die, the rent reserved during the term, will go to his executors or administrators.

Arrearages.

But though rent of fee fimple lands, will, as incident to the reversion, go to the heir, yet the arrearages which became due in the lessor's lifetime will belong to the executor; for by 32 Hen. 8. c. 57. "The executors or administrators of tenants in fee-simple, fee-tail, or for term of life, unto whom any rent shall be due, and not paid at the time of their death, shall have action of debt for such arrearages against the tenants, who ought to have paid in the lifetime of their testator, or against the executor or administrators of the said tenants."

If rent, by the terms of the lease, is payable on the four usual feast-days for payment of rent, or within twenty days thereaster, and the lessor die aster the feast-day, but before the expiration of the twenty days, the rent is payable to the heir, and not to the executors of the lessor; because the legal and compulsory time of payment is not till the end of 20 days. Cro.

Fac. 227.

As to tenant for life.

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. § 15. it is enacted, "That where any tenant for life shall die on or before the day on which any rent was referred referved upon any demise which determined on the death of fuch tenant for life, the executors or administrators of such tenant for life, may, in an action on the case, recover of the undertenants, if fuch tenant for life die on the day on which the fame was made payable, the whole, or if before such day, then a proportion of fuch rent, according to the time fuch tenant for life lived of the last year, or quarter, or other time, in which the faid rent was growing due, making all just allowances.

If a landlord (of freehold premises), die be- In case of tween fun-fet and midnight, on the day upon leffor's death which the rent is referved, the rent will belong funfet and to the executors or administrators of the lessor; midnight. but if before fun-fet, then it will belong to his heirs; for it is payable at any time before funfet, though not strictly due till midnight. Co.

Lit. 302. Vide. 1 P. Wil. 178.

S

r

t

2

t

2

-

n

ft

rs

le

of he

X-

le

ne

of 0.

d,

lie

25 ed

If a tenant holding under two tenants in Tenant in common, pay the whole rent to one of them, common. after notice from the other not to pay it, the other tenant in common may diffrain for his share. 5 Term Rep. 246.

III. Of the Demand of Rent.

In some cases an express demand of rent in Demand of arrear must be made before it can be recovered, rent. and in others no demand is necessary. How far this distinction extends it is very material to enquire.

The general rule is this, where the remedy Where negiven by the lease for non-payment of rent, is ceffary. by way of re-entry, a demand must be made before the landlord can enter, otherwise his entry will be wrongful; the reason of which is that the law will not fuffer the tenant to be divefted of his eftate without a wilful default in him, which cannot appear till demand and refusal. Co. Lit. 153. 201.

On a like principle a demand is necessary, where a nomine pænæ or penalty is referved in case of non-payment. Hob. 207. 331.

If however a demand is dispensed with by the express terms of the lease, it is not necessary to make one previous to the entry, for in this case the lessee has undertaken to pay the rent whether demanded or not. Dyer, 68.

But where the remedy is by distress (which is the legal and proper remedy of a landlord for recovery of rent in arrear, where no other is referved in the lease), no previous demand is necessary in order to distrain, not even though the leafe expresses that the lessee may distrain for rent behind, being lawfully demanded; because, in fact, the distress itself is a demand; and the tenant is not divested of his estate by a distress, as he is by re-entry; for on tender of the rent, the diffress must be immediately withdrawn. Ibid. Moor. 883.

Exception.

There are however fome exceptions to the above rule, which are principally these: when the rent is not payable on the land (which it is if no other place be mentioned), but at some other place appointed in the leafe; and the tenor of the leafe is, that the landlord shall distrain for rent behind, being first lawfully demanded at the place mentioned in the leafe; though the remedy be by diffress, yet he cannot distrain till demand. Hob. 207.

And

re

lea

lai the

lar

any

S I or

mu

and

aw nife

he

ng

he

B iftr

lace b er

d ri

ot

her

N

her are im i

huft

is th

emai

ill A

And also where the lessor omits to come and receive the rent on the day appointed in the lease for payment, and the tenant was on the land ready to pay it, and made a tender of it in the presence of witnesses; in this case the landlord cannot afterwards distrain, till he has first demanded it. Ibid.

Rent may be demanded, and is payable, at any time before funset on the day upon which it s made payable, fo that there be light enough for the leffor to count it by. Co. Lit. 302.

A demand of rent, previously to a re-entry, How a demust be made on the most notable place on the mand is to and, where the tenant, in comtemplation of be made previously to aw, is supposed to be; therefore, if the pre-re-entry. nifes confift of a house, &c. it must be made at he front door of the house; the person demandng need not enter the house, if he demand it at he door, it is sufficient. I And. 27.

But where a demand is necessary in order to istrain, it need not be made at the most notable lace on the land; for as the demand is merely entitle the leffor to what he has an undoubtd right to, a remedy for his rent, the law is ot so strict, and it is sufficient if made any there upon the land. Co. Lit. 153.

Note, In making a demand for rent, wheer previously to a distress or to a re-entry, are must be taken to demand the precise m due, and the time when it became due auft be mentioned, for if but a penny more or is than the fum due be demanded, or if it be emanded up to a wrong time, the demand ill stand for nothing.

t

d

IV. Of Tender and Refusal of Rent.

Tender of rent.

Tender of rent is the producing and offering to pay it, at the time and place, when and where it is payable, and if it be refused, the refusal may be pleaded in bar of any action for nonpayment.

Where to be made.

If no particular place is mentioned in the lease where the rent is to be paid, it must be tendered on the land, or in the house or room from which it issues, (unless it be due to the king, when it must be paid either into his exchequer or to his receiver in the country). Callit. 201.

A tender of rent at the proper time and place will fave a distress, or entry, or other condition in the lease, though the landlord refuse to take it, the tenant having done all that he was bound to do; the landlord, however, may still maintain an action for debt, or of covenant for his rent, but shall recover no damages for non-payment 3 Salk. 344. I Vent. 21.

What a good tender.

Where tender is made to prevent a forfeitur, the whole rent due must be tendered (except land-tax), unless deductions are by the lease allowed to be made. 30 Geo. 2. c. 3. Co. Lik 202.

Tender of rent after distress is impounded, infussicient. 5 Term Rep. 432.

If the rent be tendered in a lump it is a good tender, for it is the receiver's business to count it out and see that it is right. 5 Term Rep. 115

Tender in bank notes is a good tender unless objection is made to them at the time. Ibid.

y. 0

an Ih

(W

for

of

he

cep

eal

418 affig

afte

agai

trac

on t

aw

Cove

incu

doub

and had waive

jury wheth not.

A

1

V. Of Acceptance of Rent.

If a landlord accepts the last quarter's rent Acceptance when there are arrears on a former quarter, he of rent. precludes himself from demanding the arrears, and it is said that no proof will be admitted to shew that they are unpaid. 3 Co. 65.

Acceptance of rent after the lease is forseited, After for-(with notice of the forseiture) will do away the feiture of forseiture and re-establish the lease. Cowp. 803.

2 Term Rep. 425.

n

le

.

ce

on ke

nd

in nt,

nt.

ept al-

Lit

1, 18

00

DUIT

115

nles

We have seen that if an infant under the age of 21 years make a lease, he may avoid it when he attains that age, but if at his full age he accept of rent, (unless due before) he confirms the lease, and cannot afterwards avoid it. Plow. 418.

If a leffor accept of rent from his leffee's affignee, knowing of the affignment, he cannot afterwards diffrain or have an action of debt against the leffee for rent, for the privity of contract is destroyed; but he may bring an action on the leffee's covenant, for no implication of law can do away an express and unconditional covenant. 3 Co. 24.

If lessee accept single rent after double rent is After notice incurred, under 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. he waives the to quit.

double rent. Cozup. 227.

Acceptance of rent for the occupation of the land fubsequent to the time when notice to quit had been given and expired, is not of itself a waiver of the notice, but it will be left to the jury to consider under all the circumstances whether the notice was intended to be waived or not. Cowp. 243.

Acceptance

Acceptance of rent by a woman or man after the expiration of an estate for life, and of a notice given to the tenant to quit on a certain day, was held not to be a waiver of the notice, but only evidence of the tenant's holding from year to year. I Term Rep. 161.

VI. How Rent in Arrear may be recovered.

Recovery of rent, t

Having now enquired pretty fully concerning the refervation, demand, tender, and acceptance of rent, we will now proceed to confider how rent in arrear may be recovered where no tender has been made, and demand has been ineffectual.

t

al

21 ſh

be

du pri

ma

for

ren

Rent in arrear may be recovered, 1. By action at law, 2. By distress on the premises.

By action.

I. By action or fuit at law. This may be either on the lessee's covenant for payment, or in an action of debt.

Given by

By stat. 52 Hen. 8. c. 37. "Executors or administrators of tenants in see-simple, see-tail, or for life, shall have action of debt for arrears of rent due in the life-time of their testators or intestates.

Formerly no action of debt could be maintained against a tenant for life, for rent reserved, because both the land itself and the chattels thereon were pledges for the payment of it, but now by the stat. 8 Anne, c. 17. "Any person having rent in arrear upon any lease for life or lives, may bring action of debt for such rent, as if the same were due on a lease for years."

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. " Tenants holding over lands or tenements after the expiration of their leafes, leafes, or terms, and notice given them to quit, shall pay double rent for the same, to be recovered by action of debt."

By 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. "Where any tenant for life shall die before or on the day on which any rent was referved, upon any demise which determined on the death of such tenant for life, the executors or administrators of such tenant for life may, in an action on the case, recover of the under-tenants, if fuch tenant for life die on the day on which the same was made payable, the whole; or if before such day, then a proportionable part of such rent:" before which stat. if tenant for life died before the day whereon the rent became due, such rent was not recoverable.

And by the same stat. " Where the demise is not by deed, the landlord shall recover reasonable satisfaction in an action on the case for use and occupation; and if on fuch trial any rent shall appear to have been agreed upon, it shall be evidence of the quantum of damages."

An action of debt will lie at the common law Action by also for arrears of rent due on leases for years or the common law.

at will. Co. Lit. 47.

And if a penalty be given by the lease, in case of non-payment of rent, an action of debt will lie to recover it. Ibid. 162.

Action of debt will lie against a lessee for rent due after affignment of his term, for though the privity of estate is gone, privity of contract remains. 3 Co. 22. Sed vid. Ibid. 24.

Debt will lie after the expiration of the leafe, for rent due before, the privity of contract still remaining. 2 Ibid. 227.

Bankruptcy no bar. The bankruptcy of a leffee is no bar to an action of covenant brought against him for rent due since the bankruptcy. 4 Term Rep. 94.

Nor is the fale of the lease under writ of fi. fa. or elegit, or the forfeiture of it by attainder, a bar to such covenant. Ibid.

Of Distress for Rent in Arrear.

By diftrefs.

Diftress is the taking of a personal chattel out of the possession of the wrong doer into the custody of the party injured, to procure a satisfaction for the wrong committed; this is the most common and the best remedy for the recovery of rent in arrear; it will, therefore, be expected of us, to be pretty full and explanatory on this head; in order to which we shall enquire

I. Who may make distress for rent in arrear, and who may not.

II. Of what things diffress may be taken, and of what not.

III. Of the time and manner of making diffress.

IV. How a distress is to be disposed of when taken.

V. How it may be replevied or avoided, and conclude with

VI. Some practical directions in making a diffress.

I. Who may distrain for Rent in Arrear, and who may not.

Who may diffrain.

By the common law and the various statutes made in favour of this species of remedy for recovery recovery of rent, all persons having the reversion or remainder of lands, &c. after the determination of the particular estate or existing term therein, may of common right distrain for rent in arrear without any clause of distress for that purpose contained in the lease; as, if one feized in fee make a leafe thereof, faving to himself the reversion, and referving rent, or other fervices, the law gives him a remedy for the same by distress, without any express provifion for that purpose; but if he save not to himfelf the reversion, he cannot distrain of common right, but must reserve a power of distress in the leafe. Co. Lit. 142. Cro. Eliz. 636.

" By 32 Hen. 8. c. 37. the executors of te- Executors nants in fee-fumple, fee-tail, and for term of life, and adminimay distrain for rent due in the life-time of their strators. testators and administrators, for rent due in the life-time of their intestates, so long as the premiles charged therewith continue in the possession or feizin of the tenant in demean, who ought to have paid fuch rent, or any other perion claiming from the same tenant by purchase, gift, or descent, in like manner as their testator, or intestate might have done."

And by the same stat. § 7. a husband having Husbands in fuch lands or tenements as aforefaid, in right of right of their his wife, may distrain for rent in arrear, after wives.

his wife's decease, as if she were living.

" By ftat. 8 An. c. 14. rent in arrear may be Diftressafter distrained for, though the lease whereon it is re- expiration of ferved be determined, fo that the diffres be made leafe. within 6 months after fuch leafe has expired, and during the continuance of the landlord's title and tenant's possession.

Renewal of

" By 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. § 6. in case any lease shall be surrendered in order to be renewed, and a new lease executed by the chief lord, the new lease shall be valid without the surrender of the under-leases, and every person in whom any estate for life or years shall be vested by virtue of fuch new leafe, shall be entitled to the rents and duties, and have like remedy for recovery thereof, and the under-leffees shall hold and enjoy the tenements as if the original leafes had been kept on foot; and the chief landlord shall have the same remedy by diffress, or entry, for the rents and duties referved on fuch new leafes, (so far as they exceed not the rents, &c. in the original lease) as if the former lease had been continued."

Bodies politic.

By 4 Geo. 2. c. 24. bodies politic and corporate shall have the like remedy by distress for rent as other persons.

Mortgagec.

Also a mortgagee after having given notice of the mortgage to the tenant in possession, under a lease granted previous to the mortgage, being entitled to the rent due at and after the time of such notice given, may make distress for the same. Doug. 279, 266.

Annuitant.

An annuitant having a term for years vested in him, to secure the payment of the annuity, may distrain for arrears of the annuity, for the grantor of the annuity is, during the term, a mere under-tenant to the grantee. 2 Black.

Rep. 1326.

Lord of manor in refpect of copyholds. The lord of the manor may distrain of common right, for all services arising from the tenure, as homage, fealty, rent, suit at court, and the like; but distress for fuit or services cannot be sold but only impounded till satisfaction made, or the right of diffraining be contested by replevin. Gilb. Dift. 2. 3 Black. Com. 13.

W

e

e

S

d

d

e

d

t

r

The fervices or rent for which the lord may distrain, must be certain, or such as may be reduced to a certainty, otherwise the lord cannot recover damages for non-payment or non-performance, for a jury cannot determine the damage he has sustained. Co. Lit. 96.

As to heriots, they being of two forts, heriot- As to hefervice and heriot-custom, there is this distinction; riots.

a heriot-service being due on a special reservation, and therefore little different from a mere rent, may be either seized or distrained, but a heriot-custom being no reservation, but depending intirely upon usage and custom, cannot be distrained. Co. Cop. 24.

The tenant must be owner of the heriot, or it cannot be due, therefore no heriot can be taken on the death of a feme covert, for she cannot be owner of any personalty which a heriot is. 4 Leo. 239.

A lesse assigning his term cannot distrain for Who cannot rent because the reversion is not in him. 2 Wilf. distrain.

A person having a see farm rent cannot distrain for it, unless the case be within the stat. 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. § 5. Doug. 624.

II. Of what things Distress may be taken, and of what not.

It may be faid in general, that distress may be Of what distaken of all goods and chattels personal, found tress may be on the premises demised; and that, whether they taken. be the property of the tenant or of a stranger;

for great delay and fraud might be suffered by the landlord, if he were obliged first to prove that the goods actually belonged to his tenant, or to resute every claim made upon them by others, before he could take them in distress (a). Our shortest way therefore will be to enquire, what things by the policy of the law, are excepted from this rule, and therefore not distrainable, than to enumerate all the individual things which are: it may be proper, however, just to notice some things, that though distrainable now, were not so at the common law.

0

fi

A

pi

m

or

or

lan

cat

tur

ten

are

fore

rent

s pr

ollo ave

listra

T

ih,

om

Su

ay (

A

Things not diffrainable at common law, but made so by particular statutes.

And first, corn in sheaves, or hay in cocks, or in a barn, could not at common law be taken in distress for rent; because a distress being formerly considered merely as a pledge, to be detained till satisfaction made, nothing could be distrained, which from its nature, could not be returned again to the owner in the same state a when it was taken; and corn in sheaves, or hay in the cock, cannot be removed without some loss or damage.

But this exemption having been found to encourage tenants to withhold their rent, it was provided by flat. 2 Will. 3. c. 5. "That it should be lawful for any person having rent in arrear on any demise, lease, or contract, to seize and secure any sheaves or cocks of corn, or com loose, or in the straw, or hay lying in any barn or granary, or in any hovel, stack, or rick, or otherwise, upon any part of the land charged with such rent, and to lock up or detain the same is the place where it shall be found, in the nature of a diffres, until the same shall be replevied or fold."

Corn, &c. in sheaves.

⁽a) If the goods be the property of a stranger, he has he remedy over against the tenant, by an action on the case, they are not forthcoming when called for.

Neither could corn, &c. growing be diffrained Corn growtill lately, because of the rule of law, that nothing ing. can be taken in diffress, which is so fixed to the freehold, as to become as it were a part of it: but by stat. II Geo. 2. c. 19. it is enacted, "That every landlord or leffor, his fleward, bailiff, receiver, or other person by him empowered, may take and feize as a diffress for arrears of rent, all forts of corn and grass, hops, roots, fruits, pulse, or other products whatsoever, which shall be growing on any part of the demised premises; and the same may cut, gather, and make, carry, and lay up, when ripe, in the barn or other proper place on the premises so demised or holden."

95

to

W,

in

-10

de-

be

be

28 hay

ome

en-

W25

at it

nt in feize

com

barn

with ne in ature

has hi

cafe, i

And by the same statute it is provided, that a Cattle on landlord may distrain for arrears of rent, any commons. cattle or stock of his tenant feeding, or depafturing, upon any common appendant or appurtenant to the premises demised or holden.

We now proceed to enumerate fuch things as Things AM are exceptions from the general rule we have be- exempted fore laid down, and therefore not diffrainable for from diffress ent in arrear.

And I. As every thing which is diffrained s prefumed to be the property of the tenant, it ollows that fuch things wherein no man can ave an absolute or valuable property, are not iftrainable.

Therefore dogs, cats, hares, rabbits, poultry, Animals of th, or other things feræ naturæ, are exempt a wild naom distress. Co. Lit. 47. 2 Inft. 133.

Such things as are on the premises, in the Things in vay of the tenant's trade, as horses in a smith's the way of shop, or in a common inn; corn at a mill to be ground; materials in a weaver's, or cloth and garments in a taylor's shop; these things being protected for the general benefit of trade. C. Lit. 47. Dy. 312. 4 Term Rep. 569.

Things at an inn.

Implements of a man's trade.

The cattle and goods of a guest or traveller at an inn are free from distress (a). 3 Bur. 1497.

So the tools and implements of a man's trade, as the books of a scholar, the axe of a carpenter, the loom of a weaver, and the like, are generally held to be privileged from distress, as taking these would not only prevent him from serving the public in his station, but deprive him of the means by which alone he might be enabled to discharge the sum for which the distress was made. Noy Max.

But fince the nature of a distress has been attered by the various statutes empowering a sale of the things distrained, this rule is in some degree relaxed; and it has been held by a very late and respectable decision, that the implements of a man's trade are no longer privileged than while he is actually using them; and so long as there other sufficient distress on the premises: and it was at the same time held that beasts of the plough are protected only under the same circumstances. 4 Term Rep. 565.

Things which could not, at the common law, be restored again in the same plight in which the were taken, as milk, fruit, and the like, are generally held to be free from distress; but though I know of no express decision against this rule I should doubt whether it would be now in garded

n

t

th

L

di

2

ca

for rid

lik

Li

eve

aga feer

not

Biff

Ter.

N

he

he r

Ab.

G

lama

aw.

⁽a) But this privilege does not extend to horses, &c. at livery stable. 3 Bur. 1497.

garded, for fince diffres is authorized to be fold, the former reason no longer now applies.

Things fixed to the freehold cannot be dif- Things fixed trained, as chimney-pieces, anvils, mill-stones, to the free-&c. because they are part of the inheritance: nor a mill-stone, even though removed from the mill, if it be removed for some necessary purpose, as to be picked, &c. for it still continues part of the mill; and so it is of a smith's anvil on which he works; for it is accounted a part of his forge, though it be not actually fixed to the shop. Lit. 47. 4 Term Rep. 565. Bro. Dift. 23.

What is in the actual use of another cannot be Things in distrained, for a distress, which is in the nature of use. a pledge, cannot be made of those things which cannot be reduced into the possession of the perfon distraining; therefore, the horse a man is riding, the tool a man is working with, and the like, are for the time privileged by law.

Lit. 47. I Vent. 36. 4 Term Rep. 569. Upon the principle at common law that what- Things of a ever is distrained must be restored to the owner perishable again, in the same condition as when taken, it nature. feems that milk, eggs, and perishable fruits cannot be diffrained. 3 Black. Com. 10. Sed. Vid. Biffet v. Caldwell et al. at Ni. Pri. K. B. Hil.

Term 31 Geo. 3.

Nor can money unless it be in a bag, so that Money he fame individual pieces may be restored on loose. he redemption of the pledge distrained. 2 Bac.

Ab. 109.

at

e,

1,

6.

ng

he

to

Vas

fale

de-

late

s of

hile

res

nd it

the cir.

law,

the

ge-

ough

rula

V 12

arded

Goods in execution, cattle impounded for Things in lamage feafant, &c. cannot be taken in diffress, the custody ecause they are already in the custody of the of the law. aw. Gilb. 38.

As to the cattle of a stranger on tenants land.

Beafts of a stranger found on the premises of a tenant, are distrainable or not, according to the following distinctions:

If the cattle break through the fences and commit a trespass by coming upon the land, and this by default of the owner, they are distrainable immediately for the tenant's rent, as a punishment to the owner for the wrong committed through his negligence. I Raym. 168.

And so if they be turned in with the consent of the owner. Cro. Eliz. 549. 2 Vent. 50.

But in the case of the cattle's breaking through the fences, if it happened from the tenant's fault repairing the hedges which it was his part to repair, the landlord cannot distrain them until they have been levant and couchant, i. e. one night at least upon the land, unless he has given notice to the owner, and he suffers them to remain there; for if the landlord had had the lands in his own hands, he must have repaired the fences; and when he puts in a lessee, he ought, by covenant, to oblige him to repair, and therefore to allow the landlord to distrain them would in effect be permitting him to take advantage of his own negligence. Lutw. 364.

And by Treby, C. J. Raymond 168. where cattle escape accidentally, there they are not distrainable till they have been levant and couchant, but if they escape by default of their owner, they are distrainable the first minute.

ta

ar

Pa

di

fu

fin

m

it (

the

the

ren

par

and

he folly 2 L E cien mift

III. Of the Time and Manner of taking Distress.

Distress for rent must be in the day time, for When and if made at night it will be bad. Co. Lit. 142. to be taken.

It cannot be made, therefore, till the day after Not till the that on which the rent is referved in the lease; day after refor we have before feen, that though payable, it ferved. is not strictly due till midnight of the day upon which it is referved.

Diftress cannot be made after the rent has Nor after been tendered; if the landlord come to distrain, tender.

the tenant may, before the diffress made, tender the arrears, and if the diffress be afterwards taken, it is illegal; and so if after the distress, and before it is impounded, the tenant tender payment, the landlord ought to deliver up the diffress; and, if he do not, the detainer is unlawful. 2 Inft. 107. By statute 8 An. c. 14. distress is not con- May be fined to the duration of the tenant's leafe, but made within may be made at any time within 6 months after after expiit expires, so that the tenant be in possession of ration of the premises demised, and the landlord's title to lease. them continues.

d

it

h ıt

lt

to lil

ne

en

eds

he

ht,

eıld

of

ere

lif-

nt,

er,

The landlord ought to distrain for the whole Landlord rent at one time, and not part at one time, and ought to difpart at, another, if there be sufficient at first; train for the and formerly, if he took too little the first time, once. he could not distrain again, because it was his folly not to distrain sufficient in the first instance. 2 Lutw. 1532.

But by 17 Car. 2. c. 7. if there is not fuffi- But may difcient diffress on the premises, or the landlord train again. mistake in the value of the thing distrained, and take too little, he, his executors, or administrators, may take a second distress to complete his remedy.

E 3

Cannot diftrain out of his fee, or in the highway,

Unless in particular cases. In affirmance of what was the ancient common law, it was enacted by stat. 52 Hen. 3. c. 15. that it should be lawful for no man, for any manner of cause, to take distress out of his fee, or in the king's highway, or in the common street, but only the king and his officers, having special authority so to do (a).

But by stat. 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. landlords may feize as a distress for rent, any cattle or stock belonging to their tenants, feeding upon any common appendant or appurtenant to any part of the premises demised.

And though such goods and chattels only as are found upon the land when the distress is made are properly liable for the rent, yet, if the tenant seeing his ford coming to distrain, drives his cattle off the land, the landlord may follow and distrain them out of the see, so that he had once a view of them upon the land; for the tenant cannot by his own wrong prevent the landlord of his right. 2 Inst. 132.

As to concealing goods, &c. And now by 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. "If any tenant, or lessee for life, or lives, term of years, at will, at sufferance, or otherwise, of any messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, upon the demise or holding whereof any rent is referved, shall fraudulently or clandestinely convey away from such premises his goods or chattels,

n

fc

th

10

in

of

de

of 50

m

off

the

wh

fan

enc

pro

ty; the ana

der

⁽a) Though a landlord diffrain off his fee, or on the highway, the diffress is not absolutely unlawful, or void, only the tenant may bring an action against him for so doing, on the above statute.

to prevent the landlord from distraining for rent due, it shall be lawful for every landlord, or leffor, (in England) or any person by him lawfully authorized, within the space of 30 days next after fuch goods shall be so conveyed away, to take and seize the same wherever they shall be found, as a diffress for arrears of rent, and the same to sell, or otherwise dispose of, as if they had been distrained upon the premises;" provided that fuch goods be not bona fide, and for a valuable confideration, fold before such seizure to a person not privy to the fraud.

" And if any tenant or leffee shall fraudu- Or removlently remove his goods as aforefaid, or conceal ing them. the same, or if any person shall knowingly aid or affift him in fo doing, every person so offending shall forfeit to the landlord double the value of the goods, to be recovered by action of debt.

-

C. IV

4

n

3

3

II.

as-

15

he

W

ad

6-

d-

ers,

ef-

on

e-

ey

Is,

ghthe

the

to

" And when the goods or chattels so carried off or concealed shall not exceed the value of 501. the landlord, his bailiff, fervant, or agent may exhibit a complaint in writing against such offender, before two justices of the peace of the county, residing either near the place from whence the goods were removed, or where the same were found, who shall determine whether the persons were guilty of such offence, and enquire of the value of the goods, and on full proof made, shall adjudge the aforesaid penalty; and in case the offender, having notice of the justices order, shall neglect to perform the fame, such justices may levy the same by distress and fale of the goods and chattels of the offender.

Landlord may break open doors.

By the common law no person was allowed to break open or throw down any gates or inclosures to make a distress; and the lessor could not, in any case, have entered into the house, or even barn of his tenant, for the purpose of making a distress, unless the outer door had been open.

But now, by stat. 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. on oath made before a justice of the peace, of a reafonable fuspicion, that goods are concealed in any house, barn, stable, out-house, yard, close, or place, locked up, or otherwise fastened to prevent their being taken in diffres, it shall be lawful for the landlord, or leffor, his or her fleward, bailiff, receiver, or other person authorized to take a diffress for rent, (calling to his affiftance the conftable or other peace officer of the parish or place where the same are sufpected to be concealed), to break open in the day time, and enter into any fuch house, barn, &c. where the same are supposed to be, and take and feize fuch goods, &c. for rent arrear, in like manner as if they had been in any open field or place.

May feize part in the name of the whole.

If a landlerd feize only a part of the goods, &c. of his tenant, for rent, in the name of them all, it will be a good feizure of the whole. 6 Mod. 215.

Diffress must not be excessive.

Distresses ought not to be excessive, but in proportion to the duty distrained for. 2 Inst. 106.

Unlawful distress.

If a distress and sale be made, as for rent in arrear, and it turn out that none be due, the owner may, by 2 Will. & Mary, c. 5. recover double the value of the goods distrained, with full costs.

And

CO

Wa

15 po

cu

182 pre

the

ing

do

Wa

an

to

G

be ty

ted

dif

ed

fir

fat

fuc

of

do

in thi

im

wh

And if a diffress be made without cause, or contrary to law, as, if it be taken on the highway, &c. the owner may at any time before it is impounded rescue it, but if it be once impounded he cannot take it, because it is then in custody of the law. Co. Lit. 47. I Raym. 105.

ed

ld

of

-

0

of fuit."

One distress cannot be taken for rent due on One distress several demises, but a separate distress on the cannot be premises subject to the rent, must be made for taken for fethe particular rent due on each. 2 Stra. 1040.

The many particulars which attend the taking of a diffress, formerly rendered it a hazardous proceeding, for if any one irregularity was committed, the whole process was void, and the parties trespassers from the beginning: to remedy which, it was provided by stat. II Distress not Geo. 2. c. 19. that " Where any diffres shall unlawful be made for rent justly due, and any irregulari- tho' irreguty or unlawful act shall be afterwards committed by the party distraining, or his agents, the diffres itself shall not on that account be deemed unlawful, nor the party a trespasser from the first, but the person aggrieved shall recover full fatisfaction for the special damage sustained by such irregularity, and no more, with full costs

IV. How a Distress is to be disposed of.

After diffress is taken, the first thing to be How diffress done by the distrainer is to impound, or secure to be used. in some place of fafety, the goods, or other things distrained.

At common law, the distrainer might have impounded the diffress wherever he chose, whereby it often happened that the owner was

E 5

d

3

ner

at a loss where to find his goods or cattle either to feed or replevy them; 2 Inft. 106. to remedy which inconvenience,

Distress cannot be driven out of the county. By stat. 1 & 2 Will. & Mar. it is enacted, that no distress of cattle shall be driven out of the hundred, rape, wapentake, or lathe where the same were taken, except to a pound overt within the same shire, and within 3 miles of the place where taken, and no distress shall be impounded in several places (a).

May be impounded and fold on the premifes. By 11 Geo. 2. c. 19. which was made for the benefit and convenience of landlords, it is provided, that " it shall be lawful for any perfon taking any distress for rent, to impound the same in such place, or on such part of the premises chargeable with the rent, as shall be most fit and convenient, and to appraise, sell, and dispose thereof upon the premises, in like manner and under the like directions and restraints as he may do off the premises, by virtue of the several acts already in force.

"And that it shall be lawful for all persons to come and go to and from such parts of the said premises where any distress shall be so impounded, in order to appraise, view, or buy, or to remove the fame when fold."

Open pound. If the distress be of cattle or other living things, and they be impounded in a common open pound, the tenant is bound to take notice of them, and feed them at his peril, but if in a pound constructed for the purpose, the distrai-

And they must be put in the same pound. 4 Med. 395.

⁽a) It has been held on this statute, that were lands layin two adjoining counties, and were under one demise, at one entire rent, cattle taken in distress on both lands, might be driven together into one of the counties. 1 Raym. 55.

ner must give notice to the owner where the distress is, and in either case the owner must provide them with food: but if they be impounded in a close, or covered pound, as a stable, or the like, then must the landlord or person distraining provide them with necessaries. Co. Lit. 47.

Household goods, and such other things as Covered would be damaged by the weather, must be pound impounded in an inclosed covered pound, otherwise if they be damaged, the distrainer will be answerable for the loss. I Inst. 47.

her

ne-

ed,

of

ere ert

of.

be

for

is

er-

he

ebe

ke

e-

1-

ns

ne

cf

-

ne

er

Cattle or other things must not be used or Distress worked whilst in distress, unless it be for the must not be benefit of the owner that they should. On this account it has been doubted whether a distrainer might milk a cow, because though the cow ought to be milked, yet the owner might have come before she had been injured.

Cro. Fac. 148. 2 Bac. Ab. 112.

If the diffress die, or be damaged in the Diffress loft.

may make a fresh diffress. I Salk. 248.

By stat. 2 Will. & Mar. c. 5. if the distress, Rescue of after being impounded, be rescued, any person distress. aggrieved thereby may recover treble damages and costs against the offender, or against the owner of the goods, if they be afterwards found to come to his use or possession; and it has been held on this statute that the costs shall be trebled as well as the damages. I Raym. 20.

If after distress made of cattle, &c. they get Escape, away from the driver in going to pound, and return to the owner, the owner must re-deliver them on demand, or it will be construed to be a rescue. Co. Lit. 161.

Formerly

Formerly nothing more could be done with things taken in diffress for rent, but to detain them in pound till the rent was paid.

Diffress may be fold if not replevied.

But by 2 Will. & Mar. where any goods or chattels shall be distrained for rent due on any demise, lease, or contract whatsoever, and the owner shall not within 5 days next after such distress taken, and notice thereof (a), and of the cause of the taking left at the dwelling house, or other most notorious place on the premises charged with the rent, replevy the fame, that then, at the expiration of the faid 5 days, the diffrainer may (with the affiftance of the sheriff, under-sheriff, or constable), cause the goods and chattels so diffrained to be appraised by two sworn appraisers, and fold for the best price that can be got for the same, towards fatisfaction of the rent for which the faid goods and chattels shall have been distrained, and the costs and charges of such diffres, appraisement, and fale, leaving the overplus, if any, in the hands of the faid fheriff, or constable, for the use of the owner.

V. How a Distress may be replevied or avoided,

Replevying a diffress.

If a distress be taken wrongfully, or without sufficient cause, the tenant, or owner, may by virtue of stat. 52 Hen. 3. c. 21. (commonly called the statute of Marlbridge) apply to the sherist, or his deputy, who shall grant him a replevin, or restitution of the goods distrained, upon his giving bond with two sureties in double the value of the goods, to try without dela

ſa

h

h

Ci

h

C

ri

CE

th

di

m

of the lan

thi

fui

m

ma fay

La

fro

for

⁽a) A personal notice is sufficient under this flatute. 12 Med. 76.

lay the right of diffraining, and to reftore the fame, in case it should be determined against him: when therefore the theriff or his deputy, have received fuch fureties, they are bound to cause the things distrained to be immediately restored to the possession to the owner.

h

in 10

ly

le

h

of

e

le

of

.

e

3

.

1.

ıt

y

.

.

2

If the tenant mean to replevy the goods diftrained, he must accordingly within 5 days after notice given him of the diffress, go with two housekeepers to the sheriff's office, or if in the country to a person whom the sheriff has authorized to grant replevies, and enter into fuch bond, upon which the sheriff will direct a precept to one of his bailiffs, that the goods may be restored to the tenant, to wait the event of the fuit in replevin.

VI. Practical Directions in making a Distress.

The proper and regular way of making a Directions diffress for rent in arrear is, to go upon the pre- in making mises for which the rent is due, and take hold of some piece of furniture, or other article there, and fay, (if the distress be made by the landlord himself), " I seize this chair (or other thing as the case may be), in the name of all the goods and effects on these premises, for the fum of £20, being half a year's rent due to me at Lady-day last." (Or if the distress be made by some person empowered by the landlord,). fay " for the sum of £20 due to James Frazer, esq. the landlord of these premises, at Lady-day last, by virtue of an authority (a) from him the faid James Frazer, to me given for that purpose."

⁽a) See the form of this authority, Appendix, No. VII. An.

An inventory (a) is then to be made of fo many of the goods, &c. as will be fufficient to cover the rent and expences of the diffress, appraisement, and fale, and with a notice thereto annexed ferved on the tenant.

The goods may then be immediately removed, which is the fafest way, unless the tenant confents to let a man remain in possession of them upon the premises, and then they may remain till the 7th day, when they must be removed, appraised, and fold, or the distrainer will be a trespasser, unless the tenant requests and the landlord agree that still further time be given for payment, in which case the tenant must fign a memorandum, confenting to the landlord's continuing possession longer (b).

If no further time be allowed on the 7th day, and the goods are not replevied, the landlord is to go to the place where the goods are impounded, and if the rent and charges are not then paid, the sheriff, or constable, with two fworn brokers, must attend, and having viewed the goods distrained, the sheriff or constable, must administer an oath to the appraisers, to the following effect, "You, and each of you, " shall well and truly appraise the goods and " chattels mentioned in this inventory, (bold-

" ing the same in his hand) according to the " best of your judgment."

Then write a memorandum thereof on the back of the inventory as in Appendix, No. Vil.

When

b

lo

n

fu

01

re

le af

m

Ia

in

⁽a) See the form of this inventory and notice, Appendix, No. VII.

⁽b) See the form of this Confent, Appendix, No. VII.

When the appraisers have valued the goods, and an indorfement of their valuation is written upon the back of the inventory as in Appendix, No. VII. the goods are to be fold, and the furplus of the money arising from the fale, after deducting the arrears of rent, and all reasonable charges attending the distress, is to be paid to the tenant.

Of Ejectment for Recovery of Rent Arrear.

t

S

.

0

-

to 10

1-

he

he

II.

ix,

en

Ejectment is an action by which lands or tenements may be recovered against him who has By ejectunlawful possession of them; originally it lay mentonly against a leffor, reversioner, or stranger, who oufted (i. e.) turned out) a tenant from the occupation of land demifed to him, during the continuance of his term, but now by a string of legal fictions it is applicable to many other purposes; and by 4 Geo. 2. c. 28. is rendered an easy and expeditious remedy to landlords for recovery of rent in arrear.

" By this statute it is enacted that in all cases between landlord and tenant, as often as one half year's rent shall be in arrear, and the landlord has right by law to re-enter for non-payment, and no sufficient distress is to be had; fuch landlord may, without any formal demand, or re-entry, serve a declaration in ejectment for recovery thereof; or in case the same cannot be legally ferved, or no tenant be in possession, affix the fame upon the door of any demised melluage, or upon fome notorious place of the land, tenements, or hereditaments, comprized in such declaration, which affixing shall be deemed deemed legal service thereof, and shall stand in stead of a legal demand and re-entry; and a recovery in such ejectment shall be final and conclusive, both at law and in equity, unless all arrears of rent with sull costs be paid, or tendered within six months thereafter."

"Provided that if the tenant before the trial in such ejectment, pay or tender to the landlord, or pay into the court all rent in arrear and costs, all further proceedings shall be void."

N. B. A landlord must not receive any rent of his tenant after he has brought an ejectment, till the same be determined; if he do, it will be a waiver of the action, and he will be non-fuited. 2 Bur. 668.

To enlarge any farther upon this species of action, which consists of many nice and intricate points of practical law, we think unnecessary and useless. In the present treatise we profess to instruct our readers as to those points only, in which, with our affistance, he may safely act for himself: but when we approach to those matters which professional men are alone competent to undertake, to them it is our duty to direct him, as the only guide on which he can with safety depend.

CHAP.

ne

ne

acc

in

to 1

pof

form

Cav acco as B with

port will in ft

CHAP. IX.

Miscellaneous Observations, Cautions, and Directions as to the Hiring and Letting of Houses and Apartments in London, and elsewhere.

THE numerous frauds and deceptions which are daily practifed by defigning perfons, in letting houses or apartments, particularly in the neighbourhood of the metropolis, has induced us to conclude this first part of our enquiries with a chapter on that subject, where we shall endeavour to call to mind such directions and cautions as appear to us to be most generally necessary and useful.

And we shall premise our remarks with some The usual account of the usual rent of houses and lodgings rent of houses, &c. in London; this must necessarily vary according in London. to their fituation, fize, elegance, &c. it may be possible, however, to enable the reader to form some general estimate of their probable value under most of these.

d ıl

ıt

e .

λſ

e

d

n

S

0 1,

y

Houses in the best squares, as Grosvenor, Houses un-Cavendish, &c. let from 200 to 3001. a year, furnished. according to the fize; and in the inferior squares, as Bedford, Bloomsbury, &c. from 100 to 1501. without taxes.

Houses of about 25 feet in front, and of proportionable depth, leading out of the best squares, will let upon an average from 100 to 150l. and in streets leading out of the inferior squares, and other

other good fituations, from 60 to 801. a year; in good private streets inferior to these, from 30 to 50%. a year.

The rent of houses of trade depend so much upon the fituation for custom, &c. that no general estimate can be formed of their annual value.

Houses furnished.

Houses ready furnished will let from 4 to 10 guineas a week, according to the rent of the house, the season of the year, &c. the general rule we believe to be that furnished houses will let for double the net rent of the house unfurnished, if taken by the year, and proportionably more (according as it is the winter or fummer feason), if taken for a shorter time. When houses are let furnished the landlord pays all taxes: the goods are delivered on inventory, and must be forthcoming at the end of the term in as good condition (except reasonable wear) as they were when taken.

The general price of unfurnished lodgings is unfurnished, as follows :

For the first floor, kitchen, and garret, the net rent of the house.

First floor only, half the net rent.

For the parlour floor, one fourth of the net rent.

The fecond floor the fame as the parlour floor.

Lodgings furnished.

Lodgings

In furnished lodgings it is generally reckoned that the first floor, with kitchen and garret, should fetch the rent and taxes of the whole house, and half the net rent besides.

The first floor only, the rent and taxes of the house.

fic

e2

p

b

fo

di

C

b

to

re

CI

th

fu

p

to

be

th

pi

b

th

The fecond floor half the rent of the first floor.

The parlour floor the fame.

Γ;

m

e-

al

0

he

al

r-

ly

er

en-

y,

m

r)

15

he

et ur

ed

et,

le

he

he

In taking a house, a person should carefully Cautions in examine the covenants in the original lease, and taking houses, &c. also those in the under-lease, if any, or he may possibly find when too late, that he is tied down by such restrictions as to render the house unsit for his purpose, or involving him in unforeseen difficulties:—he may be restrained from making convenient alterations;—be compellable to rebuild in case of fire, or other accident;—liable to forseit his lease, or a penalty if he attempt to assign over his interest, &c. &c.

It becomes him also to see that the rent reserved in the original lease, as also the ground rent, and all taxes are paid up to the time he commences possession, for if they are not, he will be obliged to pay all arrears, and can recover them only by having recourse to the last tenant, who, perhaps, is not to be found, or may be unable to repay him.

The same caution is necessary in taking unfurnished lodgings, for if the rent of the house be in arrear, either then or at any subsequent period, the furniture of the lodger will be liable to be taken in distress (a). Vid. ante. Chap. VIII.

In purchasing a lease of a tenant, care should be taken (by examining the lease and inventory) that fixtures, and other things belonging to the premises, are not paid for together with those belonging to the tenant, for it is not unusual for

(a) Carriages or horses standing at livery are also seizable for the rent of the stables and premises.

a landlord

a landlord to fit up his house with all necessary fixtures and conveniences, in which case they are included in the rent of the house, and not to be paid for separately: if however, the fixtures have been put up by the tenant, he may remove and consequently sell them as we have seen, page 23 (a).

These we deem to be the principal cautions requisite to be observed by those who may have occasion to take an house or lodgings in London or elsewhere: they are every where highly proper, but peculiarly necessary in London, where so many needy and artful people are always on the watch to take in the unwary.

We have now finished our considerations on the law respecting landlords and tenants, and we hope they will be found useful; upon a subject that comprizes so many heads, on some of which discordant opinions are met with, it is difficult to be in all respects accurate; we trust however the attention we have paid to our subject has prevented our being otherwise in any material instance: we can at least acquit ourselves of any intention to mislead; and upon the merit or demerit of this first part of our intended work, we profess ourselves willing to rest the success of our future labours.

APPENDIX.

the Da

ner

Fe

and

tak

feci

wit

belo

of

ligat impr

rent,

of la

⁽a) Goods and fixtures are generally taken by appraisement. In this case the seller and buyer each appoint a sworn appraise; if these disagree, a third is called in by them, whose decision is final.

APPENDIX.

Of PRECEDENTS.

ary

ney not ix-

ve

on on o-

DO

110

re

a

ch

ılt

er

25 al

ny

e-k,

of

nt.

T;

on

K.

No. I. AGREEMENTS.

1. Memorandum of an Agreement for letting a first and second Floor, Garret, and Kitchen, unfurnished (a).

MEMORANDUM, that it is hereby declared and agreed by and between John Fenton of Devonshire-Street, Queen-Square, in the county of Middlesex, engraver, and Charles Danvers, of the Inner Temple, gent. in manner following; that is to say, that the said John Fenton hath agreed to let, and hereby doth let, and the said Charles Danvers hath agreed to take, and hereby doth take all that the first and second floor, front garret, and front kitchen, with the conveniences and appurtenances thereto belonging, of the house now in the occupation of the said John Fenton, situated No. 20. in

(a) This agreement being figned only by the parties, and not fealed, must be written upon a 6s. Agreement stamp.

N. B. By 23 Geo. 3. c. 58. every agreement, whether obligatory on the parties, or only evidence of a contract, shall be impressed with a 6s. stamp, except agreements for leases at rack rent, under the yearly value of £5. Agreements for the hire of labourers, &c. for the sale of goods; for matters not exceeding the value of £20. and agreements in Scotland.

II

A

er

fa

m

be

Si

th en

an

ab

fir

M

A

th

afi

ye

he lo

as

A

fai he

Devonshire-Street aforesaid, together also with two cellars adjoining to each other under the pavement of the faid street, and to the faid house belonging, TO HOLD the fame with their appurtenances, and the fole and uninterrupted use and occupation thereof unto the faid Charles Dan. vers, his executors, administrators and affigns. for the term of twelve calendar months, to commence from the twenty-fifth day of March now next enfuing, at the net yearly rent of thirty-fix pounds for the year, payable quarterly on the 24th day of June, the 29th day of September, the 25th day of December, and the 25th day of March thence next enfuing; and the faid John Fenton doth agree to paint the second floor of the faid demised premises, and have the same fit for occupation by the faid 25th day of March next, or as foon thereafter as may be, and the faid Charles Danvers doth engage to make punctual payment of the rent hereby referved, in the manner aforesaid, and to quit and leave the said hereby demised premises at the expiration of the faid term of twelve months (notice to quit being given the faid Charles Danvers at least three calendar months previously thereto) in as good state and condition as reasonable use and wear thereof will permit. As witness our hands this fecond day of March, one thousand seven hundred and minety-three.

Witness, John Fenton.

G. Danvers.

Fames Bryant.

Servants to Mr. Fenton.

Wm. Day.

th

he

le

1-

n-15,

n-

W

he

T,

of

hn

he

10 xt,

iid

12

he

aid

he

ne-

rec

boo

ear

his

ın-

um

II. Memorandum of Agreement for letting a first Floor and Garret, furnished, for Half a Year certain, and from Quarter to Quarter, as long as the Parties shall agree (a).

MEMORANDUM made this 2d day of June, 1794, between Abraham Potts, of &c. and Christopher Doe, of &c. as follows: the faid Ab. Potts doth let unto the faid Christ. Doe an entire first floor completely furnished, as the fame now is, (which furniture is particularly mentioned in a schedule hereunder written), being part of the house which he the said Ab. Potts now lives in, fituate and being in King-Street, Bloomsbury; TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the faid premises for and during the term of half a year, to commence from Midsummer-day next ensuing, at and after the rent of 50 pounds per annum, of lawful money of Great Britain, payable quarterly, by even and equal portions, the first quarterly payment thereof to be made on Michaelmas-day next enfuing the date hereof. AND IT IS FURTHER AGREED by and between the parties hereto, that the faid Christ. Doe, after the expiration of the faid term of half a year, may hold and enjoy the faid premises hereby let unto him, from quarter to quarter, fo long as both parties shall agree, at the same rent as aforefaid. AND IT IS ALSO FURTHER AGREED between the parties, that when the faid Christ. Doe shall quit the said premises hereby demised to him, he shall and will leave the furniture and other things mentioned and set forth in a schedule, or inventory thereof here. under written, in as good state and condition as the same now are, reasonable and proper use thereof only excepted. As witness our hands the said 2d day of June, 1794.

⁽a) This must be written on a 6s. Agreement Stamp.

Witness, Wm. Simpson. Ab. Potts. Christ. Doe. 1 2

fo B

of da

no

St

un

it

pai

fol

H

10

M

for the ven Mi

muft

An Inventory to which the above Agreement refers,

In the front room, one pair of stairs.

8 Mahogany chairs with hair bottoms.

1 Mahogany dining table.

I Pembroke table.

2 Fire-skreens.

3 Festoon cotton window curtains:

A Wilton carpet, 3 yards by 21.

In the Back Room, ditto.

A four-post bedstead and bed, cotton furniture, white counterpane, 2 blankets, 2 pair sheets and mattrass. (and so on as the case may be).

Witness, Wm. Simpson. Ab. Potts. Christ. Doc. III. Agreement for letting one Side of a Shop, &c. for a Year certain, and as long afterwards as the Parties shall agree (a).

25

ni-

pair

cafe

ARTICLES of agreement made and entered into this 20th day of August, in the 33d year of the reign of our sovereign lord George the third by the grace of God of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, and so forth, and in the year of our lord 1793, BETWEEN Thomas Holsen, of Bridge-Street, Clare-Market, in the county of Middlesex, Grocer, of the one part, and Michael Thomas, of Fleet-Street, in the city of London, Haber-dasher, of the other part.

Whereas the faid Thomas Holfen is possessed of a certain messuage or tenement, wherein he now dwelleth, fituated at No. 33, in Bridge-Street, aforesaid: And WHEREAS he has confented to take the faid Michael Thomas to be an under tenant of part of the faid tenement, NOW it is hereby agreed upon by and between the faid parties to these presents, in manner and form following; (that is to fay) that the faid Thomas Holfen in confideration of the rent, or fum of 101. per annum, to be quarterly paid by the faid Michael Thomas, to him the faid Thomas Holfen, for and during the term hereinafter mentioned, the faid Thomas Holsen doth let, and doth covenant, promife, and agree to permit the faid Michael Thomas to have the use, possession, and occupation of, that fide of the shop in the afore-

⁽a) This agreement being under the feal of the parties, must be written on a 6s. Deed Stamp.

faid messuage or tenement as is next to the pub. lic house known by the name and fign of the Blue Lion, and also the back room and back closet behind and adjoining to the faid shop, and likewise liberty to take and use at all times when needful, from the water-tub, or ciftern, in the back kitchen of the faid meffuage, a fufficient quantity of water for all necessary purposes, for and during the term of one whole year, commencing on the 10th day of January next, and from and after the expiration of the faid year, then from thenceforth for fo long a time as both parties shall agree. PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it is hereby agreed by and between the faid parties, that if the faid Thomas Holfen shall at the end of the faid year be defirous that the faid Michael Thomas should quit the occupation of the faid premises hereby demised to him, he shall give unto him a quarter's warning in writing, or if the faid Michael Thomas shall at the end of the said year desire to give up the same, he shall give the like warning unto the faid Thomas Holfen. And it is also further agreed between the faid parties, that the faid Thomas Holfen shall and will allow two guineas out of the first quarter's rent towards fitting up the faid demised premises for the convenience of his trade; and also that the servant of the said Thomas Holsen shall and will open and thut up the windows and shutters as well of that part of the faid thop demised to the said Michael Thomas, as of the other part thereof, without any expence to him the said Michael Thomas, and further that the faid Michael Thomas shall not, during such time as he shall continue in possession of the said premises expose to sale any Tea, Sugar, Candles, Scap,

I

21

BE

the

tur

infa

wh

wil

of 1

in t othe

beh:

faid

(a)

Soap, or other goods or wares, that may injure or prejudice the faid Thomas Holfen in his business or way of trade. In Witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

Witness, Michael Thomas. (Seal.)

Jacob Bryant. Clerks to Mr. Fenton, Ly-Peter Giles. on's-Inn.

IV. Agreement by a Guardian on behalf of an Infant, for letting a House and Garden in the Country, for one Year certain (a).

e

5

n

11

.

-

6

11

bi

e-

ne

m

he

ne e-

es,

MEMORANDUM of an agreement made this 21st day of June, in the year of our Lord 1786, BETWEEN Elizabeth Wales, of Croydon, in the county of Surry, widow of Thomas Wales, late of the same place, gent. deceased, and natural guardian of her son William Wales, an infant, by the said Thomas Wales, her husband, who was the surviving trustee named in the last will and testament of Margaret Rich, deceased, of the one part, and Peter Hill, of Hounslow, in the county of Middlesex, victualler, of the other part.

The faid Elizabeth Wales on the part and behalf of her faid son, agrees to let unto the said Peter Hill, ALL THAT messuage, or tene-

⁽a) This agreement must be written on a 6s. Agreement

ment, and garden with the appurtenances, fituate and being in the town of Hounflow, late part of the eftate of the faid Margaret Rich, and now in the tenure or occupation of him the faid Peter Hill, and adjoining to the Sun Inn there; TO HOLD to him the faid Peter Hill, for one year certain, from Midsummer next, AT and under the rent of £25. clear of all taxes and deductions whatever, as well parliamentary as parochial, payable quarterly, at Midsummer, Michaelmas, Christmas, and Lady-Day. the faid Peter Hill agrees to take the faid meffuage and premises for the said term of one year, at and under the rent aforesaid, payable in manner aforesaid, and also agrees to pay and discharge all taxes and outgoings whatfoever, in respect thereof.

LASTLY, it is mutually agreed between the parties hereto, that fix months notice shall be given on either side for quitting the said premises at the end of the said term of one year. In witness whereof they have hereunto signed their names, the day and year first above mentioned.

Witness, Eliz. Wales.

Witness, Peter Hill.

Jos. Sykes, of Croydon, aforesaid.

ŀ

ta

fi

ti

th

or

or

in

or

pie kno of terr und qua V. An Agreement for a Lease of a Piece of Ground and Orchard, for the Term of five Years (a).

MEMORANDUM made this 10th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1794, between John Sykes, of Eling, in the county of Surry, gent. and William Fleet, of the same place, gent. as follows: that is to fay, The faid John Sykes in confideration of the rent and agreements hereinafter mentioned, doth agree to demife and let, by a good and fufficient lease in the law thereof, unto the faid William Fleet, on or day of now next, ALL that before the field, piece, or parcel of meadow ground, containing by estimation 6 acres, more or less, fituate at Eling aforefaid, now in the occupation of the faid William Fleet, as tenant at will thereof, adjoining to a house and grounds now or late of Peter Mellish, esq. and also all that orchard adjoining to the aforefaid field, containing by estimation 2 acres, more or less, late in the occupation of Humphry Nichols, gardener, together with all ways, paths, paffages, waters, water-courses, easements, privileges, and appurtenances whatfoever, to the fame belonging or appertaining, or therewith held, used, occupied, possessed, or enjoyed, reputed, taken, or known as part, parcel, or member thereof, or of any part thereof, TO HOLD the same for the term of 5 years from Lady-Day last past, at and under the yearly rent of 20 pounds, payable quarterly; the first payment thereof to be made

r.

d

⁽a) This must be written on a 6s. Agreement stamp.

at Midfummer now next enfuing the date thereof; and by the faid leafe full and free liberty shall be granted unto the faid William Sykes to lop and plash the trees and hedges on the faid demifed premifes, at feafonable and convenient times, and also liberty to erect upon the same any shed or sheds, or other convenient buildings during the faid term, he the faid Will. Sykes, from time to time fcouring and cleanfing the ditches, and repairing and making good the fences, hedges, and gates, upon and belonging to the faid premises, AND the said William Sykes doth agree to take the aforesaid premises for the said term, and at the faid rent, payable in manner aforefaid, and to execute a counterpart of the lease to be thereof granted. In witness, &c.

Witness,

John Sykes. Wm. Fleet. C

Se

ir

da

CE

th

E

or bu

th be

fai

VI. An Agreement between a Landlord and Tenant for building a new House in the room of an old one to be pulled down,—the present Lease to be surrendered, and a fresh one granted for the remainder of the subsisting Term (a).

ARTICLES of agreement entered into this fourteenth day of February, in the year of our

(a) This agreement being under the feal of the parties, must be written on a 6s. Deed stamp.

Lord

Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninetyfour, BETWEEN Robert Kent, and John Key, of Cecil-Street, in the Strand, esquires, (executors and trustees named in the last will and testament of Richard Comins, late of the same place, esquire, deceased, for and on the behalf of Roger Comins, an infant), of the one part, and Elizabeth Manners, of Sloane-Street, in the county of Middlesex, widow, of the other part.

m ıt 1e

is 11

d

WHEREAS the faid Elizabeth Manners is tenant for the remainder of an unexpired term of thirty-one years, commencing on the 25th day of December, which was in the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, of a certain meffuage, or public house, known by the name of the Goofe and Gridiron, in Harpur-Street, in the faid county of Middlefex, (part of the estates of the said infant,) at the net yearly rent of twenty-four pounds, late in the occupation of Thomas Ball, as undertenant of the faid Elizabeth Manners, at the net yearly rent of forty pounds. AND WHEREas the faid meffuage has lately been irreparably damaged by accidental fire, and the faid Robert Kent and John Key being advised that it is neceffary and proper under the circumstances of the case, the same should be rebuilt for the said Elizabeth Manners, on the terms and conditions herein after mentioned, have agreed to rebuild the same accordingly. Now WITNESS these presents, that it is hereby agreed by and between the faid Robert Kent and John Key, on the part of the faid infant as aforefaid, and the faid Elizabeth Manners, that they the faid Robert Kent and John Key, or the survivor of F 4

he

m

lar

fai

an

on fuc

on oth

be eit

uir

the

hal

rer

El

El.

agi

pre

me

lea and fift

the

faic

tha

ref

M

of .

them, his heirs, executors, or administrators shall and will on or before the twenty-fifth day of December now next enfuing, or as foon thereafter as may be, erect and finish, or cause to be erected and finished, a good and substantial private brick dwelling house, upon the scite, and in the room of the said public house fo damaged by fire as aforefaid, with all necessary appurtenances thereto, agreeably to a plan and elevation thereof accompanying these prefents, marked with the letter A, and figned by the parties hereto, (the faid house so to be erected, to be finished as to the inside conveniences, ornaments, and decorations thereof, according to the directions of Henry Hammond, of Sloane-Street, aforesaid, on the part of Elizabeth Manners, her executors, administrators, or affigns, and Philip Norman of Caftle-Street, Holborn, on the part of the faid Robert Kent and John Key), and also shall and will when the faid house with the appurtenances shall be so erected and finished, grant a good and effectual demise or lease thereof unto the faid Elizabeth Munners, her executors, administrators, and affigns, TO HOLD unto the said Elizabeth Manners, her executors, administrators, and affigns, from the faid twenty-fifth day of December now next enfuing, or fuch other time as aforefaid, for the term of nineteen years thence next enfuing, at and under the yearly rent of five pounds for every one hundred pounds, which shall be necessarily and reafonably expended by the faid Robert Kent, and John Key, or the furvivor of them, his heirs, executors, or administrators, in erecting and finishing the same, fit for the reception and habitation

n

e

t

1

S

d

9

.

d

.

ľ

n

e

-

1-

id

S, ıd

nd

n

habitation of the faid Elizabeth Manners, or her affigns, and which rent is to be clear of all manner of taxes and affefiments whatever, land-tax only excepted: the amount of fuch expenditure to be afcertained and fettled by the faid Philip Norman on the part of Robert Kent and John Key, and the faid Henry Hammond on the part of the faid Elizabeth Manners, or fuch other persons being builders or surveyors, as the faid Robert Kent and John Key, on the one part, and Elizabeth Manners, on the other, shall severally appoint, and in case of difference between the faid builders or furveyors, then by one other person or umpire, to be by them appointed, the determination in either case to be made by the said appointees, or umpire, within fourteen days after reference to them made, the faid rent to be paid and payable half yearly, on the days and times whereon the rent in the now subsisting lease of the faid Elizabeth Manners is reserved. And the said Elizabeth Manners, for herfelf, her executors, administrators, and affigns, doth confent and agree to accept and take the faid house and premises so to be erected and finished as aforefaid, on the terms and conditions before mentioned, and to execute a counterpart of the leafe to be to her and them granted thereof, and to furrender and give up her faid now fubfifting leafe, and all her estate and interest therein. AND it is further agreed between the faid parties, that the faid Elizabeth Manners shall be discharged from the payment of rent referved on her faid now subfifting leafe, from Michaelmas last, until the faid twenty-fifth day of December next, or such other time thereaf-E 5 ter ter as the said house so to be erected, shall, with the appurtenances, be in a tenantable condition and fit for habitation, and in the said lease so to be granted of the said new erected house and premises, there shall be contained an allowance of land-tax in savour of the said Elizabeth Manners, and all such other covenants, clauses, provisoes, and agreements (such only excepted as may tend to vary the terms of this agreement,) as are inserted in the now subsisting lease of the said Elizabeth Manners.

IN WITNESS whereof, the faid parties to these presents have hereunto set their hands and seals, the day and year first above written.

> Robert Kent. (Seal.) John Key. (Seal) Eliz. Manners. (Seal.)

Sealed and delivered by the said

Robert Kent and John Key, in the presence of us

Peter Simpkins, Temple-Bar.

Samuel Fleet, Great James-Sreet.

Sealed and delivered by the faid E. Manners, in the presence of Henry Jacobs, Sloane-Street, Chelsea.

Samuel Fleet.

V

11

TID

col

Sli

Ve

aff

or

ne:

late

Wil

and

ces

AN

agr

ren

nan Wi

WI

VI. An Agreement for Tenant to surrender a Public House to his Landlord within a given Time, (the said House being at present in Mortgage) (a), MEMORANDUM of an agreement made this 11th day of December, 1793, BETWEEN Thomas Verts, now or late of the Lion and Dog Public House, in Carey Street, near Linceln's Inn, London, and Elizabeth Matloch, of Sloane Street, Chelsea, in the county of Middlefex Widow, as follows: - The faid Thomas Verts DOTH hereby covenant and agree to affign and furrender, or procure to be affigned or furrendered unto the faid Elizabeth Matloch, on or before the 20th day of January, now next coming, the messuage or tenement, and public house, called the Lion and Dog, now or lately tenanted by him in Carey Street aforesaid with the appurtenances (freed and discharged of and from all mortgages and other incumbrances), and all his term, estate and interest therein. And the faid Elizabeth Matloch doth hereby agree to accept the same (all rent and arrears of rent being paid up to Christmas next), and to discharge the said Thomas Verts from his covenant to repair the faid house and premises. As Witness our hands the day and year above written.

Witness,
Thomas Poole.

Thomas Verts. Elizabeth Matloch.

⁽⁴⁾ This must be written upon a 6s. Agreement stamp.

No. II.

LEASES.

I. Lease of a House in London, with all proper Covenants (a).

THIS INDENTURE made the Ist day of January, in the 32nd year of the reign of our fovereign Lord George the 3d, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and fo forth, and in the year of our Lord 1792, BETWEEN James Fenwick of Dulwich, in the county of Surry, Gent. of the one part, and Thomas Carr, of Fleet-Street, in the city of London, Grocer, of the other part, WITNESSETH that for and in confideration of the yearly rent herein after referved, and of the covenants, provifoes, and agreements herein after contained by and on the part of the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, and affigns, to be paid, obferved, and performed, he the faid James Fenwick, HATH demised and leased, and by these Parties.

Demise.

m

B at fu

ar

in th E

th

W

20

ap

10 th

he

th

hi

du

ye

en

fu

he

fol

⁽a) This leafe and the next, with the following affignment are drawn with peculiar neatners and perspicuity, and all unnecessary circumsocutions are purposely omitted; they were settled in their present form by an eminent Conveyancer now in practice, who was himself the landlord of the premises.

presents DOTH demise and lease (a) unto the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, and affigns, ALL that meffuage or tene- Premifes. ment and dwelling house, situated and being on the north fide of Fleet-Street, in the city of London, now or late in the occupation of John Bate, his under-tenant, affignee, or affigns, and abutting on the east end thereof, on a mesfuage or tenement, now or late in the occupation of Thomas Sell, his affignee, or affigns, and on the west end thereof, on a gateway leading to certain premises known by the name of the Swan Inn, now or late in the occupation of Elizabeth Cole, her affignee, or affigns, together with all rooms, vaults, cellars, areas, yards, General ways, passages, drains, pipes, water-courses, words. advantages, conveniences, hereditaments, and appurtenances whatfoever, to the faid meffuage or tenement and premifes belonging or in any Habendum wife appertaining. To HAVE AND TO HOLD for 21 years. the faid messuage or tenement and premises hereby demised, or mentioned so to be, with their appurtenances, unto the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, and assigns, from the 25th day or December last past, for and during and unto the full end and term of 21 years thence next enfuing, and fully to be com- Determiplete and ended (determinable nevertheless at the nable at the end of the first 7 or 14 years thereof, upon end of the fuch notice for that purpose being given, as 14 years hereinafter is mentioned.) He the faid Thomas thereof. Carr, his executors, administrators, and affigns, ⁽a) The words usually inserted in leases are, "Demise, leafe, fet, and to farm let." The third of these words is obblete, and the last more applicable to a lease of lands.

mo

and pay

tru

of wh

wif

anc

pre

yea

or c min

AN

exe

will cau

out

mef

mife

of t ike

all t

tee

repa

win

ceili

grat

cou

ppi

ind

ng

end

ern

iel

At the yearly sent of 50l,

as to fire.

Exception

Covenant from leffee to pay rent

YIELDING AND PAYING yearly and every year during the faid term, for fuch tenure and occupation of the faid premises, unto the faid James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, and affigns, the net yearly rent or fum of 50l. of lawful money of Great Britain, the same to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the feveral days following: namely, on the 25th day of March, the 24th day of June, the 29th day of September, and the 25th day of December, in every year (fave and except at all times during the faid term, fuch proportionable part of the faid yearly rent of 50l. as shall or may at any time or times grow due, during fuch time as the meffuage or tenement hereby demifed, shall without the hindrance of the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, or assigns, remain uninhabitable by reason of accidental fire), and to be clear of all and all manner of parliamentary, parochial, and other taxes, affefiments, rates; and deductions whatfoever; the first quarterly payment thereof to begin and be made on the 24th day of June next enfuing the date of these presents. AND the said Thomas Carr doth. hereby for himfelf, his executors, administrators, and affigns, covenant, promife, and agree to and with the faid James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, and affigns, in manner following, (that is to fay) that he the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall and will yearly and every year during the continuance of the faid term hereby demifed (fave and except as aforefaid), well and truly pay or cause to be paid unto the said James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, or affigns, the faid yearly rent or fum of 50l. of lawful money

r

d

y.

e

1

n

,

n

f

h

e

.

15

5,

e

d

Y

ıl

money of Great Britain, on the feveral days, and in the manner the same is herein before made payable. AND ALSO shall and will well and and taxes, truly pay or cause to be paid all and all manner (except of taxes, rates, affeffments, and impositions whatfoever, parliamentary, parochial, or otherwife (land tax only excepted), which now are, or which shall at any time during the continuance of the faid term hereby demised, be rated, taxed, affeffed, or imposed on the faid demised premises, or on any part thereof, or on the said yearly rent hereby referved, or any part thereof, or on the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, or assigns, on account thereof. AND ALSO that he the faid Thomas Carr, his Covenant executors, administrators, and affigns, shall and that leffee will at his and their own proper costs and charges, will paint outside of cause to be well and sufficiently painted, all the house every outlide wood and iron work belonging to the faid 3d year, neffuage or tenement and premises hereby demifed, every third year during the continuance of the faid term of 21 years, and at his and their ike proper costs and charges, shall and will at all times during the continuance of the faid term, and do all keep in a good fufficient and tenantable state of other repairs. epair as well all and fingular the glass and other windows, wainfcots, rooms, floors, partitions, teilings, tiling, walls, rails, fences, pavements, rates, privies, finks, drains, wells, and water tourses, as also all and every other the parts and ppurtenances of the faid messuage or tenement and premises hereby demised (damages happenng by casual fire only excepted,) AND at the and quit at and or other sooner determination of the faid the end of erm hereby granted, shall and will leave and the term, ield up unto the faid James Fenwick, his executors,

pol

are

tha

ref

and

an bel

firl

Ca

ha

COI

pre

pro

for ful

adr

faic

the

to his

and

pre

and lea

tail

int

to

Ita

hin

fig

WI

mi

ma faic

premises in good repair, together with the tioned in an inventory.

Power for leffor to view ftate of repairs, cutors, administrators, or assigns, all and sinandleave the gular the same messuage or tenement and premifes, with every of their appurtenances, in fuch good, fufficient, and tenantable state of repair as aforesaid, Together with all and every things men- the doors, locks, keys, bolts, bars, chimneypieces, dreffers, shelves, water-pipes, and other things mentioned in an inventory or schedule hereunder written, or hereto annexed, in 28 good plight and condition as the fame now are freasonable use and wear thereof and casualties happening by fire only excepted). AND FUR-THER that it shall be lawful for the faid Fames Fenwick, his executors, administrators, and affigns, either alone, or with workmen or others, twice in every year (at fuch times of the year as to him or them shall seem meet) during the faid term hereby granted, at feafonable times of the day to enter into and upon the faid premifes hereby demifed, and every part thereof, and After notice there to view and examine the state and condition thereof, notice of fuch view being at all times previously given unto the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, or assigns, one day at least before the same shall take place. And in case any decays or want of reparation be found at any fuch examination and view, he the faid Thomas Carr, for himself, his executors, administrators, and affigns, doth hereby covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, assigns, to cause the same to be well and sufficiently repaired and amended within the space of fix months after notice thereof in writing shall have been given to him or them for that pur1-

e-

in

of

ry

y-

er

le

25

re

es

es

d

S,

le

of S

d

n

25 IS

at n

d id

1-

t, es

nd

1of

r-

pole. PROVIDED ALWAYS, and these presents Proviso that are upon this express condition nevertheless, lessor may that if the faid yearly rent or fum of 50l. hereby non-payreferved, or any part thereof shall be in arrear ment of and unpaid for the space of 21 days next after rent, &c. any of the faid days whereon the fame is herein before covenanted to be paid as aforefaid (it being first lawfully demanded), or if the said Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, or affigns, hall not well and truly observe and keep according to the true intent and meaning of these presents, all and every the covenants, clauses, provisoes, and agreements, by him and them to be observed and kept, then and from thenceforth in either of the faid cases, it shall be lawful for the faid James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, and assigns, to re-enter into the aid hereby demised premises, or into any part thereof in the name of the whole, and the fame to have again, reposses, retain and enjoy, as his and their former estate, and the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, and affigns, and all other tenants and occupiers of the faid premises, thereout utterly to eject and amove, and that from and after fuch re-entry made, this leafe, and every clause and thing herein contained shall determine and be utterly void to all intents and purposes, any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wife notwithstanding. AND the faid James Fenwick, for Covenant himself, his executors, administrators, and af from lessor figns, doth covenant, promife, and agree to and that leffee shall quietly with the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, ad- enjoy the ministrators, and affigns, by these presents in demised manner following, (that is to fay) that he the premises laid James Fenwick, his executors, administra-

CO

her

ye:

un

vif

rer

25 ho

cor

tor

COI

faic

tor

ney

the

the

Can

fha

pre

10 ber

defi

Jan

or :

rati

ma

ren

all

fucl

to l

clai

pira

faid

eve

and

in l

1.

free from the original leafe whereby the leffor holds.

Covenant for renewal of leafe, tors, and affigns, paying the yearly rent hereby referved in the manner aforefaid, and performing the covenants and agreements herein contained, and by him and them to be performed, shall and lawfully may peaceably and quietly hold, occupy, and enjoy the meffuage or tenement, and all other the premises hereby demised, for and during the faid term of 21 years hereby granted, without any lawful action, fuit, or interruption of the said James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, or affigns, or any other person law. fully claiming by, from, or under him, them, or any of them; and that freed and discharged, or otherwise, by the said James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, and affigns, saved harmless and indemnified from the rent and covenants referved and contained in a certain indenture of leafe bearing date the 10th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1790, whereby the faid James Fenwick, holdeth the faid melfuage and premises hereby demised from the date thereof for the term of 61 years, and from all claims and demands whatfoever in respect thereof. And the faid James Femuick doch hereby further covenant, promise, and agree to and with the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, and assigns, that the said James Fensuick, his executors, administrators, and affigns, shall and will before the expiration of this present lease, on the request, and at the costs and charges of the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, and assigns, grant and execute unto him and them a new and fresh leafe of the messuage or tenement, and all other the premises hereby demised, with their appurtenances, for the further term of 10 years, to commence

by

ng

ed,

nd

py,

211

u-

ed,

on

Id-

W-

m,

ed,

his

ed

0-

n-

of

by

ef-

ate

all

e-

by

nd

d-

nes

nd

of

he

his

int

h

ner

11-

to Ce

commence from the expiration of the term hereby granted, the fame to be at the fame yearly rent, payable in the like manner, and under and subject to the like covenants, provisoes, and agreements (except a covenant for renewal thereof at the end of fuch further term), as are contained in these presents, such new lease however to be granted and to be valid only on condition that the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, or assigns, do execute a counterpart thereof, and also pay unto the faid James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, or affigns, the fum of 201. of lawful money of Great Britain, at the time of executing the faid leafe, as a premium for the renewal thereof. AND ALSO that if the faid Thomas Carr, his executors, administrators, and affigns, and for deshall be defirous to quit the faid messuage and termination premises hereby demised at the end of the first 7 of this preor the first 14 years of the term of 21 years the end of hereby granted, thereof, and of fuch his or their the first 7 defire shall give notice in writing to the said or 14 years thereof, at James Fenwick, his executors, administrators, the option or affigns, 6 calendar months before the expi- of the leffee. ration of the faid first 7 or 14 years (as the case may be), then and in such case (all arrears of rent being duly paid, and the faid messuage and all other the premises hereby demised, being in such repair as they are herein before covenanted to be maintained in and left), this leafe and every clause and thing herein contained shall at the expiration of such first 7 or first 14 years of the aid term of 21 years hereby granted, (whichever in the faid notice be expressed) determine and be utterly void to all intents and purposes, in like manner as if the whole term of 21 years.

had run out and expired, any thing in these prefents contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

> James Fenwick. (Seal.) Thomas Carr. (Seal.)

Sealed and delivered in the presence of William Teers, of Gray's-Inn. Thomas Sykes, Clerk to Mr. Teers.

II. Lease of Messuage and Lands in the Country from Tenant for Life, under a Marriage Settlement (a).

This Indenture made the 24th day of March, in the 32d year of our Sovereign Lord George the third, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. and in the year of our Lord Christ, 1792, Between Mary Plumber, of (widow of Christopher Plumber, late of the same place, Esq. deceased,) of the one part, and Charles Clay, of

Gent. of the other, WITNESSETH that Parties.

1

the

to

der

on

the

dec

refe

Chaffi

mif

preunt min tene with hou

cels

unte

scrib

tain

or l

mor

foev

and

CEP

unto duri

the :

unto forth

entit

faid

⁽a) This as well as the preceding leafe must be written on a 6s. Deed Stamp.

the

re.

th-

ies

lay

n-

ge

of.

rd

of

g,

of

n-

er

,)

at

ne

the faid Mary Plumber, by virtue of a power to her in that behalf, given in and by certain indentures of lease and release, dated respectively on or about the 24th and 25th day of June, in the year 1772, (being the settlement made on her marriage with the faid Christopher Plumber, deceased,) and for and in consideration of the rents, covenants, and agreements, herein after referved and contained on the part of the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns, to be paid and performed, HATH de- The demise. miled, leafed, and to farm letten, and by these presents Doth demise, lease, and to farm let unto the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns, ALL that messuage or tenement and Farm called the Grange Farm, with the yard, barns, stables, buildings, outhouses and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and also all those several fields, closes, and parcels of arable, meadow and pasture land thereunto belonging, and herein after particularly dekribed (that is to fay), ALL that piece or parcel parcels. of pasture-ground called the Spring Close, containing by estimation 7 acres, be the same more or less, &c. &c. Together with all ways, commons, waters, profits, and advantages whatloever, to the faid messuage or tenement, farm and premises, belonging or appertaining, Ex- Exception of CEPT and always referved out of these presents timber. unto the faid Mary Plumber, and her affigns, during fuch part of the term hereby demised, as the shall live, and from and after her decease, unto fuch person or persons as shall from thenceforth, during the remainder of the faid term, be entitled to the freehold and inheritance of the faid premises, all timber and other trees now ftanding evel

terly

the

thef

PAY

days

of 5

prop

than

here

cont

or c writi

othe

fore

he f

cuto

tove

aid .

ors,

on a

old

nifed

efid

heir

n m id (

nd a

ca

he

ereb

ecea

e en

1,0

e f

one

standing and being, or which shall at any time during the continuance of this demise, stand or be upon the faid demifed premifes (other than fuch as are hereinafter agreed to be allowed the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns, for boot), with free liberty of ingress, egress, and regress, for the said Mary Plumber, and her affigns, or fuch other person or persons as shall be entitled as aforesaid, her and their agents and workmen, with horses, carriages, and otherwise, to and from any part of the faid hereby demifed premifes, to cut down and carry away the faid trees, making reasonable fatisfaction unto the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, or affigns, for any damage he or they may fustain thereby, and also free liberty at all times to view the state of the trees upon the faid premises. TO HAVE AND for 21 years. TO HOLD the faid messuage or tenement, farm, lands, and premifes hereby demifed or mentioned so to be, unto the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns, from the 5th day of April last past, for and during the term of 21 years, from thence next enfuing, and fully to be complete and ended; he the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and efervation. affigns, YIELDING AND PAYING for fuch tenure and occupation of the faid premises, unto the faid Mary Plumber, and her affigns, or unto fuch other person or persons as may be entitled as aforesaid, the yearly rent or sum of 100l. of lawful money of Great Britain, the same to be paid by equal quarterly payments on the feveral days following: namely, on the 25th day of March, the 24th day of June, the 29th day of September, and the 25th day of December, in every

Habendum

e

1

n

e

S,

-

"

n T

-

of

n

1-

is

ly

6

ne

D

n,

1-

118

he

he

g, ud

nd

e-

to ito

ed

of

be ral

of

of

in

ery

every year, by equal portions, the first quarterly payment thereof to begin and be made on the 24th day of June next enfuing, the date of these presents. AND ALSO YIELDING AND Penalty for PAYING by like equal portions on the feveral ploughing days aforefaid, an additional yearly rent or fum pasture. of 51. of like lawful money for every acre, and proportionably for any greater or less quantity han an acre of the pasture or meadow ground hereby demised, which at any time during the continuance of this demise shall be ploughed up or converted into tillage, without the confent in writing of the said Mary Plumber, or of such other person or persons as shall be entitled as foresaid, first obtained for that purpose. AND Covenant be faid Charles Clay, for himself, his heirs, exe- from leffee utors, administrators, and affigns, doth hereby rent. ovenant, promise, and agree to and with the ad Mary Plumber, her executors, administraors, and affigures, and also to and with the perm and persons who shall be entitled to the freeold and inheritance of the premises hereby deisled, from and after her decease for the then elidue of the term hereby granted his, her, and teir heirs, executors, administrators, and affigns, manner following: that is to fay, that he the did Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, nd affigns, shall and will well and truly pay, cause to be paid, unto the said Mary Plumber, her affigns, during fuch part of the faid term reby demised as she shall live, and after her cease unto such person or persons as may then entitled to the faid premises as aforesaid, his, r, or their executors, administrators, or assigns, e faid yearly rent or fum of 1001. of lawful oney of Great Britain, and also all other the rent

2

l

P

a

a

C

to

b

th

F

ex

W

de

m

m

tin

foc

CO

of

exe

Up(

ber

fon

thir

the

tors

duri

land

times

rent and rents, fum and fums of money, here-

Covenant from leffee to repair, materials being allowed by leffor.

inbefore referved, on the days herein before appointed for payment thereof, as the same shall from time to time grow due; the faid rents or fums to be clear of all manner of deductions whatfoever, for or on account of any taxes, rates, affefiments, or other impositions. And further that he the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall and will at his and their own proper costs and charges, at all times during the continuance of this demife, maintain and keep the faid meffuage or tenement, outhouses, and buildings hereby demised, and the walls, hedges, fences, gates, ftiles, bridges, and inclosures thereunto belonging, in good and fufficient repair in all respects, damages happening by cafual fire only excepted, he and they being allowed rough timber on the stem, bricks, tiles, and lime for the doing thereof; and shall and will at the end or other sooner determination of the faid term, peaceably and quietly leave and yield up the same premises unto the faid Mary Plumber, or her affigns, or unto fuch other person or persons as shall then be entitled thereto, in such good and sufficient repair as aforefaid. AND further that it shall be lawful for the faid Mary Plumber, and her affigns, during fuch part of the faid term hereby demiled as the shall live, and after her decease, for such person or persons as shall then be entitled as aforefaid, with workmen or otherwife, twice in every year during the faid term, at feafonable times in the day, to enter into and upon the faid premises hereby demised, and every part thereof, there to view and examine the state and condition thereof, notice of fuch view being at all

Covenant from leffee that it shall be lawful for leffor to view state of repairs. 11

10

ns

D

u-

at

at

fe,

e-

ed,

es,

in

ges

and

em,

of;

de-

and

nto

into en-

pair wful

gns,

nifed fuch

d as ce in

able

faid

reof, ondi-

at all

imes

times previously given unto the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and assigns, one day at least before the same shall take place, and in case of any decays or want of reparation be found, at any fuch review, the faid Charles Clay, for himself, his executors, administrators, and affigns, doth hereby covenant, promife, and agree to and with the faid Mary Plumber, and her affigns, and to and with fuch other person or persons as may be entitled to the faid premises after her decease, his, her, and their heirs and affigns, to cause the same to be well and sufficiently repaired and amended within the space of fix months after notice in writing shall be given to him or them for that purpose, rough timber, bricks, tiles, and lime, being allowed him and them for the doing thereof as aforefaid. FURTHER THAT he the faid Charles Clay, his from leffee executors, administrators, and affigns, shall and use hay, &c. will at all times during the continuance of this on premises, demise, spread and bestow in an husband-like and spread manner upon the lands and grounds hereby de- thereon, exmifed, all the compost and dung which shall from cept last year time to time be made on the faid premises, by of term. fodder of cattle or otherwise, except only such compost or dung as shall be made in the last year of this demise, which the said Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns, shall leave upon the faid premises for the faid Mary Plumber, or her affigns, or fuch other person or perfons as aforefaid, without being allowed any AND FURTHER THAT he Covenant thing for the fame. the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administra- from lessee tors, and affigne, shall not nor will at any time manage the during this demise, sow or crop any of the arable ground in an land hereby demised, with any grain or seed ex-husband-like manner.

AND Covenant

that he will

cept clover, more than two successive years together, without permitting the same to have a summer's fallow; nor shall nor will cross crop any of the said arable lands during the said term; nor mow any of the pasture ground hereby demised more than once in any one year of the said

term; but shall and will during this demise, plow, fow, manure, and manage all the lands

t

b

ti

th

po

DI

CO

the foa

day

as

or

niff

obf

and

his ther

cafe

ber,

her

be e

faid

the

the I

Covenant
from leffee
that he will preferve the young timber and not commit
wafte.

Covenant from leffee that he will lay down part of the lands with clover in the last year of term.

and grounds hereby demifed in a due and regular course of husbandry, according to the custom of the neighbouring country. AND further that he the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, or affigns, shall not nor will at any time during the continuance of this demile, do, or cause or voluntarily suffer to be done, any manner of waste or destruction in or upon any part of the premises hereby demised; but shall and will at all times during the faid term preserve from the browse of cattle, and other avoidable injury all the young trees and underwood growing upon any part of the hereby demised premises. AND further that he the said Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, or affigns, shall and will in the summer immediately preceding the expiration of the term hereby granted, prepare in an husband-like manner 20 acres of fuch part of the arable land hereby demifed, as shall be then in course of fallow, fit to be fown with a crop the enfuing feafon, and also lay down with clover feed and rye grafs 10 acres more of the arable land hereby demised, which shall be then in tillage, sowing upon each acre thereof 8lb. of the best clover seed, and two bushels of the best rye grass seed. And moreover that he the faid Charles Clay, his executors,

Covenant from leffee that he will permit leffor's affignee to enter at Candlemas before the end of term to cultivate.

administrators,

administrators, and affigns, shall and will permit, and it shall be lawful for the faid Mary Plumber, or her affigns, if living, and for fuch other person or persons as shall be entitled as aforefaid, in case of her decease, his, her, or their affigns, from and after the 1st day of February next preceding the determination of this demife, with fervants, horfes, and implements of husbandry, to enter upon such closes and grounds of the faid hereby demifed premifes as shall then be in the course of fallow, and plough, till, and manure the fame for the ensuing crop, without hindrance or moleftation; and also for that purpose to take and have the dung and compost which shall then be in the yard or yards belonging to the faid demised premises. PROVI- Proviso of DED ALWAYS, and these presents are upon this re-entry in condition nevertheless, that if the faid rents payment of above referved, or any of them, or any part rent, &c. thereof, shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of 21 days next after either of the said days whereon the same are appointed to be paid as aforesaid (the same being lawfully demanded); or if the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, or affigns, shall not well and truly observe and perform all and every the covenants and agreements in these presents contained, on his and their parts to be observed and performed, then and from thenceforth, in either of the faid cases, it shall be lawful for the said Mary Plumber, and her affigns, if living, and in case of her decease, for the person or persons who shall be entitled to the freehold and inheritance of the faid premises hereby demised, to re-enter into the same premises, or into any part thereof, in the name of the whole, and the same to have again.

T

0

.

0 0

es

h

re

70

e-

S

15,

again, retain, and enjoy, as his, her, or their former estate; and the said Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and assigns, and all Covenants from leffor.

Covenant from leffor to provide materials for repairs.

other tenants and occupiers of the faid premifes, thereout and from thence utterly to expel and amove; and from and after fuch re-entry made, this leafe and every thing herein contained shall determine and be utterly void to all intents and purposes, any thing in these presents contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding. AND the faid Mary Plumber for herfelf, her executors, administrators, and affigns, doth covenant, promife, and agree to and with the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns, in manner following; (that is to fay) that she the faid Mary Plumber, or her affigns, during such part of the term hereby granted, as she shall live, and from and after her decease, such perfon and persons as shall from thenceforth be entitled to the freehold and inheritance of the faid demised premises, for the remainder of the said term, shall and will as often as there shall be occasion during this demise, find and allow unto the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns, either upon the faid premifes, or within three miles distance therefrom, rough timber on the stem, bricks, tiles, and lime for the necessary repairs of the said messuage or tenement, outhouses, buildings, and premises hereby demised, with the gates, stiles, pales, rails and fences belonging thereto, the faid materials to be carried to the places where the fame are to be used at the charge of the said Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and affigns. AND ALSO that it shall be lawful for the faid Charles Glay, his executors, administrators, and affigns,

th

0

O

fa

C

10

DI

fo

be

pa

PE

Covenant that leffee may plash the hedges.

affigns, during the continuance of this demie, at feafonable times in the year, to cut and plash in a husband-like manner, the quick hedges belonging to the faid demifed premifes, faving and preferving all fuch young trees therein, as may be likely to become timber, and likewife to lop the pollard trees growing upon the premifes hereby demised, (so that the said hedges and the faid pollard trees respectively, be not plashed and lopped oftener than once in every year) and employ the wood which shall be got from such trees and hedges, to his and their own use, provided the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall well and sufficiently make up again such hedges, as often as the same shall be plashed, and clear out the ditches belonging thereto, or otherwise fence in and preferve the fame from the browfe of cattle and other avoidable injury. AND ALSO that he Covenant the faid Charles Clay, his executors, admini- that leffee strators, and assigns, shall at any time during strawif he this demise, except only in the last year thereof, bring comhave liberty to fell and dispose of any quantity post in the of hay and straw arising from the said premises, on his and their spreading upon such parts of the fame premises as shall thand in most need of compost, one good load of rotten dung for every load of hay or straw that shall be carried off the premises. AND ALSO that the said Charles Clay, Covenant his executors, administrators, and assigns, pay- torpeaceable ing the rents herein before referved, and per- enjoyment. forming the covenants and agreements herein before contained, on his and their parts to be paid and performed, shall and lawfully may peaceably and quietly hold and enjoy the faid G 3

d

d

may fell

messuage or tenement, and other the premises hereby demised, with their appurtenances, during the term hereby granted, without hindrance or interruption by the faid Mary Plumber, or her affigns, or any other person lawfully claiming from or under her, them, or any of them, Proviso em- PROVIDED ALWAYS, and it shall moreover be lawful for the faid Charles Clay, his executors, administrators, or assigns, to determine and make void this prefent leafe at the expiration of the first 7 or 14 years of the faid term of 21 years hereby granted, on his or their caufing notice in writing of fuch his or their intention to be given to or left for the faid Mary Plumber, or her affigns if then living, and in case of her decease, to and for such other person and perfons as shall then be entitled as aforefaid, at his, her, or their usual place of abode, fix calendar months at least before the time mentioned in > fuch notice for determining the fame, any thing herein before contained to the contrary thereof in any wife notwithstanding. In witness, &c.

powering leffee to determine leafe.

es 1-

ce

or 1-

n.

90

5,

nd

of

I

g

m

7,

er

-

ę,

11

n

of

An

III. An Indorsement for continuing the Term of an expiring leafe (a).

THIS INDENTURE made the 5th day of December, in the 32d year of the reign of our fovereign lord George the Third, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, &c. and in the year of our Lord Christ 1792, BETWEEN Parties. the within named John Felton, of the one part, and the within named Peter Thomas, of the other part, WITNESSETH, that in confideration of the rent hereby referved, and of the covenants, conditions, and agreements herein contained on the part of the faid Peter Thomas, his executors, administrators, and affigns, to be paid and performed, the faid John Felton doth demise and leafe unto the said Peter Thomas, his executors, administrators, and affigns, ALL that piece or parcel of ground with the messuage or tenement thereon erected, and all and fingular other the premises comprised in the within written lease, and thereby demised, To HAVE AND TO HOLD Habendum. the faid piece or parcel of ground and messuage, or tenement, and all and fingular other the premifes hereby and by the within written leafe demifed and leafed, or mentioned fo to be unto the faid Peter Thomas, his executors, administrators, and affigns, from the 24th day of June, which will be in the year of our Lord 1793, and when the faid within written leafe will expire,

⁽a) This requires a 6s. stamp notwithstanding the stamp on the leafe.

for and during, and unto the full end and term of 4 years thence next enfuing, subject to and under the like rent as in the within written leafe is referved, and payable in like manner as therein is mentioned, and subject also to the like power of re-entry, as well on the non-payment of rent, as on the happening of any other of the incidents mentioned in the proviso for re-entry within written. And it is hereby declared and agreed by and between the parties to these prefents, that they and their respective executors, administrators, and affigns, shall and will during the continuance of the additional term of 4 years hereby granted, stand and be bound by fuch, and the like covenants, provisoes, and agreements as they, their respective executors, administrators, and affigns, are now bound by the within written lease, in respect of the said premises thereby and hereby granted, it being the intent and meaning of the parties hereto, that this indorfed leafe, and the additional term hereby granted, shall be upon such and the like footing as the leafe within written, and that all the covenants, conditions, and agreements contained in the within written leafe, be equally available, and have the like force and effect to all intents and purpofes, as if the same and every thing in the faid leafe contained were again repeated and inferted in these presents. In witnefs, Ga

0

fi

de

e

ti

п

CI

1 ir

2

b

0

25

th

h

C

A

IV. A Covenant to be inserted in a Lease to indemnify the Tenant against Accidents by Fire.

AND LASTLY, it is covenanted and agreed by and between the faid parties to these presents, that the faid (tenant), his executors, administrators, and affigns, shall not by virtue thereof, or of any thing herein contained, be chargeable with any damage which shall or may be occafioned during the term hereby demifed, by accidental fire, and that accidents by fire are wholly excepted out of the covenant herein before mentioned, for keeping and leaving the faid premiles in repair, and the faid (tenant), his executors, administrators, and assigns, is not, nor shall be construed to be by colour of any clause in these presents contained, liable to make good any fuch accidents or damage occasioned thereby, but the same shall be repaired and made good, or, if necessary, the premises be rebuilt, as soon as may be after the happening of fuch fire, at the expence and charge of the faid (landlord), his heirs, or affigns, any thing in these presents contained to the contrary in any wife notwithstanding.

V. A Covenant from Lessee that he will insure the Premises from Fire, and rebuild them if burnt.

AND that he the faid (tenant) his executors, administrators, and affigns, shall and will at his and their own proper costs and charges from time to time, during the continuance, and until the expiration of the term hereby granted, cause to be well and fufficiently infured, in some or one of the public offices, kept in the cities of London or Westminster, for the purpose of insuring houses from casualties by fire, all and every the meffuages or tenements, erections, and buildings which shall be erected and built upon the faid piece or parcel of ground hereby demised, or upon any part thereof, in the full fum of £500 of lawful money of Great Britain; and in case the said messuages or tenements, erections, and buildings, or any of them, or any part of them, shall at any time or times during the faid term be destroyed, or damaged by fire, shall and will, as often as the same may happen, and as soon as may be thereafter, cause the same to be rebuilt, or repaired, as occasion may require, in a good and substantial manner.

VI. Covenant that Lessee will not assign the Premises to any offensive trade.

AND ALSO, that he the faid (leffee), his executors, administrators, and assigns, shall not, nor will at any time during the continuance of the faid term hereby granted, affign or fet over the present indenture of lease, or set, let, or affign any part of the meffuage and premifes hereby demised, unto either of the trades or businesses following, that is to fay, the trade or business of a Sedan chairmaker, Butcher, Baker, Currier, Soap boiler, Brewer, Diftiller, Tallow-chandler, Tallow-melter, Sugar-baker, working Brazier, Tinman, Plumber, Tripeboiler, Tripe-seller, Dyer, Founder, Smith, Pipemaker, Pipe borer, or any other noxious or offensive business whatsoever, without the confent in writing of the faid (landlord), his executors, administrators, or assigns first obtained for that purpose, nor shall nor will, without fuch consent as aforesaid, cause to be made any addition or alteration whatever, in or about the faid meffuage or tenement and premifes, or any part thereof.

0

e

of

d

y

g

e,

16

2-

Nt

No. III.

ASSIGNMENTS.

I. An Assignment of leasehold Premises, from a Mortgagee to a Purchaser (a).

HIS INDENTURE made the day of in the 34th year of the reign of our fovereign Lord George the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the Faith, and fo forth, and in the year of our Lord 1794, BE-TWEEN William Johnson, (the mortgagee), of &c. of the 1st part, and Joseph King, (the mortgagor) of &c. of the 2d part, and Feremiah Goodright, (the purchaser) of &c. of the 3d part. WHEREAS (here was recited the leafe by which the mortgagor held the mortgage deed and bond for securing the sum of 5001. formerly lent on the premises now assigned). AND WHEREAS the faid fum of 500%. was not paid at the time appointed by the faid recited indenture, for payment thereof, whereby the estate of the faid William Johnson in the faid mortgaged premises became absolute in law, AND WHEREAS there is now due to the faid William

I fi

0 ti

f

ti

fu

k

ni

di

g

ar

af

ar

th

re

⁽a) To be engroffed on a 6s. Deed stamp.

Johnson for principal and interest on the said recited bond and mortgage, the fum of 550l. AND WHEREAS the faid Feremiah Goodright hath contracted with the faid Joseph King for the absolute purchase of the said mortgaged premifes for all the refidue now to come of the faid term of 99 years, granted by the faid recited indenture of lease at the price or sum of 700%. Now THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that for and in confideration of the faid fum of 550%. of lawful money of Great Britain, in hand, at or before the fealing of these presents, well and truly paid by the said Jeremiah Goodright to the said William Johnson, (by the direction of the faid Foseph King, testified by his sealing and delivering hereof), which faid fum of 550l. is in full of all principal and interest money due to the faid William Johnson on the said recited bond and mortgage, and the receipt of which faid fum the faid William Johnson doth hereby acknowledge, and therefrom discharge the said Feremiah Goodright, and also the said Joseph King, their and each of their executors, administrators, and affigns, by these presents, HE the faid William Johnson by and with the consent, direction, and appointment of the faid Joseph King, testified as aforesaid, HATH granted, bargained, fold, affigned, transferred, and fet over, Affignment and by these presents DOTH grant, bargain, sell, from mortassign, transfer, and set over, unto the said Je- gagee. remiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, the faid recited indentures of leafe and releafe, and the faid recited bond, and also the messuage or tenement, and all and fingular other the hereditaments and premises, with their respective appurtenances in and by the same indentures dentures of lease and release demised and conveyed as aforesaid, or mentioned so to be, and all the estate, right, title, interest, property, term of years, unexpired claim and demand whatsoever, of him the said William Johnson, of, in, and to the same premises, by virtue of the faid recited indentures, or otherwise, To HAVE AND TO HOLD the faid recited indenture of leafe, and indenture of affignment; and also Covenant from mortgagee that he has not encumbered.

the faid piece or parcel of ground, and the meffuage or tenement thereon built, and all and fingular other the premifes hereby affigned, with the appurtenances hereby granted, fold, and affigned or mentioned fo to be, unto the faid Jeremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, from the day of the date of thefe prefents, for and during all the refidue now to come of the faid term of 99 years, by the faid recited indenture of leafe granted. AND the faid William Johnson for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, doth covenant, promise, and agree to and with the said Jeremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, by these presents, that he the said William Johnson, hath not done, or caused to be done, or knowingly fuffered any act or thing whatfoever, whereby the faid recited indenture of lease is, or shall, or can be made void, or the faid piece or parcel of ground, meffuage, or tenement, and premises hereby assigned, or any of them are or shall, or can be charged or Affignment incumbered in title, estate, or otherwise. AND THIS INDENTURE FURTHER WITNESSETH that for and in consideration of the further sum of 150l. of lawful money of Great Britain, to the faid Joseph King, in hand also, well and truly

from Mortgagor.

n-

ind

ty,

ind

on,

of To

ire lfo

ef-

nth

ıf-

1-

aof

W

he

ID

rs,

ıt,

ah

nd

1-

be ng

re

e,

or

or

D

H

m

to

nd

ly

truly paid by the faid Jeremiah Goodright, at or before the fealing and delivery of these presents therewith, whereof the faid Joseph King doth hereby acknowledge and therefrom doth releafe and discharge the said Jeremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, (which faid fums of 550l. by the faid Jeremiah Goodright to the said William Johnson as aforesaid, and the 150l. by him now paid to the faid Joseph King, making together the fum of 700l. are in full of the purchase money agreed to be paid by the said Jeremiah Goodright for the said premifes,) he the faid Joseph King, Hath granted, bargained, fold, released, and confirmed, and by these presents Doth grant, bargain, sell, releafe, and confirm unto the faid Jeremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators and affigns, the faid recited indenture of leafe made and granted to him the faid Joseph King, as aforefaid, and the faid piece or parcel of ground, and all and fingular other the premises with the appurtenances in the same indenture demised, and all the estate, right, title, interest, profit, property, term of years now to come, equity of redemption, claim and demand whatfoever, of him the said Joseph King, both in law and equity, or otherwise, of, in, and to the said lease and premises, or any part thereof, and all deeds, evidences, and writings touching and concerning the faid hereby demised premises, or any part thereof now in the custody or power of the faid Joseph King, or of any other person, for his use, or in trust for him, TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the faid recited indenture of leafe, and the faid piece or parcel of ground, meffuage, or tenement thereon built, and all and lingular

or

for

ga

cu

FU

oth

he

the

and

Go

ma

ful

wh

COI

her

Go

affi

99 exp

exe

ion

mi

mi

mi

Covenant from mortgagor that lease is valid.

fingular other the premises with the appurtenances herein before mentioned and expressed to be hereby granted and affigned as aforefaid, unto the faid Feremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, from henceforth for and during all the refidue now to come of the faid term of 99 years. And the faid Joseph King for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators doth covenant, promise, and agree to and with the faid Jeremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, by these prefents, in the manner following (that is to fay) that the faid recited indenture of leafe made and granted to him the faid Joseph King as aforefaid, is at the time of the fealing and delivering of these presents, a good and valid lease, and that the term of years thereby demifed is now in being, and in no wife forfeited, furrendered, or any wife encumbered, (fave as aforefaid) and that they, the faid Joseph King and William Johnson have in themselves, or one of them hath in himself, good, right, and absolute authority to grant, bargain, fell, affign, transfer, and fet over the premises meant and expressed to be hereby affigned, with their appurtenances, unto the faid Jeremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and assigns, in manner aforesaid, AND that he the faid Fereniah Goodright, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall, or lawfully may, for and during all the remainder now to come of the faid term of 99 years, by the faid recited indenture of lease granted peaceably have, hold, occupy and enjoy all and fingular the premises hereby granted and affigned, or mentioned fo to be, with their appurtenances, without any fuit, molestation, or interruption of

Covenant for quiet enjoyment. of them the said Joseph King and William Johnson, or either of them, their or either of their executors, administrators, or assigns, or of any other person lawfully claiming from them or any of them, and that free and clear of all former and other grants, affignments, mortgages, furrenders, and other affurances and incumbrances whatfoever, made or knowingly suffered to be made by the faid Joseph King and William Johnson, or either of them, or which shall or may be made by their or either of their executors, administrators, or affigns. AND Covenant FURTHER that he the faid Joseph King, his for further executors and administrators, and all and every affurance. other person or persons lawfully claiming from or under him or them, shall and will at all times hereafter during the remainder now to come of the said term of 99 years, at the request, costs, and charges in the law of the said Feremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigus, make, do, and execute, or cause to be made, done, and executed, all fuch further lawful and reasonable acts and deeds in the law whatfoever, for the better and more effectually conveying, affigning, and affuring the faid hereby affigned premises unto the said Jeremiab Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, for all the remainder of the faid term of 99 years, which shall be then to come and unexpired, as the said Jeremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall reasonably require. AND LASTLY, the said Fere- Covenant miah Goodright, for himself, his executors, ad- from affigministrators, and affigns, doth covenant, pro- rent and mise, and agree to and with the said Joseph perform co-

,

King, venants of leafe.

King, his executors and administrators, that he the faid Feremiah Goodright, his executors, administrators, and affigns, some or one of them shall and will from time to time during the remainder-now to come of the faid term of 99 years, pay the faid yearly rent of 40%. by the faid recited indenture of leafe referved at such time and in fuch manner as by the faid indenture the fame is referved and made payable, and shall and will perform and observe all and every the covenants and agreements therein contained, which on the tenant's part are to be kept and performed. And also shall and will at all times fave and indemnify, and fave harmless the faid Joseph King, his executors and administrators, from all fuits, damages, and expences whatfoever, which he or they may fuffain or be put unto, by reason of the non-payment of the said yearly rent, or non-performance of any of the covenants in the faid recited indenture of leafe reserved and contained. In Witness, &c.

South Library What add as it says

II. Affignment

II

C

m

di

21 te

m

of

fa

he

m le be ar

le

he rs,

m e-

99 he

ch

re

all

he

d,

nd

es

id

8,

t-

ut

id

le

Æ

1

II. Affignment of Lease and Premises by Indorsement (a).

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, the within named William Naile fendeth greeting. WHEREAS the within named William Naile for the confiderations hereinafter mentioned, hath agreed to affign over unto Josiah James, now or late servant to Elizabeth Long, of Saville Row, in the county of Middlefex, Widow, his executors, administrators, and affigns, the within mentioned meffuage, or tenement and premises. Now these presents WITNESS, that in pursuance of the said agreement, and for and in confideration of the fum of 51. of lawful money of Great Britain to the said William Naile in hand, paid by the said Josiah James, at or before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, he the faid William Naile Affignment Hath granted, bargained, fold, affigned, transferred, and set over, and by these presents Doth grant, bargain, fell, affign, transfer, and fet over, unto the said Josiah James, his executors, administrators, and assigns, all that the messuage, tenement, and all and fingular other the premifes in and by the within written indenture of lease demised or mentioned, or intended so to be, with their and every of their appurtenances; and all the estate, right, title, interest, term of

⁽a) This will require a 6s. stamp besides the stamp on the

ftr

fer

me wit

or ang

tin

to yea

wr

per fefs

fua

So:

na

and

to

WI

evi

lia

fau

fre

oth

CUI

kep

ag:

dee

me

me

23

years to come and unexpired, property, claim, and denrand whatfoever, of the within named William Naile, of, in, to, or out of the same premises, every or any part thereof, together with the faid indenture of leafe. TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the faid piece or parcel of ground, and all and fingular other the premises hereby, or mentioned to be hereby affigned, with their and every of their appurtenances, unto the faid Josiah James, his executors, administrators, and affigns, from the feast-day of St. Michael the Archangel now next ensuing the date hereof, for and during all the rest, residue, and remainder, which shall be then to come and unexpired, of the term of twenty-one years, in and by the within written indenture of lease granted thereof, (determinable nevertheless at the option of the said Josiah James, his executors, administrators, and affigns, at the end of the first 7 or 14 years of the term of 21 years within granted, upon the faid Josiah James, his executors, administrators, or affigns, giving such notice to the faid William Naile, his executors, administrators, or affigns, as the faid William Naile is required to give in and by the within written indenture,) subject nevertheless to the payment of the rent and performance of the covenants in the fame indenture of leafe, referved and contained on the tenant or leffee's part, from thenceforth to be paid, done, and performed. And the faid William Naile, doth hereby for himself, his heirs, executors, and administrators, covenant, promise, and agree, to and with the said Josiah James, his executors, administrators, and affigns, in manner following; (that is to fay) that he the faid Josiah James, his executors, adminiftrators,

Covenant for quiet enjoyment. n,

be

ne

er

E

d,

γ,

ir d

d

e

r

r, f

e f,

e

.

e

.

.

-

n

-

e is

t,

e

frators, or affigns, paying the rent, and obferving and performing the covenants and agreements referved and contained in and by the faid within written indenture of leafe, on the tenant or leffee's part, to be paid and performed, from and after the faid feast of St. Michael the Archangel now last past, shall and may from time to time, and at all times thereafter, for and during all the refidue and remainder which shall be then to come and unexpired, of the faid term of 21 years (determinable as aforefaid), by the within written indenture of lease granted, lawfully, peaceably, and quietly have, hold, occupy, pofsels, and enjoy the said piece or parcel of mesfuage and premises hereby affigned, or intended to be, with their and every of their appurtenances, and receive and take the rents, iffues, and profits thereof, and of every part thereof, to and for his and their own use and benefit, without any lawful let, vert, trouble, denial, eviction, or interruption of, or by the faid William Naile, his executors, administrators, or affigns, or any other person or persons whomloever, lawfully claiming or to claim, by, from, or under him, them, or any of them, or by or through his or their acts, means, neglect, default, or procurement; AND that free and clear, freely and clearly acquitted and discharged, or otherwise, by the said William Naile, his executors, or administrators, well and sufficiently kept harmless, and indemnified of, from, and against all and all manner of former and other Free from deeds, gifts, grants, bargains, fales, affign-incumbranments, mortgages, surrenders, re-entries, judg- ces. ments, executions, extents, statutes, recognizances, and all other incumbrances whatfoever;

I

co

of

an

pla

W

of

the 17

Ri

tair

ing

cer

mil

fide

fex,

fure

day

of :

nex

Joh

lum

Pet

kno

tran

Do.

adm

poll.

Covenant for further affurance.

AND of and from all arrears of rent, taxes, and affestments, until the said feast-day of St. Michael the Archangel next enfuing. AND FUR-THER that he the faid William Naile, his executors or administrators, and all and every other person and persons having, or lawfully claiming, or to claim any estate, right, title or interest, of, in, to, or out of the faid hereby affigned premises, or any part thereof, from, by, under, or in truft, either for the within-named William Naile, his or any of his executors or administrators, shall and will from time to time, and at all times during the continuance of the faid term hereby affigned, upon every reasonable request, and at the costs and charges in the law, of him the faid Jofiah James, his executors, administrators, or assigns, make, do and execute, or cause and procure to be made, done, and executed, all and every fuch further and other lawful and reasonable acts, conveyances, and affurances in the law, for the further and better affigning and affuring the faid premifes unto the faid Josiah James, his executors, administrators, and affigns, for the then relidue of the term within demised, as by the said Josiah James, his executors, administrators, or affigns, or his or their counsel learned in the law, shall be reafonably devised and required.

IN WITNESS whereof the faid parties have hereunto fet their hands and feals, this 8th day of January, 1793.

William Naile. (Seal.)
Josiah James. (Seal.)

Witness, Thomas Butts.

III. Affignment

III. Assignment of a Policy of Insurance (a).

d

T

,

,

d

n

d

d

,

ď

d

r

e

e

,

S

e

İ

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL come, Johnson Pitts of Shadwell, in the county of Midalesex, Gent. (executor of the last will and testament of Thomas Beile, late of the same place, Efq. deceased), SENDS GREETING, WHEREAS by a certain deed, poll, or policy of insurance, numbered 40005, bearing date the 5th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1789, and executed by James Bedwell and Richard White, trustees or directors of a certain office for infuring buildings from fire, going by the name of the Phænix Fire Office, a certain brick dwelling house, and other the premiles therein described, situated on the north ide of Carey Street, in the county of Middlefex, in the occupation of Peter Davis, are infured from loss by fire, from and after the 6th day of July then next, for and during the term of 7 years from the faid 5th day of July thence next enfuing. Now KNOW YE, that the faid Johnson Pitts, for and in consideration of the hum of 50l. to him in hand paid by the faid Peter Davis, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, HATH bargained, fold, affigned, transferred and fet over, AND by these presents DOTH bargain, fell, assign, transfer, and set over, unto the faid Peter Davis, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the said recited deed poll, or policy of infurance, and all monies that ⁽a) This must be written on a 6s. Deed stamp.

Power of Attorney to receive, &c.

1 4.11

Viscost.

shall or may become due thereon, and all benefit and advantage thereof, and all the right, title, and interest of him the faid Johnson Pitts, in and to the fame respectively. AND the faid Johnson Pitts doth also hereby authorize and empower the faid Peter Davis, his executors, administrators, and affigns, in his or their own name or names, and for his and their own proper use, or in the name of the said Johnson Pitts, his executors or administrators, but to and for the use of the faid Peter Davis, his executors, administrators, and assigns, to receive from the truffees or directors for the time being, of the faid Phænix Fire Office, all monies that shall or may become due on the faid recited deed poll, or policy of insurance, and upon non-payment thereof, or of any part thereof, to fue for, recover, and receive the fame, and to give receipts or other discharges' for the same; and all and whatever the said Peter Davis, his executors, administrators, or affigns, shall lawfully do, or cause to be done, in and about the premises aforesaid, the said Johnson Pitts doth by these presents confirm and allow as fully and effectually as if he himfelf were personally present, and did the same. In witness, &c.

No. IV.

SURRENDERS.

I. The form of a Surrender of a Lease, indorsed on the back thereof (a).

O ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, know ye that the within named James Finch, hath furrendered and yielded up, and hereby doth furrender and yield up unto the within named William Downing, all and fingular the within mentioned premises, and all the estate, term and interest of the said James Finch therein, together also with the within written indenture of lease. To HOLD all and fingular the same premises of the said indenture of leafe, unto the faid William Downing, his heirs and affigns, to the use of the said William Downing, his heirs and affigns, for ever. In witness whereof the said parties have hereunto fet their hands and feals, this 2d day of March, 1794.

Witness,

fit le,

in id nd

vn oon to

is ene o-

id

nd

rt

ne

es '

id or

e,

m

1-

e.

V.

James Finch.
William Downing.

(a) The furrender may be by a separate deed, or on the back of the leases; in either case, if it be under seal, it must be written on a 6s. Deed stamp, but if it be only by note in writing, no stamp is requisite.

H

II. Another

II. Another Form by Note in Writing.

2d March, 1794. The within named James Finch hath this day furrendered unto the within named William Downing, the within lease, and all his interest therein. As witness their hands.

Witness,

in stability

only our constitue. To be. The Sec.

an never William Douglas, the and

James Finch.
William Downing.

I

t S

ti

e

a tì

n

W

III. The Surrender of a Copyhold Estate to the use of a Purchaser.

Manor of Hampfiead in the county of Middlesex.

lenting of leave. The more MEMORANDUM THAT on the twenty-fourth day of August, in the thirty-second year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Third, &c. in the year of our Lord, 1794, Sir Gilbert Allan, of Rippon, in the county of York, Knight, one of the customary tenants of the faid manor, by John Rich, Gent. his attorney, (by virtue of a letter of attorney to him made by the faid Sir Gilbert Allan, for that purpose, bearing date the fourth day of August instant,) did furrender into the hands of the lord of the faid manor, by the rod, according to the custom of the fame manor, by the proper hands and acceptance of Robert Johnson, Efq. lord of the faid faid manor (a), ALL that, &c. to the use of Sarah Dowse, of, &c. widow, her heirs and affigns for ever, according to the custom of the faid manor.

Gilbert Allan.

Taken the day and year first above written, by me

Robert Johnson, lord of the said manor.

The Admittance of the new Tenant.

MEMORANDUM THAT after the making the The manor furrender hereunto annexed, viz. on this twenty- of Hampninth day of August, 1794, Sarah Dowse, in fead, in the the same surrender named, in her proper person, Middlesex. came before me Robert Johnson, Esq. lord of the faid manor, at the manfion house of the faid Sarah Dowle, situated near Hampstead aforefaid, and defired to be admitted tenant to all and fingular the customary messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, mentioned and contained in the same surrender, with their and every of their appurtenances, to whom the lord of the faid manor, by his own proper hands, in the presence of Jeremiab Clark, the lord's steward for this turn, did then and there grant feifin thereof by the rod, to have and to hold the same messuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, with their and every of their appurtenances,

⁽a). It is more usual for the furrender to be taken by the fleward, but it may be done by the lord himfelf.

for ever, of the lord, at the will of the lord, according to the custom of the said manor, by fealty, suit of court, and the several yearly rents Fine 3%. 66. and services therefore due, and of right accustomed; and the said Sarah Dewse gave to the lord for fine, for such her estate, and entry into the same premises respectively, as appears in the margin, the fealty was respited. And so saving to the lord his right, the said Sarah was admitted tenant to the said premises in manner and form aforesaid.

Robert Johnson, Lord of the faid manor.

In the presence of Jeremiah Clarke.

The Surrender of the faid Sarah Dowse to the Use of her Will.

MEMORANDUM THAT after the admission of the faid Sarah Dowle as aforefaid, viz. on the faid twenty-ninth day of August, in the year of our Lord 1794, aforesaid, the said Sarah Dowle did furrender into the hands of the faid lord of the faid manor, by the rod, according to the custom of the said manor, by the proper hands and acceptance of the faid lord of the faid manor, all and every the customary messuages, lands, meadows, pastures, tenements, and hereditaments, to which the was admitted as abovementioned, with their and every of their appurtenances, and all other her customary and copyhold meffuages, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, which are parcel of the faid manor, or are held of the fame manor, by copy of courtcourt-roll, to fuch uses, intents, and purposes, as the said Sarah Dowse shall in and by her last will and testament in writing, limit, declare, or appoint.

Sarab Dotufe.

Taken the day and year above written, by me

ns

d,

by

its

f-

ne

to

g i-

r.

e

Robert Johnson, lord of the said manor.

No. V.

NOTICES TO QUIT (a).

I. Notice from Landlord to Tenant to quit Premises.

SIR,

Hereby give you notice to quit on or before the 25th day of March next the house and premises situated No. 6, Gower Street, Bedford Square, in the county of Middlesex, which you now hold of me at the rent of 60l. per annum, dated this 4th day of January, 1793.

Yours, &c. John Stiles,

Landlord of the faid house and premises.

No. 6, Gower Street, Bedford Square.

(a) Notices to quit require no stamp.

H 3 II. Notice

II. Notice from Landlord to Tenant, either to quit the Premises or pay double Rent.

SIR,

I hereby give you notice to quit and deliver up, on or before the 5th day of January now next, the house, farm, lands, and tenements, which you now hold of me, situate No. 10, Paddington Green, in the county of Middle-sex: in default whereof, I shall require for the same the net yearly rent or sum of 80l. (being double the present yearly rent thereof), for such time as you shall thereafter continue possession. Dated this 4th day of October, 1793.

Joseph Wilson.

Landlord of the said premises.

To Mr. James Pie.

III. Notice from Tenant to bis Landlord to quit Premises.

SIR,

I hereby give you warning that I shall quit the house and premises I now hold of you, situated No. 25, Gerard Street, Soho Square, on Michaelmas Day next. Dated this 1st day of July 1793.

Yours, &c. Stephen Phillips.

To Mr. Peyton, No. 10, Lyon's Inn.

No. VI.

No. VI.

RECEIPTS FOR RENT.

TWENTY-NINTH day of March, 1794, received of Mr. James Tylon, the sum of 151. 10s. being half a year's rent due from him to me at Lady Day last.

James Phillips.

was in the century of Sedaction

f. s. d.

15 10 0 ---- Rent.

0 10 0 -- -- Land-tax

£15 0 0 --- Net fum.

When received for the Use of another it may be thus:

bank as some court and the some indicate a time

Twenty-ninth day of March, 1794, received of Mr. James Tyson, the sum of 151. 108. being one half year's rent due to James Phillips, of Bedford Square, Esq. for the house now occupied by the said James Tyson, No. 15, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury.

William Gill,

L. s. d. No. 6, Clifford's Inn.

15 10 0 ---- Rent.

0.10 0 ---- Land tax.

£15 0 0 ---- Net fum. H 4

No. VII.

No. VII.

PRECEDENTS IN DISTRESS.

POPER SERVICE HERED A COMME

1. The Form of an Authority given by a Landlord to empower another to distrain for him.

Mr. William Jones,

I do hereby authorize you to distrain the goods and chattels of Thomas Peters, on the premises now in his possession, situate at Issington, in the county of Middless, for 201. being balf a year's rent due to me for the same at Lady Day last, and for your so doing this shall be a sufficient warrant or authority, dated this 8th day of April, 1794.

of the special control of the second of the second Charles to the particular teach the teacher to be completely and the second 30年20日20日10日11日日

AND TOTAL OF

Thomas Frafer.

II. The form of an Inventory and Notice to be ferved on a Tenant when Distress taken of his Goods, &c. for Rent arrear.

An inventory of the several goods and chattels distrained by me William Jones, the 10th day of April, 1794, in the dwelling house (or otherwise as the case may be) of Thomas Peters, situated at Islington, in the county of Middle-sex, by the authority and in the behalf of James Fraser, the landlord of the said premises, for 201. being half a year's rent due to him the said James Fraser, at Lady Day last.

In the dwelling boufe.

4 Bedfteads and bedding.

1 12 Mabogany chairs.

2 Disting tables.

In the yard.

5 Pigs.
6 Hens, &c. &c.

the artiful profit of Dellar

At the Bottom of this Inventory must be written the following Notice to the Tenant.

Thomas Peters,

Take notice that I have this day by the authority and on the behalf of your landlord, James Fraser, Esq. distrained on the premises above-mentioned, the several goods and chattels, mentioned in the above inventory, for the sum therein expressed, which goods and chattels are removed to No. 10, High Street, and there safely impounded; and unless you pay the said sum, with the charge of distraining for the same, within the space of 5 days from the date hereof, the said goods and chattels will be appraised and sold, according to the statute in that behalf made and provided.

... William Jones.

3 5 3 5 mil

The Person who serves the above on the Tenant should sign a Memorandum on a Copy thereof, purporting that he has done so, and the Day when.

III. The

III. The Form of a Tenant's Consent to the Landlord's continuing in Possession upon the Premises, of Goods distrained, after the 7th Day.

I Thomas Peters do hereby consent that James Fraser, my landlord, who on the 10th day of April last distrained my goods and chattels for rent due to him, shall continue possession thereof on the premises for the space of 7 days from the date hereof, the said James Fraser undertaking to delay the sale of the said goods and chattels for that time, in order to enable me to discharge the said rent. Witness my hand this 17th day of April, 1794.

Thomas Peters.

IV. The Form of a Memorandum of Oath being administered to Appraisers of Distress, to be indorsed on an Inventory of the Goods.

Be it remembered that on this day of April, 1794, Joseph Pinks and Stephen Lyons, two sworn appraisers, were sworn upon the Holy Evangelists by me Timothy Thomas, constable, well and truly to appraise the goods and chattels mentioned in this inventory, according to the best of their judgment.

Timothy Thomas.

Witness, John Lann. Michael Moses. V. The Form of a Memorandum of an Appraisement of Goods distrained, to be indorsed on the Inventory thereof.

We the above-named Joseph Pinks and Stephen Lyons, being fworn on the Holy Evangelists by the above-named Timothy Thomas, well and truly to appraise the goods and chattels mentioned in this inventory, according to the best of our judgment, and having viewed the said goods and chattels, do appraise and value the same at the sum of 30l. as witness our hands this day of April, 1794.

Joseph Pinks. Stephen Lyons.

Witness, James Wills.

VI. The form of a Replevin Bond (a).

KNOW ALL MEN by these presents that we George Thomas, of &c. and Edward Piles, of the same place, gent. are held and firmly bound unto William George, sheriff of the said county,

⁽a) To be written on a 6s. Deed stamp.

in the sum of 100l. (double the value of the goods distrained), of lawful money of Great-Britain, to be paid to him the said William George, or his certain attorney, executors, administrators, or assigns, for which payment to be well and truly made we bind ourselves, and each of us, our and each of our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally by these presents, dated this 2d day of June, 1794.

Now the condition of this obligation is such, that if the above bounden George Thomas shall and do appear at the next county court to be holden for the county of Essex, at the town of

on the 12th day of October next hereafter, and there prosecute with effect his suit which he has commenced against Frances Topworth, for the taking and unjustly detaining three carts, one waggon, six horses, and two cows, the goods and chattels of him the said George, and shall and do make a return of the said goods and chattels, if a return of the same shall be adjudged, then this obligation shall be void and of none effect, but otherwise shall remain and be in sull force and virtue. Sealed with our seals the day and year first above written.

George Thomas. (Seal.) Edward Piles. (Seal.)

Witness, James Till.

AGREEMENT.

The second of the second and the
FOR a lease, where construed to	be	a lease,
and where not -	153.	Page 8
As to vacating leafe -	-	20
Various forms of (fee Precedents)	-	108
APARTMENT	s.	ranga.
Cautions as to biring and letting	a c	89
APPURTENANCI	ES	tit
What this word comprizes -		25
A Late a variable and the same	5 4	-5
ASSIGNMENT.	Ь	n dirin
What necessary to constitute a good affe	igni	nent 26
No consideration necessary -		ibid
If defective shall be construed to be	an
lease		27
Proper covenants in		- 29
Proper forms of (see Precedents)	-	132
ASSIGNEE.	Sink
[17] [2] [12] [2] [2] [2] [2] [2] [2] [2] [2] [2] [7
Who are assignees in law -	-	27
Not liable for covenants broken before	affi	gnment
	-	29
Nor after he has assigned over		ibid
		Nor

Nor for breach of assignor - Page 29
Of assignees and of executors and administrators are comprehended under the word assigns ibid
Liable before entry though mortgagee not ibid

COPYHOLDS.

There may be various estates of -	42
Requisites of	43
Customs of, and incidents to -	ibid
Heriots, wardship, and fines in -	44
The mode of conveying -	46
Surrender of	ibid
Recent determinations respecting -	49
Fines on admission	44
Surrenders and admissions -	48
Proper form of a surrender and admission 147

COVENANTS.

To look of the magnetic article and	1 this	W.
In leases for years -	Y	19
As to re-entry	-	ibid
As to land-tax	-	ibid
As to assigning (see Assignment)		20
As to vacating leafe	•	ibid
As to further term -	-	ibid
As to renewal	•	ibid
Ujual		ibid
As to lease under a power -	•	21
As to exception against fire -		ibid
As to under-leases		ibid
As to repairs	-	ibid
As to merger		ibid
Construction of	-	ibid
Breach of -		22
What run with the land and what do	not	27
Those binding assignees, and those not	-	ibid

Proper

I N D E X

Proper in an assignment - P	age 29
Various forms of -	93
(fee Appendix throughout) all the little to the latter than the latter with the latter than the latter t DISTRESS.
For rent in arrear -	. 68
Who may distrain	ibid
Executors and administrators -	69
Husbands in right of their wives -	ibid
Bodies politic	70
Mortgagees and annuitants -	ibid
Lord of a manor in respect of services	- ibid
Who may not diffrain -	71
Distress may be taken after expiration of
By virtue of renewed leafe -	- 70
Of what things diffress may be taken	- 71
Things distrainable by statute -	72
Corn in Sheaves, and corn growing -	72, 73
Cattle on commons	73
Of what things diffress cannot be taken	ibid
Animals of a wild nature	ibid
Things in the way of trade -	ibid
Things at an inn -	74
The implements of a man's trade	- ibid
Things fixed to the freehold -	75
Things in use	ibid
Things of a perishable nature -	ibid
Money loofe	ibid
Things in the custody of the law -	ibid
Distinction as to the cattle of a strange	ron tenant's land	76
Of the time and manner of making dift	refs 77
Must be made in the day-time -	ibid
Not till the day after the rent reserved	- ibid
May be made within 6 months after expi
lease	ibid
	ar.
	The

The whole rent ought to be distrained for a time, a second however may be made Pa	t one
Part of goods may be taken in the name	5 11
Part of goods may be taken in the name of	80
[제임보다] (1) [1] [1] [1] [1] [1] [1] [1] [1] [1] [1]
Landlord cannot distrain out of his fee, n the highway, unless in particular cases	78
May break open doars	80
As to concealing goods from distress -	78
And removing them -	79
Distress must not be excessive	80
Unlawful distress -	ibid
Not always unlawful when irregular -	81
One distress cannot be taken for several re-	nts
	ibid
How a distress is to be disposed of	8r
Cannot be driven out of the county -	82
May be impounded and fold on the premises	ibid.
Must not be used -	83
Loss, rescue, and escape of -	ibid
If not replevied may be fold -	84
How diffress may be replevied or avoided	ibid
Practical directions for making -	85
Various precedents in (see Precedents -	152 ESTATES.
ESIAIES.
The various kinds of -	T
In fee fimple -	2
In what it may be had -	ibid
Its incidents	ibid
Fee qualified or base	. 3
Fee conditional	ibid
Fee-tail, and its incidents	. 4
For life	5
How created -	ibid
Its incidents -	6
How it may be destroyed -	9
Forfe	iture

Forfeiture of -	Page 10
Tail after poffibility of iffue extinct	- ibid
By the curtefy of England -	11
In dower -	- ibid
Jointure -	- ibid
For years (fee Lease)	12
Its properties	 ibid
Not determined by loss of lease -	24
How destroyed -	25
At will	37
Its incidents - A	- 38
How it may be determined -	25
By fufferance	- 40
By copy of court-roll (fee Copyholds)	- 41
In feveralty, joint-tenancy, coparce
common -	21
(see more of Estates under Tenant)	E to rely
EMBLEMENTS.	Charles William
What, and who entitled to them -	7, 22
ESTOVERS.	Sin vac
What, and who entitled to them -	6, 22, 43
EXCEPTION.
In lease	24
Against fire	21
FORFEITURE (fee Eft.	ates)
Acceptance of rent after -	65
HOUSES.
Cautions as to hiring and letting	89
Usual rent of in London	ibid
	LEASE.

WTHE T EMRMA LGDARO H

N. N. B

C

I N D E X.

L E A S E.

	A STATE OF THE STA
Who may grant leafes -	Page 14
Tenants in fee, in tail, and for life	- ibid
Husbands in right of their wives	- ibid
Executors and administrators -	15
foint-tenants, tenants in common and	The second secon
nary	14
Ecclesiastical persons and guardians	- 15
Infants by the custom of some places	- ibid
Requisites to constitute a good leafe	- 16
Must be in writing	ibid
As to its commencement, continuance, an	The second secon
[6] [19] [2] [2] [2] [2] [2] [2] [3] [3] [4] [4] [4] [4] [4] [4] [4] [4] [4] [4	18, 23
Leffor must be free from compulsion	- 18
Good though figned only by leffer	- ibid
Description of premises must be accurate
Agreement for a leafe	- 18
Renewal good without furrender of old	THE PROPERTY AND INCOME.
Of covenants, provisoes, and agreem
leafes (fee Covenants)	- 19
How a lease may be determined (see Con
The same of the same of the same of the	25
Proper form of leafes (fee Precedents)
tops your y and you have the	dad no
LESSOR.	1 103 1
	•
Must be free from restraint -	, 18
May enter to view repairs -	24
But not to fell timber	ibid
LODGINGS.
Cautions in respect to the taking and lett.	ing them
Sign of the second of the seco	91
The general price of furnished -	90
Ditto unfurnished	ibid

NOTICE

NOTICE TO QUIT.

Where necessary and where not		Page 53
Acceptance of rent after notice	•	65
As to lodgings	-	: 55
By the custom of London - Second notice and void notice		38
	+	55
Parol notice		- 56
How to be ferved -	-	ibid
Penalty in case of non-observance	of	notice by landlord		56
By tenant -	-	ibid
Various forms of notices to quit (fe	e Pr	ecedents)
		149

PRECEDENTS.

I. OF AGREEMENTS.

1. OF AGREEMENTS.
2. Agreement for letting first and second floor, garret, and kitchen, unfurnished - 93 2. For letting first floor and garret, furnished
3. For letting one side of a shop 95 4. For letting a house and garden by a guardian on behalf of an infant 99 5. For letting a piece of ground and orchard 6. For building a new house in the room of an old one to be pulled down - 102

II. OF LEASES.

7. For surrendering a public house

1. Leaje of a nouge in	London, with proper to-venants -	- 108
2. Lease of bouse and le	and in country - 116
3. An indorfement for e	ontinuing the terms of an expiring leafe	127

4. A covenant

107

I N' D' E X.

3558551

4. A covenant to indemnify tenant against e	accidents by fire - Page	129
5. A covenant from a lessee as to insur	ance
against fire -	130
6. A covenant not to affign premises to an of	ffen-
five trade	131
III. OF Assignments.
1. Assignment of leasehold premises -	132
2. Of a lease by indorsement -	139
3. Of a policy of insurance	143
	P
IV. OF SURRENDERS.
1. Surrender of a lease by indorsement -	145
2. By note in writing -	146
3. Of copyhold premises and admittance ther	ein
147,	148
V. OF Notices to quit.
1. Notice from landlord to tenant to quit	149
2. Ditto to quit or pay double rent -	150
3. From tenant to his landlord to quit -	ibid
VI. OF RECEIPTS FOR RENT.	in the
1. Receipt from the landlord himself -	151
2. From the landlord's attorney -	ibid
VII. OF DISTRESS.
	nin
1. An authority to empower another to distr	152
2. Inventory and notice to be ferved on the te	nant
2, Inventory and notice to be jet out on the te	153
3. Tenant's confent to landlord's continuing	101-fession	155
4. Memorandum of oath being administer	ed to
the appraisers	ibid
5. Memora	n de
5. IVIETNOT A	i wuth

5. Me	morand	um oj	app	raise	ment	being	made
						Pa	age 156
6. Ar	eplevin	bond		•			ibid
		R	E	N	T	ur hatet i
How to	be rese	ervea	in a	leaf	e	-	57
To wh	om pay	able	in ce	rtair	r cafe.	s .	- 59
In cafe	of arre	earag				-	60
Tenant Tenant	for life	•	-	,	•		- ibid
		mon		-		-	6r
Leffor's	deach					-	9, 61
Deman	d of re	nt, v	uhere	nece	fary	-	61
Where	not						- 62
How to	be mad	de				-	63
Tender	and re	fusal	of re	ent		•	64
Where	tender	to be	made		. ,		ibid
What a	good t	ender		-			ibid
Accepta	ance of	rent	all a	174	4. 8	/ · · ·	65
After f	orfeitur	e .				-	ibid
After no	otice to	quit	Name of the last			-	ibid
Recover	ry of re	ent	-				66
By action	n given	by	Ratui	e		• * 4	ibid
At comm			-		N-4	1 17	67
By distr	ess (see	Dift	ress)				68
By ejecti	ment		9		A AMIC	D LINE	99
Bankruj	tcy no	bar t	o rec	over	ing	Self Inc	68
ST	ATUT	TES	abri	dged	in th	is wor	k.
6 Ed. 1.			11000		-	10410110	35
52 Hen.		5					78
52 Hen.				-		-	84
32 Hen.				-		60, 6
17 Car.						-	77
29 Car.		1,000			-	ALC: -	16
29 Car.				-			10
1 6 2 W		Mai	r.	-			82
						2	Will.

H.N. N. Is

N. N. A. If

A CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF 2 Will. & Mar. c. 5 - Page 80, 83
2 Will. 3. c. 5 - 79
8 Anne c. 14 - 9, 69, 77
8 Anne c. 17 - 66
9 Geo. 1. c. 29 - 45, 47, 50
4 Geo. 2. c. 28 - 33, 40, 56, 65, 66
11 Geo. 2. c. 19 9, 37, 56, 60, 67, 73, 78
80, 81
30 Geo. 2. c. 3 64 23 Geo. 3. c. 58 93
23 Geo. 3. c. 58 93
SURRENDER.
May be by deed or law - 30
What necessary to make a good furrender by deed
ibid
Surrenderor must be in possession - 31
And have the less estate ibid
What necessary to make a good surrender in law ibid
Case as to rent - 32
Need not be made on renewal of lease - 33
Proper forms of (see Precedents) - 145
TENANT FOR LIFE.
Has a right to complete enjoyment - 6 May take efforers - ibid
The state of the s
Must not commit waste - 7 Is entitled to emblements in some cases, but not in all ibid
May grant leases - 14
May surrender to tenant for years - 32
Action of debt will lie against for rent - 9
If absent for 7 years shall be presumed dead 10
As to lesses of 8
Pant RANT

Rent recover Tenant for Has a right But not to	years t to ef	(fee tover	Lears	(e)		age 8
Has a spec Gunnot rem How his ef (See Est.	ove fix	ture				ibid 23 ibid 33
	w	A	S	T	E.
Removing Diminishin Conversion Opening con Leaving by	f land of land al pits	d d	d fe	lling -	-	35 36 ibid 37 ibid

FINIS.